TESTIMONY OF TORTURE

Romanian Lutheran clergyman Rev. State Report Flays U.C. As 'Center For Reds'

Reds Block Help For U.S. Prisoners

GENEVA (UPI) —The International Red Cross said today the Communists are blocking every effort to get help through to American prisoners of war in Viet Nam.

The statement was made by IRC President Samuel Gonard in talks with U.S. presidential envoy W. Averell Harriman who told newsmen nothing could be arranged "at the present time" for any exchange of POWs.

Gonard said the Viet Nam Communists have refused so far to comply with the Geneva war conventions on prisoners but that the Red Cross is doing all it can to ensure humane treatment for the POW.

Harriman left afterward for home to report to President Johnson on his 45 minute meeting with Gonard. He said the United States is grateful to the Red Cross for its efforts.

Harriman planned to fly to Washington in the afternoon. He later will report directly to President Johnson on his talks with the head of the private all-Swiss organization.

Harriman said America is "most anxious" to obtain the humane treatment for U.S. war prisoners as laid down by the 1949 Geneva agreements.

"This hasn't been done so far," he said. "This treatment includes arranging the exchange of mail and packages, and receiving reports on conditions."

A Red Cross official later said flatly that the Communists are far from contemplating any prisoner exchange.

Harriman said there are more than 200 American servicemen listed as missing in Viet Nam. Only 33 are known to be prisoners of war he said.

MYSTERY ATTACK IN NOVATO HOME

Intruder Preys On Family Earlier Burned Out Of Home Twice; Husband Chases Man

Someone attempted to kill a Novato woman is she dozed in her bed early this morning, hitting her over the head with a blunt instrument, police reported.

Mrs. Patricia Ann Wilson, 25, of 84 Trish Drive, was in satisfactory condition at Novato Hospital with a deep scalp wounud.

Her husband, James Richard Wilson, 30, told police that he arose before 4 a.m. and went into the spare bedroom to dress. His wife awoke when he got up, but went back to sleep, he said. Wilson said he then went into the garage, where he got his boots, returning to the bathroom, and while there he heard his wife cry, "James! James!"

He stepped into the bedroom to find his wife with a wound on her head. A man was crouching across the room, he related.

The intruder ran down the hall and out the front door, with Wilson in pursuit, Wilson told police.

Wilson said he returned to check on his wife and children, Kathy, 7; Lynn, 5, and Jim, 10 months, then called a doctor, who in turn called an ambulance and police.

Police received the call at 3:56 a.m. and were at the house at 3:58 a.m. They found Mrs. Wilson conscious, lying in a pool of blood. She was rushed to Novato hospital by California Ambulance.

Within 10 minutes, six Novato patrol cars, one from the California Highway Patrol and one

Stock Market Keeps Falling After GM Cut

President Silently Watching Economy From Texas Ranch

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks continued their plunge today, involving about 85 per cent of all issues on the market in the worst decline since 1963.

President Johnson today faced a touchy problem of what, if anything, to say about stock market reaction to an announced cutback in automobile production.

The Chief Executive was spending the weekend at his Johnson City ranch and for the time being, maintained watchful silence on the national economy.

FAST TRADE

The United Press International stock market indicator showed a loss of 0.91 per cent for the 1,078 issues traded in the first 30 minutes at the New York Stock Exchange. The across-the-board loss yesterday —the biggest one-day rout since President Kennedy's assassination—amounted to nearly 2 per cent.

Two million shares were traded in the first half hour this morning. There was some bargain hunting in several glamor issues which slipped 20 points in yesterday's selling. Further cautionary selling and bargain hunting appeared likely during the balance of the day.

TWO FACTORS

Brokers hesitated to give any sweeping explanations for the sharp decline yesterday, but two major factors clearly played a part in the selling which climaxed two weeks of nervous decline.

Johnson on Wednesay at a White House labor-management conference spoke of certain "disquieting signs" in the economy. One such sign became clearly evident yesterday as the New York stock market pitched and heaved over news that General Motors was cutting back production in four assembly plant.

BOLINAS HARBOR NIPPED BY ARMY

Engineers' Report Reduces Possibility Of Federal Funds For Long-Sought Project

The Army Corps of Engineers today scotched hopes for development of Bolinas Lagoon as a "harbor of refuge" with federal funds.

The corps, in a review decision announced by Brig. Gen. E. E. Wilhoyt Jr., South Pacific Division engineer, declared improvements are not recommended on Bolinas channel and lagoon.

Wilhoyt said both the South Pacific Division and the San Francisco District of the Corps of Engineers "found a lack of economic justification and insufficient financial capability of local interests to meet requirements of cooperation."

Development of the harbor has been the goal of the Bolinas Harbor District Board.

Gene W. McDaniel, board president, said today, "We hope we might have some new information before this is finalized in Washington that will permit us to leave the door open."

The door was left open a crack in General Wilhoyt's report. He said interested persons may present written views on the report to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, Tempo C Building, Second and Q streets, Washington, D.C., by June 6. "Information submitted should be new, specific in nature, and bear directly on the findings of the report," he said.

The harbor district had hoped for federal participation in a development estimated to cost $5.5 million without a breakwater.

McDaniel said the corps' decision is based on the premise that a breakwater is necessary to offset littoral drift.

"Our people don't think the drift is of enough significance to make a breakwater necessary." He said the breakwater has been estimated to cost $6 million. It is the stumbling block in a feasibility study due to the high cost," McDaniel declared.

The harbor district board is

Deviates, Narcotics Decried

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A State Senate committee today charged that under University of California President Clark Kerr the UC Berkeley campus has turned into a Communist haven and a center for sexual deviation.

In a second consecutive slap at Kerr, the Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities also said he was instrumental in the re-hiring of a teacher who the committee said lied about former Communist connections when he took the state's loyalty oath.

Kerr immediately labeled the report inaccurate and said it contained "distortions, half truths, inaccuracies and statements and situations taken out of context."

His five-point statement in reply to the report said, "The University of California has a policy against the employment of members of the Communist Party. I voted for this policy as a faculty member in 1949. I have supported it ever since. The report does not name a single one of the over 50,000 employes of the University as a current Communist party member."

Calling the Berkeley campus the "pivotal base" for the anti-Viet Nam war movement in the United States, the committee said Communists or Red sympathizers who first gained power in the "free speech" uprisings of 1964 had grabbed control of the antiwar Viet Nam Day Committee.

The 153-page report, issued as an almost unprecedented supplement to the committee's 1965 report, also raps Kerr for allowing students and non-students to make use of university facilities to support off-campus political causes.

Much of the report is devoted to an attempted rebuttal of

Airborne Alert Slice Told By McNamara

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara is drastically reducing the U.S. airborne alert which has been flown continuously for five and one-half years by bombers of the Strategic Air Command.

Bombers have been kept in the air, flying the same courses over which they would travel to targets in the Soviet Union if a nuclear war started.

The decision to cut down the operation reflects the increased importance of intercontinental missiles in the U.S. military arsenal and, as McNamara put it, "the declining importance of bombers in relation to missiles."

McNamara's decision was revealed today with publication of previously secret testimony before the House Appropriations Committee.

The Pentagon said the airborne alert had cost $104 million a year. It said the planned reduction would save $64 million a year.

The continuous airborne alert was started on a modest scale during the Kennedy administration.

The idea was that catastrophe from a missile attack would be averted by keeping some bombers always aloft and ready to counterattack while others remained alert on the ground and ready to take off in 15 minutes.

Cavalry Catches Cong Battalion; Cambodia Says Own Troops Fired

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — U.S. 1st Air Calvalry troopers today caught up with the remnants of a fleeing Viet Cong battalion and trapped them between American guns and the South China Sea. They killed 39 more of the enemy trying desperately to escape, boosting the toll of the two-day battle to 141.

A U.S. military spokesman said the 1st Cav troopers, pursuing the guerrillas through jungle so heavy it blocked out the sunlight, had blocked all avenues of escape except the sea. He said "significant contact" had been made.

"There's a lot of Viet Cong trying to get out of there and some of them haven't been successful," the spokesman said.

Radio Cambodia said today Cambodian defense forces, not the Viet Cong, fired across the border at South Vietnamese or violations of our air space and American troops last Saturday.

The broadcast said Cambodian troops were simply "defending the frontier against daily aggressions, infiltrations or violations of our aire space by American-South Vietnamese forces."

The United States contends that its troops in South Viet Nam were fired on by Viet Cong hiding out in Cambodia and that American artillery fired across the Cambodian frontier to silence the fire.

In Saigon, labor unions today demanded a government crackdown on Communist infiltration of their ranks. They also warned of increasing political penetration of the capital by Viet Cong agents.

The new chief of the nation's security apparatus, Gen. Linh Quang Vien, was reported planning a vast campaign to flush out known Communists in Saigon and other urban centers.

American pilots once more ravaged the Communist supply arteries in North and South Viet Nam despite the loss of three planes in yesterday's attacks. They turned petroleum dumps into infernos that left smoke towering 7,000 feet into the air.

Almost impudently, the U.S. Air Force for the first time sent propeller-driven A1 Skyr-

No Early Viet Peace, Thant Says After Trip

NEW YORK (UPI) —U.N. Secretary General Thant returned from meeting with European leaders yesterday and said "there is no hope for an early settlement" of the war in Viet Nam.

"No new initiative on the party of anybody, on the part of any government, is called for at the moment," Thant told newsmen at Kennedy International Airport. He returned from a 10-day European trip which included talks with Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain and President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Republicans Retain Edge In Marin; Gap Narrowing

The Republican party still has a majority of the voters registered in Marin, but its lead has narrowed considerably in the past two years.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss today announced a total of 83,475 are registered for the June 7 primary, for which registration closed April 14.

Of these, 41,397 are registered as Republican and 38,827 as Democrat. There were 3,237 who declined to give a political party, and 14 registrations with possible defects, Gnoss reported.

This gives the Republicans an edge of 2,570, compared with 4,244 for the 1964 June primary, the county clerk said.

The total registration is 7,843 above that for the primary of two years ago, but 3,527 below the total for the November general election of 1964.

Gnoss said he expects a large increase in registration for next November's election.

Hearings On National Park Slated In June

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Interior Committee will hold hearings next month in California on the proposed redwoods national park, according to Chairman Henry M. Jackson D-Wash.

He announced yesterday that the exact date and details for the hearings would be set by June 1 and that a subcommittee would make an inspection trip in the redwoods area of Northern California.

Human Rights Group Asks Bremond Rehired

Marin County's "old" Human Rights Commission last night questioned one of its members over apparent criticism of the commission, discussed membership to the "new" commission, and recommended that supervisors rehire Walter Bremond, giving him the title of director of the Human Rights Commission.

Bremond, who was fired by supervisors and later resigned two weeks ago, was praised by the six commissioners attending last night's session at the Civic Center.

Commission secretary Wyman Hicks reported that a letter will be sent supervisors recommending rehiring of Bremond and praising the "marvelous job" he did while county director of community relations services.

Hicks said the commissioners at last night's session agreed that it will probably be their last meeting. An ordinance adopted by supervisors will take effect

About Face For Rights Lawyer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Leaders of Baltimore's Negro community expressed shocked surprise today at statements by a Baltimore attorney and long-time courtroom champion of Negro rights that he opposed "any further extension of civil rights" for Negroes.

Kerpleman

The attorney, Leonard Kerpleman, said in a letter published by the Baltimore Evening Sun Wednesday that the riots in Los Angeles Watts area "disgusted me and sickened me as a human being."

He said he could not accept "the manner in which Negro leaders have drawn the Watts carnage to their bosoms and have declared it to be, not their shame, but their glory.

"Gentlemen of the Negro community, by expressing pride, complacency or satisfaction in the Watts riots, you have lost me," said Kerpleman.

U.S. Sues In Selma Election

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—The Justice Department has charged that nearly 1,700 Negro voters were disqualified improperly in Tuesday's Democratic primary to assure a victory for Sheriff James G. Clark, in Dallas County.

Clark

In a suit filed in U.S. District Court at Mobile yesterday, the federal government asks that Clark's opponent, Wilson Baker, be declared the winner.

Baker, the city's public safety director, is a racial moderate while Clark is known for his segregationist views.

The government suit seeks to overturn the action of the county's Democratic Election Committee, which supports Clark's contention that ballots in six of the county's 80 voting precincts were handled improperly. It asks for a preliminary injunction to prevent the disputed ballots from being destroyed.

Baker

If the predominantly Negro votes are counted, then Baker would win the primary by a clear majority, thus avoiding a May 31 runoff election for the party's nomination for sheriff.

In a secret session late yesterday the committee announced that it had found too many irregularities and that a runoff must be held.

Fulbright Calls Saigon Brothel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ignoring Barry Goldwater's demand that he step down as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. J. W. Fulbright has challenged new controversy by calling Saigon "an American brothel."

The outspoken Arkansas senator said what is happening to the capital of South Viet Nam is the result of the "fatal impact" that a rich strong civilization— "even when acting with the best intentions"— can have on a poor weak one.

Fulbright

Fulbright, concluding last night his series of lectures at John Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies, said published reports of the impact of Americans and American money on Saigon show:

"That it is not unusual to hear a report that a Vietnamese soldier has committed suicide out of shame because his wife has been working as a bar girl.

"That as a result of the American influx, bar girls, prostitutes, pimps, bar owners and taxi drivers have risen to the higher levels of the economic pyramid."

Goldwater

An outspoken critic of President Johnson's Viet Nam policies, the senator delivered his lecture a few hours after Goldwater, the Republicans' 1964 presidential candidate, denounced him for what he termed carping criticism "that lends aid and comfort to our enemies."

College Calls Draft Test Off Due To Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — San Francisco State College has canceled plans to administer Selective Service college deferment tests because of threat by an anti-Viet Nam war group to "do whatever necessary" to disrupt the testing.

Stanley Paulson, acting president of the college, announced yesterday that he had asked and was granted permission to cancel the tests scheduled May 14, May 21 and June 3.

Paulson said he took action after receiving a letter from the Viet Nam Day Committee (VDC), which has organized a number of demonstrations to protest the Viet Nam war.

Dean of Students bfred Riddell said the tests were canceled because of fears that students competing while demonstrations occurred nearby would not perform as well as under calmer conditions.

Thousands of San Francisco State students who had planned to take the test on campus were advised by the college to write immediately to Science Research Associates, the firm which administers the tests, and request a change of location.

Wolden Tells Of Relations With Firms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco Assessor Russell Wolden was questioned again about his relations with various local companies during his fifth day on the witness stand in his bribery trial.

Wolden said yesterday that American Home Products Corp. and General Foods Corp. have been charged $257,308 in back taxes by Alameda County authorities. Both firms were referred to Albert F. Skelly, a tax consultant, by Wolden in return for a payment of $125,478.

Wolden testified that the extra tax assessment made against American Home Products in Alameda County "would be absolutely invalid" if they took the matter to court.

He denied prosecution attorney Francis Mayer's continued references to American Home Products as a Wolden client.

Questioned about his acceptance of campaign fund contributions, Wolden testified he accepted none until assessment roles closed July 1, after assessments could be altered.

He attributed the early tax-roll closing of Diamond National Corp., after he received a $1,000 contribution from the firm's vice president, to the fact that a company officer had to leave for Europe before the normal closure date.

In response to Mayer's questions Wolden testified he had only approximate figures on the amounts of campaign contributions he had received after 1962.

He maintained that hotel bills he included in campaign expenses were necessary and legitimate.

He called meetings with Standard Brands Products officials "purely social," having nothing to do with assessments.

Dry cleaning originated in France but was refined and perfected in Germany and the United States.

Growth Hormone Chemical Structure Now Uncovered

BERKLEY, Calif. (UPI) — The ingredient in the human body that makes one man six-feet-four and another four-feet-nine has finally been pinpointed and taken apart.

A team of scientists at the University of California, after years of research, has isolated HGH—the Human Growth Hormone—and broken it down into 188 chemical units. Their work was reported yesterday in the Journal of the American Chemical Society.

The discovery marks a turning point in research which may some day develop an injection which would make a stunted child grow to six foot height.

The growth hormone can be used effectively on a part of the body that is growing too large, the researchers said, or could be used to induce growth in one part of the body, as in the case of flat-chested women.

HGH, besides controlling growth "undoubtedly has other functions in the body," he added.

Leading the work at the hormone research laboratory here was Dr. C. H. Li, assisted by Dr. Jonathan S. Dixon and by Dr. Wangkyng Liu.

Drawback to any wide use of HGH in the near future is its extreme scarceness.

Pituitaries from 5,000 humans were used to obtain one-sixth of an ounce of the hormone, and the growth hormone of animals was found to be ineffective on humans.

However, Dr. Li and his associates said they hope, now that human HGH has been analyzed, to find a way to create a chemical substitute, or perhaps to modify animal hormone to make it effective on humans.

Judges Cause Cannes Trouble

CANNES, France (UPI) — The judges are causing more of a stir at the Cannes Film Festival this year than the entries.

Sophia, Loren, president of the festival's jury, caused a near riot last night when she showed up, squired by husband Carlo Ponti for a showing of "Ashes," Poland's entry.

Police struggled with hundreds of photographers and spectators trying to catch a glimpse of the bejeweled actress as she swept into Festival Palace, overlooking the moonlit Mediterranean.

PUC Considers Phone Identification Rule

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Public Utilities Commission today was studying arguments aimed at requiring recorded messages put out by anonymous telephone callers to carry the name and address of sponsors.

PUC examiner Donald B. Jarvis heard testimony yesterday calling for telephone companies to revise practices and tarriffs regulating such recorded messages and to have sponsors identified.

Opposition came from William K. Rawson, a member of the San Gabriel Committee for Let Freedom Ring. The organization has a weekly program of recorded messages that can be heard by dialing a special number.

A ruling from the PUC was expected after June 24 when Jarvis submits the case to the commission. Briefs also would be filed by both sides.

The messages were described by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith as often "abusive and extremist attacks and libels on individuals and institutions."

Rawson said "the purpose of these messages is to provide anyone who cares with the truth about communism," as well as "news and facts to preserve our freedom."

He said he already has been subjected to "needless and frightening harrassment" because of the publicity surrounding the telephone message controversy.

"I don't know why we should submit ourselves to the unstable among us by requiring us to give through our messages our name, home address and telephone number," Rawson said.

GM Cutback Hits Workers By Hundreds

DETROIT (AP) — Several hundred auto production workers have been laid off and hundreds more face furloughs because General Motors Corp. is cutting back production for the first time in five years.

GM, the world's largest automaker, said yesterday the cutbacks were to "get production schedules in line with current stocks in the field."

GM was the only one of the big auto firms to announce cutbacks.

At the same time, Ford scheduled 10 of its assembly plants on overtime operations Saturday. Chrysler and American Motors were on regular five-day weeks.

All the companies were expected to be mentioned today in Sen. Abraham Ribicoff's report on auto defects.

The Connecticut Democrat, head of a Senate subcommittee probing auto safety, recently asked the four major U.S. auto firms to list all manufacturing and design defects found in cars since 1960.

GM, Ford, Chrysler and AMC sent their lists to Washington Thursday. They are due to make them public in Detroit at exactly the hour that Ribicoff begins a Washington news conference today (2 p.m. EDT).

Nazi Pickets Freed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Appellate Department of Superior Court has reversed the conviction of three American Nazi party leaders on charges of disturbing the peace and endangering the public. Robert E. Giles, 30, Frederick E. Harry, 23, and Walter E. Gould, 21, were cleared yesterday of charges stemming from a demonstration a year ago when they were arrested while counter-picketing Congress of Racial Equality pickets in Glendale.

BOYS HUNT 'PEOPLE;' MAN SHOT

PERTH AMBOY, N.J. (UPI) —Two teen-agers with rifles walked by yesterday as Joseph Bolinski sat on a rock in a field near his home.

"What are you doing? Bird hunting?" he asked.

A minute later, as the boys were about 40 feet away, a shot rang out. The bullet struck Bolinski in his back.

With only the victim's description, police began a search for the youths. Bolinski was in critical condition, with the bullet lodged in his spine.

Religion Hurt In North Korea, Report Shows

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was told today there is ample evidence that Communist North Korea has attempted to eradicate Christianity, while religious persecution in North Viet Nam has been concealed and indirect.

A Library of Congress report, prepared for the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said before World War II about 300,000 Christians lived in the north of Korea.

This number had dropped to about 200,000 by 1949, the report said, and "just before North Korea started the Korean war the Communist persecution of Christianity intensified."

In North Viet Nam, the Communist regime has avoided open religious persecution, the study said. But it added that a close examination shows indirect means of persecution through land reform and counter revolutionary activities.

Burns Study Says Deviates, Reds At U.C.

Kerr's charges that the 1965 report — which said Communists revolt — was largely inaccurate and based on "half truths" and "distortions."

Kerr also had asked that the 1965 report be stripped of the shield of legislative immunity, which means that since it is an official legislative document, its contents cannot be held liable for court action.

"We wish to make it clear," states the 1966 report, "that this immunity, being specifically conferred by statute, is not subject to waiver."

The committee accused Kerr of harboring a "hostile attitude" toward its activities, saying he not only did not solicit the committee's help in seeking out Communist activities on campus "but actually took steps that tended to prevent its being given."

The committee cited reports of widespread student homosexuality, dances with lewd themes and the presentation of "disgusting, debased spectacles" on campus in concluding that under Kerr, the campus "sank to a new low."

Specifically mentioned were the appearance on campus of the San Francisco Mime Troupe, whose shows were banned from San Francisco's public parks; and a dance sponsored by the Vietnam Day Committee that featured the showing of pictures in which nude torsos "were exhibited in a sensual and provocative manner."

At the dance, the committee said, the smell of marijuana "pervaded the area," many of the dancers were intoxicated and "sexual misconduct was blatant."

Turning to homosexuality, the committee cited a story in the student newspaper, The Daily Californian that asserted 2,700 of the 27,000 Berkeley students were homosexual.

Jim Branson, editor of the Berkeley Daily Californian, said the information was published in one of a five-part series on homosexuality and was obtained from Harold Call, president of the Nattachine Society of San Francisco, a homophile group.

Branson said, "His estimate was based on a Kinsey report figure that one in ten men studied had most of their sexual experiences with men."

Branson said the article was not intended as a sociological survey. He said it is a mistake to consider the campus "a center for sexual deviation."

The committee gave 16 pages to what it called "The Eli Katz Case," and Kerr's handling of it.

The committee said Katz lied when, in 1957, he signed a loyalty oath at the University of California at Los Angles saying he had not been a member of a Communist organization for five years. The oath was necessary before Katz could get a job at UCLA.

Katz joined the Berkeley faculty in 1963 but failed to get his contract renewed when the administration decided he had lied about his past when signing the loyalth oath.

Katz then took a position at Western Reserve University but was offered his UC post back in December 1965 after strong protests from Berkeley faculty groups. He accepted the offer and is scheduled to report for the fall term this year.

The committee charged Kerr allowed rehiring of Katz despite being told by an unnamed but "responsible" federal agency that Katz had not signed the loyalty oath "in good faith" and in fact "had not changed his political views and connections" and was still connected with subversive organizations.

The committee said Chancellor Roger Heyns, appointed to head the Berkeley campus after the student uprisings of 1964-65, "either did not know of the federal agency's information (about Katz) or chose to ignore it. The Kerr's policy, the senators contended, was responsible for Berkeley becoming the focal point of the Vietnam Day Committee. Cited was an Alameda County Grand Jury report saying the VDC used university facilities 34 times during the latter three months of 1965.

In contrast to last year's report, signed by only two of three members of the committee, the supplementary report bears the names of all five members of the current committee. They are:

Senate President Pro Tem Hugh M. Burns, D - Fresno, chairman; Sens. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael; Richard J. Dolwig, R-San Mateo; Aaron W. Quick, D - Chula Vista; and Stephen P. Teale, D-West Point. Teale refused to sign the 1965 report.

Reds Hit Thai Aid To U.S. As Allies Gird For Rains

TOKYO (UPI) —Red China warned Thailand today its decision to send air and naval units to Viet Nam was a serious step "to widen the war" and a step for which it would be held "to account."

The warning was carried by Peking's "Dwangming Daily," and broadcast by the New China News Agency .

"The Thai authorities are long-time accomplices in the U.S. criminal war against Viet Nam and other Indochinese countries," the broadcast said.

In Washington officials said today the Communists are building up their forces in south Viet Nam in a huge effort which shows that Hanoi has no intention of accepting offers of peace negotiations, officials said today.

Girding for rainy season offensive by the bolstered Red forces, the United States has deployed 40,000 men to South Viet Nam in the past two months, and now has a total strength there of 255,000.

The explosion is expected at any time as the monsoons arrive, ending a lull in ground fighting during which the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese expanded their forces despite slashing air attacks. Their total manpower in the South is estimated at 250,000.

Evidence now at hand from U.S. military officials on the scene indicates that Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was conservative in his estimates of enemy ability to infiltrate troops into the South.

Information from Saigon indicates that more than 20,000 men were moved southward in the first four months of 1966. The rate of troop movement from North Viet Nam toward South Viet Nam was 5,500 a month for part of this time and may have reached 7,000 in April.

Some of these troops may still be in assembly areas just beyond South Viet Nam's borders, away from the main centers within the country which have been under heavy air attack.

036 zzzyrcyn Policy 5-6 d

The latest count on U.S. forces in South Viet Nam shows this breakdown: 156,500 Army, 13,500 Navy and Coast Guard, 51,000 Marines and 34,000 Air Force. Ground forces have close to six combat divisions.

Allied forces from other cointries 26,500 men.

from the county sheriff's office were combing the area, Novato police reported.

Wilson described the intruder as about five feet six inches tall, of medium build, and wearing a black jacket.

The intensive search failed to find anyone answering the description, police reported. A search this morning failed to turn up the weapon used in the attack.

Mrs. Wilson was questioned today at the hospital but said she could not identify her assailant, reported Police Sgt. Walter Weidauer.

Two fires during the Christmas holidays, swept the Wilsons' house at 23 Stasia Drive. The first broke out at 1:39 a.m., Jan. 1, while Mrs. Wilson was away baby sitting. The second was 48 hours later after the family had left the house because of the first fire.

The house at 84 Trish Drive was given the family by builders Roberts and Aguirre for use while their house at 23 Stasia Drive is being rebuilt.

Wilson works for Luce Meat Co. in San Francisco.

Santa Venetia Wreck Hurts Man

John Orville Daily, 26, of 59 Geneva Way, Santa Ventia, suffered a bruised back and chest when his truck collided with a car driven by Goon Jow Leong, 57, of Dominican College on North San Pedro Road about four blocks east of the Civic Center at 3:30 p.m. yesterday.

The California Highway Patrol said Leong told the patrol he started from the parking lot of Blessed Sacrament Church, saw Daily's pick-up truck, hit his brakes and slid into the street, where they collided.

Daily was in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital.

First Rabid Cow Of Year Found At Dillon Beach

First report of a rabid cow in Marin this year was made today by the County Health Department.

The cow, said health education officer Dan R. Pelz, was killed Monday on a ranch at Dillon Beach, and its head was sent to the Sonoma County Health Department for testing. Tests proved the animal was rabid.

Pelz said two workers on the ranch were required to undergo the Pasteur series of rabies treatments because they had handled the animal. He declined to identify the ranch.

It was the third report of a rabid animal in Marin during 1966.

Allen Named Tam Club Head

Joe Allen was nominated for re-election as president of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club last night.

Others nominated were Karl Zipf, vice president; Jackie Carlson, secretary; Midge Hamburg, treasurer, and Robert Glessner, Jack Adams, Frank Jarboe and William Hargraves, members-at-large.

Further nominations will be called for and election held at the club's next meeting, June 2, Zipf reported.

Cordill Denies Plan For Bar Near Novato

Marin County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill yesterday denied the application of Atherton Land Co. to convert a private club and bar at Atherton Avenue and Olive Street near Novato into a public Bar and restaurant.

Anyone protesting tre decision will have until next Thursday to file an appeal with the Marin County Planning Commission.

Candle Under Bed Starts Minor Blaze

Two Tamalpais Valley tykes, three and five year olds, wanted to see what it looks like under a bed by candlelight. So they lighted a candle and went under a bed yesterday at their mother's home at 515 Marin Avenue.

The result, reported Tamalpais firemen who were called to the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Hanson at 5:57 p.m., was minor damage to the bed, smoke damage, and two holes in the rug.

No Psychiatric Calls To Homes Proposed

A psychiatric team proposed for mentally ill children in Marin County would not travel to patients' homes, but to area clinics in the county, Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of the county's Community Mental Health Services, said today.

In reporting his proposal made to supervisors Tuesday, the Independent-Journal incorrectly said the specialists would make home visits.

Tomales Meeting Set

The Tomales High School District board will hold a special closed meeting at 9 p.m. Monday at the school to discuss renewal of teachers' contracts and the superintendent's responsibilities, according to Supt. Anthony Matulich.

HARBOR

negotiating with various governmental departments, particularly the State Small Craft Harbor division, to make a littoral drift survey. McDaniel said it is hoped this would show a breakwater is not necessary. Littoral drift, he explained, is drifting of sand sideways, back and forth above and under water.

He said it is hoped the Corps of Engineers and the Small Craft Harbor division will participate with the district in the survey.

"Even though the Corps' decision might be agreed to in Washington, it doesn't close the door forever," McDaniel declared. "It can be reintroduced."

The commission expects to have a master plan showing uses of the lagoon prepared by July 5, he reported. It is to be presented to the county board of supervisors on that date at the same time at which the supervisors are to consider the proposal of open area zoning for the lagoon. Rezoning has been held up, on commission request, pending completion of the plan by Norman Gilroy and associates of Mill Valley.

Harbor commissioners have argued against the county proposal for open area zoning for the whole lagoon. There are two applications for resort-commercial recreation zoning on the east shore of the lagoon, from Bahia Baulinas Inc. and Wilma Leonard.

Two Valuable Cameras Are Stolen

Burglary of a car parked at Strawberry Town and Country Village netted the thieves two cameras of total value estimated at $2,000, sheriff's officers said today.

Al M. Williams Jr., of 155 Jamaica Avenue, Paradise Cay, told deputies he left the vehicle in a parking lot while doing photography work. The trunk, he said, was forced open and a $1,300 movie camera and a $700 still camera were taken.

Ola Williams, operator of Marin City Cleaners at Cole Drive and Drake Avenue, reported a rear window of the shop was broken. Nothing was missing, officers said.

William C. Corrett, 1300 Fourth Street, San Rafael, told deputies someone entered his weekend cottage on Perth Way, Inverness, taking cigarettes, costume jewelry, and an electric razor. No forced entry was evident.

A clothes dryer was taken from the basement of the rental house at 7198 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Lagunitas, officers said. No forced entry was made of the house.

Pickets Slated At Jolly Stores

National Farm Workers Assn. announced plans to picket Jolly Markets in Fairfax and Kentfield starting at 5 p.m. today.

The action is "informational picketing" of S & W Fine Foods and Treesweet Juice brands of the DiGiorgio Corp. and not against the stores, said Mark Vincent, Mill Valley field representative of the association.

Vincent said this is part of a statewide boycott being launched today since negotiations with DiGiorgio Corp. to accept a strike clause in its contract have reached a stalemate.

Stereo, Radio Equipment Gone

Two cars were looted, in San Rafael yesterday of expensive stereo and radio equipment.

A $150 stereo and $39 worth of tapes were taken from the car of Donald C. Kane of 582 Thornwood Terrace. Kane told police a wing window had been forced sometime before 6:30 a.m. while the car was parked outside his home.

A record changer and radio worth $70 were taken from the car of Pat Earle of San Francisco at about 12:30 a.m. while parked and locked on Vivian Way near Belvedere Street. A rear window had been pried open, police said.

Cold Virus May Help Resist Cancer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't curse that cold — it may be saving your life.

The possibility that nonfatal virus infections such as the common cold may protect many humans from cancer and leukemia came yesterday at the annual meeting of the American Society for Microbiology.

Dr. E. Frederick Wheelock of Western Reserve University School of Medicine said competition between different kinds of viruses in the human cell may result in the death of one kind, thus producing immunity against the disease caused by the losing virus.

Wheelock disclosed new research in which he said he made mice temporarily resistant to leukemia, a form of blood cancer.

He found indications the immunity resulted from direct competition between viruses, rather than from production of a newly found cell substance called interferon.

"We know that leukemia in mice is caused by a virus," Wheelock told a news confernce. "We have recently proved that in mice leukemia can be controlled by injections with another benign virus.

"If leukemia in humans is caused by a virus — and this has yet to be proved — it is possible that nonfatal virus infections such as colds may be good for us. The benign viruses may be interfering with the growth of cancer viruses, which could be present in all of us.

"At any rate, one of the next steps is to determine whether leukemia and cancer patients were significantly free of colds, influenza and the like in the period immediately preceding the more serious illness."

Bus Driver Robbed In Marin City

A lone gunman late last night robbed a Greyhound bus driver of $290 cash at the Marin City bus stop on Donahue Street.

The driver, Delbert C. Sanford, about 50, of 49 Blossom Drive, San Rafael, said the man then fled afoot.

According to sheriff's officers, Sanford, with no passengers, pulled his bus up to the stop at 11:38 p.m. The man, about 20 years old, six-feet tall, and slender, approached the front bus door, flourished what appeared to be a .32 caliber pistol, and ordered Sanford three times to open the door.

Sanford said he did, and the bandit said, "Give me your wallet."

He also took small change, according to the driver. The loot was both bus company money and Sanford's personal money.

Sanford said the man then ran toward Drake Avenue.

Marathon Candidates' Night For Workers

Members of the Marin Labor Council held a marathon candidate's night Wednesday in which every candidate for county office in the June 7 primary was given a chance to speak, but no endorsement was made of any candidate.

Hugh Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the council, said endorsements will be made May 18 by the local Committee on Political Education (COPE).

in two weeks, reducing membership from 22 to seven members.

Supervisors have asked anyone interested in appointment to the new commission to write the board and seek interviews with supervisors prior to May 17, when appointments are to be made.

Hicks said the commission in March wrote supervisors recommending seven appointees. Hicks would not name them today, but indicated they were members of the present commission.

Rev. John J. O'Connor, a member of the commission, was questioned last night about what other members thought a "negative" statement in an April 25 letter to supervisors.

Father O'Connor wrote that he did not want to minimize the work of the commission, but "I do feel, however, that it could and should have done much more.

"The commission has been dominated by a couple of people, and communication with and involvement of the other members has been weak; often, unilateral action has been taken without communication with the members.

"I have been at most of the meetings, yet seldom have known what was going on, and often felt we were going in circles."

Hicks said that Father O'Connor last night told commissioners he did not intend his comments to be interpreted as negative ones.

Los Angeles Tax Cut Looms For County Fund

LOS ANGELES (AP) —The tentative county budget will show a property tax reduction of 1.8 cents if supervisors stick with a revised document they approved yesterday.

But after the smoke and fury of a 2½ hour session, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn charged that the final 1966-67 budget would bear little resemblance to the one tentatively adopted by the board, which he charged "was made only for the June 7 primary."

Among the recommendations approved were:

1. Trimming $5.3 million from an earlier budget proposal of $1.12 billion that had indicated a 5.9 cents increase in the current property tax rate of $2.415 per $100 of assessed valuation.

2. A possible $5 million sale of land in the Civic Center area now used for parking.

District Finds New Contractor For Creek Job

A new contractor was brought in yesterday to complete a forced main crossing on the south fork of the Gallinas Creek for Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District.

Maggiora and Ghilotti Inc. of Corte Madera will do the work on a time and materials basis, District Secretary Helen Foulkes reported.

The original contractor, Kirkwood-Bly of Santa Rosa, refused to do any further work on leaks developing in the main unless the district directors ordered the crossing re-engineered.

Directors refused to do this and declared the contract with Kirkwood-Bly in default Tuesday, Mrs. Foulkes said.

The district will attempt, through court action, to have Kirkwood-Bly, or its bonding company, cover any extra costs.

LOS ANGELES (AP) —Comedian Bob Hope will be the first recipient of the Pacem in Teris award, presented by regents and trustees of Immaculate Heart College.

Hope, who will receive it at a dinner here June 20, "was chosen as recipient because of his service to humanity and dedication to many of the ideals expressed by Pope John XXIII in his encyclical, Pacem in Teris," the regents said.

OBITUARIES

Frank Percy Green Dies In South

Requiem Mass for Frank Percy Green, 83, former resident of Sausalito and San Rafael, was offered today in Redondo Beach.

As owner of a piano firm, he settled in Utica, N.Y., as a young man.

Green died unexpectedly Tuesday in Torrance.

A native of Bath, England, he sold a piano in 1908 to a young high school girl who directed the school's orchestra. This started a friendship which led to their marriage three years later.

The Greens were professional musicians for many years in Utica, where he was in charge of music at the Baptist Church, and both played in the Utica Symphony.

In 1923, they moved to Beverly Hills, which then consisted mostly of cornfields. Green joined a small radio station, KNX. It was later purchased by the Columbia Broadcasting System and became one of the major stations on the West Coast. He stayed with the station 29 years, and was in charge of its musical instruments when he retired in 1952.

F. PERCY GREEN
Dies in Torrance

In 1957, they moved to Sausalito to be near their son, Harold F. Green, who since has moved to Palos Verdes Estates. They later moved to San Rafael, and returned to Southern California within the last two or three years. They celebrated their golden wedding in 1961, while living in San Rafael.

Surviving are his wife, Mary C. Green, his son, and two grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Los Angeles.

NELLIE BEFFA

Funeral for Mrs. Nellie M. Beffa, 81, of Berkeley, sister of Joe Berryhill of San Anselmo, will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Fred Young and Co. Mortuary in Healdsburg.

Mrs. Beffa was born in California, and had lived in Berkeley for 15 years. She died in Berkeley Wednesday after a brief illness.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen B. Oxley of Berkeley, a son, Floyd C. Beffa of Geyserville; her brother; three sisters, Ethel Bailey and Agnes Jones of Santa Rosa and Eileen Stockham of Healdsburg.

Inurnment will be private.

Fire Re-Visits Snack Bar

The already twice-burned Canteen at Stadium Avenue and Homestead Boulevard near Tamalpais High School was ignited again last night, but firemen were on the scene quickly and there was but minor damage.

Tamalpais firemen received a call from Irvin Sutley Jr. of nearby 137 Lark Lane at 10:22 p.m. He said he saw someone lighting the closed eating establishment.

Evidence showed that arsonists had poured gasoline on the outside wall near the front entrance, reported fireman Carl Carlson. Firemen extinguished the flames and soaked the building with water.

The structure, nothing more than a shell, is reportedly to be torn down by owner Mrs. Blanda Telander of Mill Valley. It was fired by arsonists Feb. 16, when two rooms were gutted, and Feb. 17, when the entire interior was charred.

Mitchell Stay Denied By High Court Justice

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Supreme Court justice denied yesterday a stay of execution for Aaron C. Mitchell who killed a Sacramento policeman during a robbery.

In turning down the request, Justice William O. Douglas said Mitchell's lawyers should file a habeas corpus proceedings either in a California court or a federal court in that state.

Mitchell is scheduled to be executed May 11 at San Quentin Prison for killing Arnold Gamble, 42, and wounding another policeman during an attempted holdup at the crowded Stadium Club Feb. 15, 1963. The club is a bar and restaurant.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is expected to rule Monday on a clemency hearing held Tuesday.

The Viet Cong were fleeing the jungle battlefield near Bong Son, about 290 miles north along the coast from Saigon, where the last Cav troopers pounced on them yesterday and killed 101 in a fierce eight-hour fight described as one of the bitterest so far this spring.

It was a final triumph for Maj. Gen. W. O. Kinnard, the 1st Cav commander who molded it into the world's first major pounce-and-kill helicopter force. He leaves his post today to assume temporary command of a military area pending his return to the United States for reassignment.

GOP Leaders Reluctantly Agree To Move On Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly's Republican leader said today he opposes the latest compromise plan to avoid a tax hike but indicated the GOP is ready to lift its budget blockade, anyway.

Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, made the statement as lawmakers prepared to send all their unsolved problems to conference committees where final agreements will be made behind closed doors.

Monagan, optimistic a settlement was in sight, said "most of the major issues are moving in the direction of resolution."

"I'm not very much in favor of the program," he said of the compromise.

Approved by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee yesterday, the plan would make some $240 million available by accruing—or counting in advance — half of the expected personal income tax revenues.

This would be on top of the $243 million that would come from Democratic Gov. Brown's plan to count the sales, inheritance and other taxes in advance.

All told, it would give the Finance Department about $483 million without raising taxes in an election year — all available for making up a budget deficit of about $250 million; reducing a $295 million state construction bond issue; putting aside a surplus or boosting school aid.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and Assembly Republicans had advocated including all the personal income tax in the new accrual system. Brown had said only part of the state revenues should be counted in advance.

But he agreed to meet them halfway, putting at least 50 per cent of the income tax under accrual. The plan was quickly approved by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, with most Republicans dissenting. The Assembly may vote Monday.

"The governor doesn't agree with it, but agreed on it to keep the bill moving," said John Sheehan, deputy director of finance.

Monagan reiterated the GOP still wants all income taxes included in the system — along with reduction of the construction bond issue, budget cuts of at least $55 million and a reserve fund.

But he conceded the Republicans—outnumbered 49-31 in the house—can't prevent Democrats from mustering the 41 votes needed for approval of the accrual bill.

And he emphasized "we'll look at the budget as a separate item," indicating the Republicans will not refuse to vote for the budget if their other terms are not fully met. A two-thirds majority of 54 is needed for Assembly approval of the spending bill and the GOP has refused, so far, to supply the five votes needed for passage.

He said the Republican budget cutting program, to be announced Monday, will be "pretty definitive," but added the Republicans are willing to talk about revising it.

Plans were afoot for conference committeeson every issue —the bonds, the accrual plan and a constitutional revision that could clear the way for a tripling of legislative salaries. The Senate and the Assembly are expected to come up with different versions of all the issues.

The Senate Finance Committee yesterday approved the constitutional revision in a form unacceptable to the Assembly. Stripped away were Assembly backed provisions dealing with the executive and judicial branches and a limitation on legislative pensions.

Attorneys Assail Yorty On Proposition 14 Remark

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Mayor Samuel W. Yorty was assailed yesterday by three top-ranking lawyers for his attacks against decisions of the State Supreme Court and one of the attorneys said he might seek disbarment proceedings against the mayor.

Attoney Glendon Tremaine, president of the county Bar Association, and attorneys Herman F. Selvin and Samuel O. Pruitt Jr., defended the high court from Yorty's "Uunfair, unjustified and inaccurate" statements.

Tremaine told a news conference that the mayor's "zeal for high office does not justify a libel of the Supreme Court of this state."

Yorty, seeking the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the June 7 primary, said Wednesday that the high court had violated "the spirit, if not the letter," of the law by "delaying it decision on Proposition 14," the 1964 ballot measure which invalidated the state's fair housing laws.

The mayor had implied that the court was holding up its decision until after the primary as a favor to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, himself a candidate for nomination for re-election to his third term.

Selvin and Pruitt had argued against and for constitutionality of the amendment respectively.

Selvin said "to falsely publish a court decision has been held to be contempt of court and the law should be applied to Mayor Yorty, just like anyone else."

He said Yorty, also an attorney, libeled the court by charging it haf been "perverted for political purposes."

Selvin said that "this is despicable conduct. Being a candidate does not relieve Yorty of his duties as a lawyer."

The attroney noted that bar associations can recommend court discipline of their members "up to and including disbarment.

"I have not decided whether or not to ask the Los Angeles County Bar Association to take action," Selvin said, "but if I wake up some morning and find I've decided to do just that, it won't surprise me a bit."

Attorney Phill Silver, one of Yorty's long-time political supporters, termed the mayor's assault on the court "scandalous, unfair and unjustified."

Synanon House Members Injured

Three residents of Synanon House at Marshall were hurt when the car in which they were riding collided with a county dump truck on Lucas Valley Road at 8:20 a.m. yesterday.

Injured, according to the California Highway Patrol, were Gary S. Jenkins, 21; Joseph Leonard, 25, and William Lee, 35, all of Synanon. Jenkins suffered a pain in the right leg, said the patrol, while the other two bumped their heads. None was hospitalizaed.

The patrol said a Synanon-owned car driven east by Jenkins, collided with the westbound truck driven by county employee Mario J. Robello, 51, of 232 Picnic Avenue, San Rafael, on a winding, hilly section of the road about four miles west of Highway 101. Jenkins was cited for failing to stay on the right side of the road.

Bids On Resurfacing

Bids were opened today for the resurfacing of a 5.4-mile stretch of Highway 101 between Novato and Petaluma. The low bid received by the state division of highways was $139,266, submitted by the Fisk, Firenze and McLean Co. of San Carlos.

Assemblymen Ask For Aid On Asparagus

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two assemblymen, declaring efforts to recruit workers have failed, have appealed to Gov. Brown to help save the San Joaquin County white asparagus crop.

Republican Assemblymen Robert T. Monagan of Tracy and John G. Veneman of Modesto asked Brown to contact the President and the secretary of labor "to impress them with the gravity of the situation."

The lawmakers said yesterday that the San Francisco and Los Angeles labor markets haven't produced enough workers.

Brown replied that if the assemblymen convince growers to meet the $1.40 hourly minimum wage demanded by the government for workers, "I will fly back to Washington, if necessary, to get prompt action."

He insisted that the growers must meet the minimum wage. "The growers know it. You know it . . . The chances of getting braceros are slim unless the growers" meet the minimum wage, Brown said.

The labor shortage, they said, could cut production in half in the county — which produces 85 per cent of the world's white asparagus crop. They said this year's production could amount to half a million cases, compared with one million in 1965 and 2½ million in 1964.

Follow The Lines To Find Your Supervisorial District

REDISTRICTING IS STILL CONFUSING

Supervisorial Candidate Must Be Sure Which Side Of The Street They're On

The three campaigners for election as First District supervisor in Marin County sometimes find themselves talking to people they think are their constituents, only to be informed that the votes they are wooing are cast in the Fourth District —which does not elect a supervisor this year.

And if the candidates are confused, many people are more so.

Change of supervisorial district boundaries a year ago last December wiped out the simple following of city lines. To more nearly approach a "one man, one vote" goal, the supervisors enlarged the formerly rural Fourth District by projecting it in an irregularly shaped corridor through the Second district to the shore of San Pablo Bay and back again through the heart of San Rafael.

They also added the San Geronimo Valley and part of the Tomales area, formerly in the Fifth supervisorial district, to the Fourth district.

The Fourth district is represented by Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, whose term has two more years to run. So voters in the San Geronimo Valley and the Marshall-Tomales area which was added to the Fourth district will not vote for supervisor this year. Supervisor William A. Gnoss of the Fifth District, whom they helped re-elect four years ago, is running this year with Lynes Downing as opponent. But the San Geronimo Valley-Tomales residents who have been redistricted must go two more years—a total of six years—between chances to elect a supervisor.

It's in former parts of the First district which were sliced away to enlarge the Fourth that the real confusion arises, though. Candidates John F. McInnis, Melvin Warneback, and William F. Upton have to be careful which side of the street they work—literally.

At the bottom appears the northern part of the Third District (represented by Peter H. Behr and not electing a supervisor this year).

Directly north of it is the corridor that carries the Fourth district to the shore of the bay. A dog-leg of the Fourth district runs back inland at San Rafael from the right edge of the map, taking in most of the lower portion of the city. Its northern edge follows the San Rafael Canal from the edge of this map to the bay.

North of that is First District, where a supervisor is to be elected.

All residents of the upper Fourth District portion shown on this map resided in the First district until the redistricting. However, they are now represented by Supervisor Storer and will not vote for supervisor this year.

The new Second district line created by the Fourth district corridor, also shown on the map, does not affect the current campaign since the Second District has no election this year.

Four Firemen Given Promotion

Promotions of four firemen and addition of one by the Novato Fire department were announced by Fire Chief George Cavallero today.

Lt. Charles Ridgeway was promoted to captain to fill the vacancy created by resignation of Capt. George Hale, who resigned because of a heart attack. His salary was increased from $685 to $695 per month.

Firemen Charles Onorato, James Berthinier and Walter Nolan were given the rank of lieutenant, increasing their pay from $645 to $655 per month.

William Springborn, 21, of 1311 Leafwood Drive, was hired as a fireman at $550 per month.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Drath, Other Demos Will Talk At Rally

Phillip Drath, candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress, will host a political rally on the San Rafael courthouse steps tomorrow from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Drath will be joined on the speakers' platform by William M. Bennett of Kentfield, who seeks the Democratic nomination for attorney general; Robert Mertle of Santa Venetia, who seeks the Democratic nomination for State Assembly, and Thomas A. Skornia, chairman of the Marin County Council of Democratic Clubs.

Drath, a San Rafael building contractor, is an outspoken critic of the administration's policy in the Viet Nam war.

Entertainment will be by Malcina Reynolds, composer of the hit song "Ticky-Tacky Houses", and by the Dick Saltzman Trio.

On Sunday, Drath will lead a noontime parade from Lagunitas to Woodacre. At the Dickson Ranch in Woodacre, Drath will speak and meet the people from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

CHRISTOPHER AIDES

A San Rafael former judge and an attorney were named today to head the Marin Lawyers for George Christopher Committee.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori will be honorary chairman, and Edmond C. Ward, chairman of the lawyers' committee.

Charles Michals of Greenbrae is county director of the campaign to win Christopher the Republican nomination for governor of California.

DRATH ASSISTANT

Gary Smith of San Anselmo has been appointed staff assistant by Phillip Drath, candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress.

Smith is director of Christian education for the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo. He and his wife took part in the Selma, Ala., civil rights march last year.

FOR FLOURNOY

Sen. Minority Leader John F. McCarthy is one of 12 Republican state senators who have endorsed Assemblyman Houston I. Flournoy's candidacy for state controller.

Said McCarthy: "There is no one in Sacramento today who knows more about the needs of our state government, in theory and in practice. Houston Flournoy has, by his academic training, learned the fundamental rights and wrongs of the democratic system."

Tiburon Club Project Almost Completed

Tiburon Peninsula Club directors last night reported the $200,000 club expansion and found construction, which includes a new four-lane, 20-yard swimming pool and four additional tennis courts "virtually complete".

A budget slightly in excess of $120,000 for next fiscal year was adopted, according to president Joseph Royer.

Local Agency Board Stalls Decision On Miwok Issue

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night agreed to continue until June 2 consideration of a request to detach 55 acres from the Muir Beach Community Services District.

The continuance was requested in a stipulation signed by Attorney John L. Rockwell, representing Miwok Corp., developers of the Seacape subdivision, and Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino, representing the community services district.

"I don't see why we can't settle this tonight," CSD Director Jack Harris objected. He and other directors showed up at last night's hearing at the Civic Center, expecting Godino to be present. Godino was not, evidently thinking the continuance would only involve a routine commission action.

Rockwell said the continuance would enable Miwok representatives and CSD directors to get together. The CSD has protested detachment, but Miwok claims the district cannot supply adequate water to the 60-lot Miwok tract.

Commissioners voted 4-0 for continuance, with Commissioner Byron W. Leydecker, named Tuesday to replace Thomas T. Storer as a board of supervisors' representative, absent.

With little discussion, the commission approved the 3.84-acre McDevitt subdivision at the end of Monticito Road near San Rafael to the San Rafael Sanitation District and the annexation of a one-third acre lot on the south side of Center Road east of Fredson Lane, owned by Norman T. Beeck, to the Novato Sanitary District.

Marin Jury Finds Meter Man Guilty

Charles R. Herren, 61-year-old San Rafael parking meter collector charged with embezzling meter funds, was found guilty by a Marin Superior Court jury after two hours deliberation yesterday.

Judge Richard Chamberlain, visiting from Alameda County, scheduled sentencing for May 31.

Herren's attorney, William B. Wolfson, said, however, he will make motion for a new trial May 18. He said grounds will be that evidence admitted during testimony was obtained through illegal search and seizure.

Herren looted about $7 daily over a long period of time from meters, caching the money in bags and cigar boxes in his home at 3 Bayview Street, San Rafael, officers said.

Wolfson has maintained a Dec. 2 entry of the house by San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and others was illegal, and that none of the coins found there was a "marked" coin planted earlier in meters.

Leonard Shaw, assistant district attorney, prosecuted the case. Trial began Monday.

Body Found In Mill Valley After 11 Days

The body of an 83-year-old Mill Valley widow was found lying in the living room of her home last night.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said she apparently died of natural causes on April 25.

The body of Mrs. Grace Brand was discovered by Coroner Keaton, who broke two windows to enter the home at 157 West Blithedale Avenue after Mill Valley police had been asked to check the house by a relative of the dead woman.

Mrs. Charlotte Akins called police from Port Hueneme in Ventura County to say she got no reply from her sister's telephone since last speaking to her April 25.

Police Officer Robert Sisk went to the house where Mrs. Brand had lived alone since the death of her husband several years ago. Newspapers and mail outside the home had not been touched for about 11 days.

Keaton said Mrs. Brand had apparently fallen from her chair in the living room during a meal sometime during the evening of April 25. Lights in the house were still on and the curtains were drawn.

An autopsy was to be performed today at Russell and Gooch, Mourtuary, Mill Valley.

Rescue By Balloon Slow, But Thrilling

POINT MUGU (AP) — Its a little slow to be ideal under fire, but the Air Force's new snatch-and-run rescue system promises to be a great sport for the jet set.

Land and sea pickups of six men in the past three days averaged about 40 minutes per rescue.

That's a long time to advertise — with a light balloon necessary to the operation — the presence of a downed flier or a reconnaissance team awaiting recovery from enemy territory.

But everyone of the six volunteers jerked skyward from desert or raft found the experience so exhilerating that he wanted to do it again.

It's something like skydiving in reverse.

A long-range cargo plane — a specially equipped four-engine Lockheed MC-130H—drops a kit containing a folded balloon, tanks of helium to inflate it, a long nylon cable, and a flight suit with a built-in harness.

The man on the surface dons the suit, hooks the line to the harness, and inflates the balloon, which is tethered by the cable.

The cargo plane circles and snags the cable in a fork on its nose, just below the balloon. The impact severs the line and the balloon rises to a height of 4,500 feet, where it explodes.

The cable, locked in the fork, stretches and gently lifts the man into the air, then the cable is reeled in and the man is hauled up into the plane.

For a few seconds, while the cable is stretching, the man rises upwards slowly. Then, like a rubber band, the cable snaps back and the man streaks upward like a hooked fish jerked from a pond.

The view grows daily in Marin's best-selling newspaper

Each day, Marin adds a special dimension to its panorama of growth. Each 24 hours it creates that which takes you from yesterday into TODAY—the thousand, exciting faces of LOCAL NEWS.

And local news is growing in every area of Marin County as new people, new homes, new businesses take root.

To report all that happens (the trial, the new bank, the grocery specials, the day Johnny met that unusual, striped pussy-cat) is a challenge. To bring ALL the news of Marin into focus that you may be well-informed is a job requiring growth on the part of the Independent-Journal. For news waits for no one.

This is why the I-J has made unusual advances in news services and equipment within this past year—with bigger ones in the offing. In fact, few newspapers of ANY size, anywhere, have added so much for the reader in so short a time. (The sports page, business page, the stocks, the new columnists, wire services, wire photos . . . these should give you an idea. And we might add the increasing news of advertised goods which is no less an adventure in daily living.)

The usual word for this is EXPANSION. But we see it simply as growth to meet your NEED FOR NEWS. It is a commitment to report the TOTAL COMMUNITY . . . the big and the little stories, the humor, the tragedy, the events around you which shape your life, affect your family, and even your future. The larger end, of course, is your RIGHT TO KNOW . . . in a free society . . . the change and the significance of each day's events.

As Marin expands, creating more and more local news, the I-J will print it in full dimension . . . presenting a view that grows daily.

Russ Barred From Drake's Bay Visit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Soviet ships — elements of the fishing fleet that has been operating off the Pacific Coast — have been denied permission to enter U. S. territorial waters, the Coast Guard said today.

The vessels, the Skryplev and the Chernjakhovsk, had requested permission to enter Drake's Bay, north of San Francisco, to transfer supplies in protected waters.

Adm. C. C. Knapp, commander of the 12th Coast Guard District, said entry of the Russian ships would be inimical to the best interests of the United States.

One ship, about 300 feet long and of several thousand tons displacement, was under Coast Guard surveillance about 20 miles off Point Reyes. Whereabouts of the other was not reported.

A large Russian fishing fleet has been operating off the Pacific Northwest coast in recent weeks and has gradually moved southward. The Coast Guard said it is strung out now all the way south to the San Diego area most vessels staying well outside the three mile limit.

Million Dollars Balm Asked For Goldstein

An amended complaint seeking $1 million in punitive damages alone was filed today in Marin Superior Court on behalf of Peter L. Goldstein, 31-year-old San Anselmo pulicist critically injured in a two-car accident on Highway 101 last Oct. 19.

The suit, filed by his wife, Vivian, names as defendants Paul Edward Beyer, Burlingame, driver of the car which crashed atop one driven by Goldstein; Conklin Brothers of San Mateo, Inc.; the State of California—Department of Public Works, and General Motors Corp's Chevrolet Motor Division.

It alleges the highway at scene of the accident, Waldo Grade, was in defective and dangerous condition, that there was negligent design and manufacture of the Beyer vehicle, a 1961 Corvair, and that Goldstein suffered a crushed skull, brain and eye damage, a broken hand, and internal injuries as a result of the negligence.

The suit asks the $1 million damages from General Motors, and unspecified general damages from other defendants. It also seeks $8,500 medical and hospital expenses, $15,000 for loss of work income, and $1,995 for loss of Goldstein's car.

Goldstein, of 26 Carlson Court, was unconscious in Marin General Hospital for nearly two weeks after the accident. Attorneys representing him are W. O. Weissich and Hadden Roth, both of San Rafael.

Hub Councilman To Huddle With City Police, Firemen Tonight

City Councilman Robert M. Scott of San Anselmo will meet with a recently formed association of the Hub City's police and firemen tonight, telling them what he thinks the city should do to improve their lot this year.

Scott will appear at 8 p.m. at a closed meeting of the San Anselmo Police and Fire Assn. in City Hall. The organization, formed in December, includes all the city's uniformed personnel, except the police and fire chiefs, according to its president, Fire Capt. Robert Beedle.

Scott, elected to the council last month, at his first council meeting declared inadequate and faulty equipment was being used by police.

He said he learned of the police and fire association just last week, when he read a letter from the organization's attorney, James B. Leech of San Francisco, saying he would like to speak for the men at budget time.

"One thing I want to do tonight," Scott said, "is tell them to be patient and not break the town open with a labor dispute. I don't want to start out by sitting across a bargaining table from them. You don't conclude bargaining like that as friends and that is not the way I want to see San Anselmo run."

Captain Beedle said the organization was formed to improve the lot of police and firemen, but added he does not think it will be necessary to have an attorney represent it at budget time.

"I think things are going to be much better under this council than ever before," he said, adding; "I think it's very decent of Mr. Scott to come and talk with us."

Beedle said tonight's meeting will be closed to the public.

Scott said he has made a study of the needs of the city's uniformed departments and will tell tonight what he will recommend to the council.

"I think we should have a realistic re-examination of wages being paid them," he said. "I think we have to treat these people more as human beings . . . There is no realistic insurance policy for these men and they take their lives in their hands when they go out."

Scott said he has studied the department's needs by talking with the men, riding with police officers on their night patrols, inspecting equipment, and visiting other police and fire departments in the Bay Area.

Officers of the new association, besides Beedle, are Police Sgt. Robert White, vice president; Fireman George Jewell, secretary and Patrolman Edward Silva, treasurer. Beedle said they meet irregularly.

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan today announced issuance of a notary public commission to Emelie L. Wilson, 150 Mitchell Boulevard, San Rafael.

Rear-End Accident Causes Minor Hurts

Patricia Schwary Kuhn, 40, of 17 Thomas Court, San Rafael, suffered minor injuries at 5 p.m. yesterday when her car was hit from behind in the northbound lanes of Highway 101 on California Park Hill.

Driver of the second car was Reinhold August Gernetzke, 66, of 396 Miller Creek Road, Marinwood, according to the California Highway Patrol.

Senator Reports Makers Recalled Millions Of Autos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff reported today that in the last six years 8,700,225 automobiles have been called back due to some defect.

In a statement prior to making public information from the American auto industry on defects in their cars over the last six years, the Connecticut Democrat said the total auto production for that period was slightly more than 47 million according to industry statistics. He added:

"Thus in the psat six year 18.5 per cent of the cars produced by the four major auto companies have been defective in some respect."

He noted however, that "it should be made clear many of these defects were not safety related."

Ribicoff, as chairman of a Senate subcommittee investigating highway safety, had asked Detroit's Big Four to provide him with information on their recall campaigns involving certain auto defects and deficiencies. Ribicoff praised General Motors, the Ford Motor Co., the Chrysler Corp. and Ford Motors for their "immediate and cooperative" response.

Miwok District Scout Band Formation Set

A band for the Miwok District of Boy Scouts will be formed and hold its first practice sesion from 8:30 a.m. to noon tomorrow at Scout Hall in San Rafael, according to Ted A. Murray, Miwok district chairman.

The band will hold practice sessions each Saturday in May to prepare for the first public appearance at the Scout-O-Rama on June 4. Dale Parker of San Anselmo will direct.

Eyeglass Theft Charge Dropped

A felony complaint of grand theft was dismissed yesterday against Bern Stambler of 320 Richardson Drive, Strawberry, in Marin Municipal Court.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Gary Thomas, who recommended the dismissal to Judge Peter Allen Smith, said unavailability of prosecution witnesses was cause for the action.

Stambler was accused of selling about $17,000 worth of eyeglass frames acquired from a business associate, David Goldberg of New York, between July 1, 1964, and July of 1965, and keeping the proceeds.

Bond Vote Cut Bill Signed By Governor

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation that would reduce the requirement for voter passage of local school or library bonds from two-thirds to 60 per cent was signed yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

To become effective, the measure needs approval of the voters as a constitutional amendment.

Marin Dining And Wining

Mother's Day Big For Restaurants In Marin, So Expect Some Delay

A new food operation (take-home food) soon will be opened at 71 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo. It will be known as Captain's Curries.

This stretch of the Miracle Mile should be a popular one for the take-home food enthusiast. Already on one side is Londoner Fish and Chips, and across the street is Col. Sanders Kentucky Fried Chicken.

Captain's Curries, as the name indicates, will specialize in curries, rice, condiments and exotic dishes, and with each order will go "puris," an Indian bread.

Owners are Dick Lindauer and Gordon Morse of Fairfax, former advertising and display men. Both have operated a couple of restaurants in the past, so know their foods. They've always been particularly interested in Indian foods.

Opening is probably 10 days to two weeks away. Hours will very likely be those when most take-home business is done—from 4 to 9:30 p.m. Monday will be the day of closing.

SOME RESTAURANTS rate Mother's Day as their busiest day of the year. Others place it second to Easter, and a few look upon it as a day not especially to turn up new faces, but to bring out the old ones—those that have shown on previous Mother's Days year after year.

All this is academic to the average diner who is mainly concerned on that day with dressing up and going somewhere. It would appear that all those whose appearances in restaurants throughout the rest of the year have been sporadic suddenly come to life and by mutual consent crowd the tables of every dinery that happens to be open.

No criticism—it's an excellent day to celebrate.

Fortunately to lessen the traffic, Mother's Day food service can be divided roughly into three periods—each having its own appeal. There's the breakfast-brunch period, the early dinner hours and the after six hours.

The last named is the most crowded time and often involves a wait for service during the later evening. If you have gone through this in the past it might make your outing more enjoyable to consider one of the others.

LIN FA GARDENS at Northgate is opening an hour earlier this Sunday for Mother's Day dinners—at noon instead of at 1 p.m.

Ethel Barrie is providing flowers for the ladies. Special dinner menu includes a complete prime rib repast and accessories at $3.95 and a complete fried chicken dinner at $2.50. Also Chinese dinners from $2.50. I know you'll like one or the others.

NEW FOOD OPERATION at the Rancho Rafael in Ignacio for the past month or so has been primarily steaks and is known as the Rancho Rafael Steak Corral. Service is a la carte and warm weather menu includes salads and such.

But for Mother's Day, rock Cornish game hen has been added to the menu and dinners will be served from noon to 8 p.m.—same as every Sunday. Hours of service Mondays through Saturdays are from 11:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Banquet fare is more varied and groups of 25 or more are taken. There's plenty of room. Rancho Rafael still has entertainment Friday and Saturday nights.

FRANCHINI'S CHATEAU usually makes much over Mother's Day; traditionally serves up flowers to all the ladies and a special menu to everyone in general.

This year there are 14 items to choose from, with dinners ranging upward from $3.50 and starting early in the afternoon (about 1:15 p.m.).

There's also a family-style breakfast from 9:15 a.m. at $1.95 ($1 for the youngsters)—and if there are youngsters in your family the morning might be a time they'd enjoy, with a chance to look over Franchini's livestock collection and feed the ducks.

DEE BRUNAL tells me that Oak Tree Inn in San Geronimo will start its Mother's Day dinner Sunday at 4 p.m. Earlier in the day consider the fine food selections provided by Don Caseldine's staff across the way at the San Geronimo National Golf and Country Club.

The Brunals are serving their regular menu, which includes two items worthy of mention at this time—the chicken provencale and the cannelloni. Like escargots? You can get them here now—a special of Carlo Givoni.

AND MANAGER Dick Walters at Peter Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito has plans for a special Mother's Day menu—service starts at about noon.

Johnnie Cutlip will be back playing the piano at Alioto's again starting next Wednesday night.

NEW ON THE LIST of dineries open for Mother's Day this year is the Restaurant de L'Europe at 2214 Fourth Street, San Rafael. This is the one on the Miracle Mile at Santa Margarita Avenue.

Mother's Day menu includes, among other things, wiener schnitzel, steaks and coq au chambertin. Children's portions are half price. Leo Cantayre and Geofrides A. Verburg (to whom I shall refer hereafter as Fritz, not Jeff) were hoping to have their wine and beer license activated by this weekend.

There's a small parking area in the rear—holds about eight cars.

NO MOTHER'S DAY DINNER at MacArthur's in San Anselmo this year. This place is converting the dining room into a dance floor and discontinuing the food service.

Lunches will go on, but as a "serve yourself" operation—sandwiches, etc. And some of you may not realize that there's space in back of the dining room made into a beer garden, with a ping-pong table and dart board.

Don and Mike MacArthur haven't decided on a name for it—so have a look and turn in your suggestion. There's some kind of a prize offered for the best idea.

THAT PORTRAIT of the distinguished gentleman of a bygone era on the dining room wall of the new Windjammer in Tiburon bears a close resemblance to owner Ernie Van Asperen—but I have yet to learn which of his forebears it represents.

THERE'S A GOOD possibility that Tiburon may see another new opening by the end of the month. Ben Farlatti hopes to get his Tiburon Lodge into business by the Memorial Day weekend. I notice by the recorder that he has applied for the on-sale liquor license of the Oakview Club at Terra Linda Meadows for his cocktail lounge.

TOMMIE COX tells me that the special decorations ordered for his upstairs Destination South Pacific Room have been shipped from New Zealand and he hopes to have them by the end of the month.

Meanwhile the Cove Players have been using this room for their productions—a mighty convenient location. Only a few steps from Tiburon Tommie's dining room tables. No need to be late for a show here. I imagine they even hold the curtain until you finish your coffee—or mai tai, as the case may be.

BLUE ROCK INN, Larkspur, is now serving champagne dinners from $3.50 on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Open for brunch from 10 a.m. on Mother's Day—fizz brunch, if you like it that way. Mother's Day dinner, of course.

FORMERLY CLOSED on Mondays, Bob's of Marin has gone into its summer schedule of being open for breakfast, lunch and dinner seven days a week.

Supervisor Candidates Wax Hot At Terra Linda Meet

By WAT TAKESHITA

Three candidates for county supervisor from the First District tore into each other last night at a candidates' night at the Terra Linda Recreation Center.

John F. McInnis, former mayor of San Rafael, declared that one of his opponents, Dr. William F. Upton, "charged me with favoring the filling of the bay."

"This is a flat lie!" McInnis fumed.

Dr. Upton, in turn, declared that McInnis, while mayor, "grabbed the best part of Terra Linda for a tax base and did very little for the rest."

And Melvin Warenback, also in the same race, took a few swings at McInnis. He said San Rafael sold its municipal yacht harbor at a cheap price and had to buy it back for a high price. "And they took away the little league field and turned it into a parking lot."

Referring to the last city election for mayor, Warenback crowed:

"The people of San Rafael rejected Dr. Aby, Mr. McInnis's candidate, and put in my honorary chairman, Paul Bettini" as mayor.

The heated exchange among the three highlighted an otherwise quiet meeting sponsored by the Greater San Rafael Democratic Club. C. Roy Calder, president of the club, presided. About 70 attended.

Here are some of the other statements made by the supervisoral candidates:

McInnis—During his term as councilman and mayor of San Rafael, the city made great strides in street improvements, offstreet parking, underground storm drains, library addition, new city hall, and improved street lighting.

All of this was accomplished and paid for, said McInnis, while the tax rate dropped 10 cents.

He was co-founder of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments and formed an eight-county planning area for joint regional planning.

McInnis stressed that this wealth of experience and record of accomplishment in city and regional government could be put to good use as county supervisor.

Dr. Upton—A resident of Marin for 33 years, he has been on the county planning commission since 1952, six years as chairman. He said the open ditch in Terra Linda, which marks the boundary between San Rafael and the county area, shows the difference between San Rafael and county planning.

"On this (county) side of the ditch, there is some landscaping, but on the San Rafael side, well, you can see for yourself."

Upton, a member of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission, said he is basically a conservationist. He opposed Marincello but now that it is legally approved, he will not obstruct its development, he said.

Warenback — He would work for location of a University of California campus in Marin. "It will attract light research industry like at Stanford. It would be a potential gold mine."

Warenback also favors consolidation of districts for law enforcement and fire fighting to cut down duplication and cost.

Other candidates who spoke last night were Democrats in the races for state Assembly, state Senate, and Congress.

ASSEMBLY

Robert E. Mertle, Santa Venetia businessman, and James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park, teacher at Richardson Bay School, are seeking the Democratic nomination.

Mertle charged that incumbent Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, "is not giving us any representation at all."

He sees a conflict of interest in Assemblyman Bagley's position as a legislator and his representing Marincello.

Mertle called for tax reform to relieve the homeowner, improved schools, and sensible master planning.

Pockrus proposed that technical high schools be set up to handle those who would normally drop out from academic high schools but have talent in such fields as wood and metal shop.

It is the job of the Legislature to prevent such things as haphazard bay filling, said Pockrus. "Mr. Bagley is not going to do anything: he's just going to join the country club in Sacramento."

CONGRESS

Phillip Drath and Thomas T. Storer seek the Democratic nomination.

Drath called for a cease-fire in Viet Nam, withdrawal of United States forces to fortified bases along the coast, and a UN observer force to supervise elections. "We should then get out," said Drath. He warned that President Johnson's present policy will lead to nuclear war and obliteration.

"Furthermore, we've got to bring Red China into the UN and have a disarmed world under law." He said this is a difficult task but not impossible.

Storer — "I'm every bit as much for peace as Phil Drath." Storer said he would ask President Johnson to state unequivocally that we will sit down and negotiate with the Viet Cong. This is the only way to determine whether the enemy is serious about seeking peace, said Storer.

He said he would make every effort to get the UN to intercede and supervise elections. On the recognition of Red China, "It is completely unrealistic and assinine to try to ignore 750 million people."

Storer criticized incumbent Rep. Don H. Clausen for "voting against Medicare, against the education bill, which brings $400,000 to Marin schools this year, and against the urban transit bill."

STATE SENATE

Assemblyman Pearce Young, D-Napa, is trying to unseat Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, in the newly formed Fourth Senatorial District.

Young apologized for not being able to campaign in Marin as intensively as he would like. As chairman of the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee, he has had his hands full in Sacramento with such controversial matters as hallucinatory drugs and the mandatory blood test for suspected drunken drivers, he said.

Young said his bill for the undergrounding of utility lines would be of particular interest to Marin.

Young, who is an attorney, said his interests range from art and poetry to law and politics. He was a Fulbright scholar and was twice nominated for a Rhodes Scholarship while attending Stanford University.

Burglars Get Frozen Meat

Burglars looted a garage deep-freeze box of 40 pounds of assorted meats, Mrs. Jack B. Johnston of 745 Knocknaboul Way, Lucas Valley, told sheriff's officers.

Deputies said entry was via an unlocked door.

Soule Steel co. of San Francisco reported burglars broke the door hasp of a construction shack at Marin County Civic Center. It was not learned whether any tools were taken, officers said.

Genevieve S. Anderson, 753 McClay Road, Novato, told deputies a silver-turquoise bracelet was taken from her home sometime during the past three weeks. No forced entry was evident, she said.

Eight silver dollars and a small amount of other coins were taken from the bedroom of Robert T. Stewart, 7 Circle Way, Homestead Valley. Deputies said entry was by prying a window.

Burglars also struck at the home of Gail S. Costello, 704 Butternut Drive, Terra Linda, but nothing was believed taken. Entry was by breaking a bathroom window.

A vacant house at 12 Roosevelt Avenue, Santa Venetia, owned by Mrs. Stanley R. Frederick of Lagunitas, was also entered, possibly through an unlocked kitchen window. Deputies said no loss was reported.

Play In Spanish Set For Second Graders

The second grade class of Lethajean Brock at Central School in Sausalito will present a play in Spanish on May 24 at 10:15 a.m. in the school auditorium.

Title of the play is "La Fiesta De Los Tres Osos" (The Celebration of the Three Bears).

War On Poverty Unit Asks Joint Meeting

The county wide advisory committee for the War on Poverty Wednesday agreed to request a joint session with the Community Action Committee of Marin City and the board of supervisors to clarify organization and responsibility.

The committee also ratified the temporary appointment of Douglas J. Quiett as director of community relations services and acknowledged the resignation of Walter Bremond from that post.

College Stature Growing To Enhance All Of Marin

College of Marin, originally known as Marin Junior College, is celebrating its 40th anniversary this week, along with the dedication of its new million dollar College Center.

Since the Marin Junior College District's first board of trustees was elected May 7, 1926, the college has grown tremendously in both physical plant and in student population.

Even outstripping the physical growth has been the constantly rising stature of the college, both as an educational institution and the center of cultural exchange and enhancement for the entire community.

The college has student leaders and publications which speak out with courage on topics of the day. Even more important than frank expression have been the sophistication and responsibility with which college spokesmen have addressed themselves to the problems at hand.

In discussing the sale of cigarettes on campus, or vandalism in the newly built center, or problems of student dress and behavior, the student body has demonstrated the ability to make its view known in an orderly and responsible manner.

Aside from a few childish pranks that occur on any college campus, especially in connection with athletic rivalries, we don't recall any large-scale incidents at the College of Marin where student behavior in general has reflected adversely on the fine reputation that the college has established for itself.

College of Marin graduates who go on to University of California have consistently come up with high grade-point averages, thus attesting to the academic excellence of the local college.

College of Marin's attainments in such fields as music and drama have already been widely acclaimed. Some of the student performances have been praised by Bay Area critics and favorably compared with the best that professional adults have to offer.

We are proud to have with us a fine institution of higher learning, which is young in age and spirit but sophisticated and responsible in its dedication to learning and its relations with the community.

We are proud to join in commemorating the anniversary of a young college which has truly come of age.

Another Myth Shattered

We had always heard that it was possible to tell the age of a buck deer by the size of its antlers. Not so, say University of Pennsylvania scientists. They produced 12 point antlers on yearling bucks in their captive herd simply by giving the deer a balanced diet.

We trust they included plenty of rose buds, seemingly Marin's deer's favorite food.

LIGHT CANDLES, DON'T BLOW THEM OUT

A "wet blanket" is defined as: "A person or thing that quenches or dampens enthusiasm, pleasure or the like."

—"Wet blankets" are quick to complain about a situation, but slow to do anything about it.

—They are more interested in fault-finding than in fact-finding.

—They are accustomed to speak of the group as "they" instead of "we."

Don't be a "wet blanket." Be a "candle-lighter," more anxious to improve than disapprove; more interested in getting action than fixing the blame for inaction; more concerned with winning cooperation than winning arguments.

In applying the principles of the Gospel to the solution of modern problems, you need God's unfailing assistance.

Then by prayer, intelligence and hard work you can be a constructive force in a fast-moving world.

"He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful in much." (Luke 16:10)

Let me do all I can, O Jesus, to build up and not tear down.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Reagan Has No Fears, Picking May 13 To Handshake In Marin

By WAT TAKESHITA

ACTOR RONALD Reagan apparently isn't at all superstitious.

He's picked Friday, the 13th of May, for a personal handshaking tour through Marin County.

The Republican hopeful for the governorship plans to spend most of that morning in and around San Rafael, with emphasis on handshaking and meeting crowds at shopping centers at Montecito in San Rafael, Bon Air in Greenbrae, and perhaps along Fourth Street in San Rafael.

Takeshita

THEY'RE STILL trying to figure out the identity of that young lady in black, who mingled prettily at the George Christopher dinner at Dominic's in San Rafael last week, all the time sporting an enormous Ronald Reagan button.

SUPERVISOR TOM Storer of Point Reyes Station and San Rafael contractor Phil Drath are conducting a friendly campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

The other day, a woman driving a station wagon lost control of her car near Storer's home and crashed into the embankment. Mrs. Inez Storer, the candidate's wife, rushed out to give the woman first aid, quieted the victim, gave her refreshments and even called a tow truck to extricate the car.

As the tow truck pulled the damaged car away, Mrs. Storer noticed a big campaign sign emblazoned on the car bumper. It said "Drath for Congress."

JUD LEETHAM, Los Angeles attorney who is seeking the Republican nomination for state attorney general, has a couple of Marinites heading up his Bay Area campaign.

Leetham's Marin chairman is Mrs. Robert S. Milmoe of Greenbrae, who has been a member of the State Central Committee for six years, and active in local politics for about seven years.

And Leetham's chairman for the entire Bay Area is another Marinite—attorney Harvey N. Black Jr. of Mill Valley.

ATTY. GEN. Thomas Lynch will be honored at a reception in Tiburon tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 p.m. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sperry of 2 Spring Lane, Tiburon.

County co-chairmen for the Re-election of Tom Lynch are Roger Garety and Hadden Roth, San Rafael attorneys.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Drivers Can't Read Signs

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the past we have or, at least, I have read several articles as to why Johnnie cannot read. It appears to me that it is not Johnnie, but the parents who cannot read.

They park where they should not, having not one bit of consideration of other people. I have been blocked from entering parking lot where I live because of a vehicle parked in the driveway.

I firmly believe that some way should be devised to teach those who do not know how to read so that they can read signs and . . . the Vehicle Code Summary and the American dictionary so they learn the meaning of "Coordination" and "Cooperation." Did someone by mistake flush these two words down the drain? It seems to me that is what has happened.

Youth Should Be The Concern

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have been reading in the San Rafael Independent-Journal and other newspapers regarding the disturbances in Marin City. As a former resident of Marin City (23 years). I feel qualified to make the following statements.

1. I feel that most of the young people who are causing the disturbances in Marin City are not all high school dropouts and juvenile delinquents.

They are young people who want to be heard and are asking for a better way of life than their parents have had in Marin City. They are restless and will go to any length to have a better life. Most of them feel they have nothing to lose because they're living a life of depression.

2. I'm sure it was appreciated by the Marin County Board of Supervisors to have a group of Marin City residents praising what they are doing for Marin City. But, this is not the group of people they should be concerned with.

Theo Brown and Jesse Berry cannot communicate with the youth of Marin City. Their ideas are obsolete.

The people the supervisors should be concerned with are the youth. These young people need somebody out of their own age group to communicate with you. Then perhaps you can reach the core of the real situation in Marin City.

Times have changed. The youth want goals in life and they cannot reach these goals without adequate educations and jobs.

3. I would like to say to the older generation of Marin City: Let the youth voice their opinions (new and progressive ideas). They are the men and women of tomorrow who will be the future residents and leaders in the community of Marin City.

Inmate Grateful For Kind Words

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The purpose of this letter is to express my sincere, heartfelt appreciation to each and every citizen of Marin County for their kind words and faith in me. It is indeed gratifying to know that in time of disturbing and difficult circumstances, there are people who actually practice forgiving from their hearts.

. . . My heartfelt thanks to each and everyone including my very dear, sweet wife for their undying faith of which I am sure restored a great amount of faith in myself. I will express myself a great deal better with actions by going out working very hard and earning the privilege of my wife and I living a decent, respectable life in a decent, respectable society.

Rescuers Are Thanked

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On the evening of April 17, our 5-year-old son fell from the back of our car as we were driving on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard toward San Francisco. Precious seconds or perhaps minutes passed before we knew that he was gone.

Two ladies, whose names we do not know, stopped to pick up the boy and comfort him. Shortly thereafter, he was taken to Marin General Hospital, where his injuries proved to be superficial.

My principal reason for writing, though, was to express our gratitude to the two women involved. It's our public way of saying "thank you" to them.

School Opinions Bring Thanks

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to thank all the people of Stinson Beach and Bolinas who wrote letters in support of the school board's action in accepting Peter Auer's resignation. I would like to thank all the people who wrote in favor of Mr. Auer. Also all who came to both our meetings. Now we know what the people want, who we are trying to represent.

Out of this will come a better school system.

Disturbed About Use Of 'Negro'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Wellman and I are quite disturbed over a front-page article in your Tuesday (April 26) paper — in which the writer refers to "Three Tamalpais High School girl students and two College of Marin Negro youths." We thought this kind of journalism was a thing of the past in Marin County.

This type of selective identification does a great disservice to the efforts of those of us who are trying to bring about just treatment to all.

A DR. L. H. PARADIES, from down Texas way, sent a medical meeting into a tizzy when he declared that girls don't have to wiggle when they walk any more than men do; they just do it to drive poor lads crazy. Hollywood stars, just possibly egged on by studio press agents, leaped into the fray immediately. "Of course a girl wiggles when she walks," snapped the imported eyeful, Ursula Andress. "And it's very pretty — that is, if she does it right." Diane Cilento (who ought to know, since in private life she's the wife of .007 — Sean Connery) adds, "Women wiggle naturally because they're more flexible and mobile than clumsy men." English-born Sarah Miles wisely observes, "I think it depends on what a girl is wearing — or not wearing, don't you?" Ann-Margret winds up the discourse with an irrefutable "Why walk like a man? What fun would there be in that?" I guess the wrigglers have it!

IT IS REPORTED that one Southwestern college, famous for the powerhouses they send onto the football field season after season, had to drop an end from the squad, despite his skill at ducking defenders and snagging passes. It seems that every time he caught a long pass and chalked up big yardage, he couldn't find the huddle again.

'Creative Federalism' Just Means More Control From Washington

WASHINGTON — Have no doubt about it, President Lyndon B. Johnson's "creative federalism" is going to create more federalism, not more state-ism.

The President will soon send to Congress his message on this subject.

However he defines "creative federalism," there will be more federal grants-in-aid to the states, more federal influence in deciding what state government ought to do for its people, more federal control, and a constantly bigger central government.

MOST PEOPLE don't like this ever-larger flow of power to Washington but seem to feel that it is hopeless to try to do anything about it.

If the only way to enable the states to provide the public services which are urgently needed—and often long neglected—is for the federal government to lay out the plans, provide most of the money, and supervise how it is spent, there would be a strong case for doing more of the same.

The price would be heavy—the decay of state government.

But there is another way and now is a propitious moment for the governments, the state legislatures, and the mayors to mount a national campaign to persuade Congress and, if possible, the President, to support the plan to return to the states a moderate share of the burgeoning federal revenue.

THIS IS THE crucial time to press the revenue-sharing plan for three reasons:

1. The defeat of the Dirksen Amendment to dilute the Supreme Court's one-voter-one-vote requirement for reapportioning state legislatures means that state government will become more responsible and responsive. It will unshackle the state legislatures from a minority veto.

2. The affluent federal government has so pre-empted the sources of tax income that today there is hardly a state which has the resources to do the things needed to be done.

Without any increase in the tax rate, federal revenues are mounting by $6 to $7 billion every year. Most of the states which critically need to expand spending are poverty-stricken.

3. We are almost certainly at the point of no return. Either we will have a meaningful revenue-sharing plan or the federal government will increasingly take over more and more functions that should be done by states simply since the states do not have the resources.

IN THE END this will mean that nearly all political power will rest in Washington and the states will become mere administrative agents.

This revenue-sharing plan has its roots in both parties. Its principal initiators were Walter E. Heller, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under both Kennedy and Johnson, and a Johnson-appointed task force on intergovernmental fiscal cooperation.

It has been ably advocated by two Republican groups, the Ripon Society and a special task force of the Republican Coordinating Committee. It has been strongly endorsed by the Governors Conference made up of 33 Democratic and 17 Republican governors.

In a let's-reason-together spirit LBJ likes to call on the governors to support him on such controversial matters as Viet Nam and inflation. It might be a good idea for the governors to reason together with LBJ on revenue-sharing.

Huge Construction Projects For Asia

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Military construction in South Viet Nam and Thailand is being expanded by 50 per cent to $1.5 billion and greatly speeded up to take care of a big build-up of U.S. military forces in the two countries.

By fall, the labor force employed in Viet Nam is slated to total more than 85,000, including 20,000 U.S. military and 5,000 civilian personnel.

THIS CONSTRUCTION force will aproximately double the 45,000 now working on airfields, ports, docks, roads, bridges, warehouses, cantonments and air defenses for major South Viet Nam cities.

Other workers on these projects will include 60,000 Vietnamese, half of whom will be from Army units, and 10,000 Koreans and Filipinos.

Construction personnel in Thailand will be increased from 10,000 to 20,000 to rush to completion a network of air, naval and communication installations and facilities for use in the Viet Nam fighting.

These and other still-to-be-disclosed details of the expanded military building program in support of Viet Nam operations were outlined by President Johnson and Defense Secretary McNamara at a White House conference with Democratic congressional leaders.

THE LEGISLATORS were told the construction schedule calls for completion of all major projects by the fall of 1967 — significant indication of the estimated duration of the Viet Nam war.

"We are making plans on the assumption that U.S. forces will be in Viet Nam for a long time," the President is credited as telling the lawmakers. "The deployment of troops will continue through the fall of 1967 when most of these projects will be completed."

Secretary McNamara indicated that the expanded building program is designed to handle the deployment and logistics for upward of 500,000 troops in that area, should this number be deemed necessary.

An estimated 300,000 troops will be in South Viet Nam by Aug. 1.

Many of the Viet Nam projects for which Congress voted funds in 1965 and early this year, such as development of the harbor at Camrahn Bay, will be completed by Sept. 1.

Other major installations, including of four jet airfields and harbor facilities and storare areas near Saigon, will not be finished until 1967.

SECRETARY Mc NAMARA stressed that completion of these projects will largely determine the number of troops and equipment the U.S. can support in Viet Nam.

Listed as under construction are 14 airfields and ports near Da Nang, Chu Lai, Qui Nhon, Nha Trang, Phan Rang, Vung Tau and Tan San Nhut. The site for a large jet base, capable of handling the strategic B-52 bombers, is still to be selected.

In Thailand, the largest airfield in Asia is being built at Sattship. Under the accelerated program, pipelines and storage facilities with connecting roads will be completed this year instead of 1967.

Three other airfields in northern Thailand, now being used for bombing attacks on North Viet Nam and the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos, are undergoing extensive expansion and improvement.

Despite this tremendous building activity, General William Westmoreland, commander in Viet Nam, is understood to be urging that the number of military construction units be doubled. His recommendation has been pigeon holed for the time being while new Army construction battalions and supporting logistical units are being formed.

Sand Sharks, Sting Rays Caught Off Sausalito's Municipal Pier

It's the time of the sand sharks and sting ray at the Municipal Pier in Sausalito.

The Japanese current is warm and this is the time they are more plentiful in the bay, according to Swede Pedersen.

He said fishermen catch stingrays of 80 to 100 pounds. Swede's son, John, cuts off the serrated stingers, puts them in Clorox and then presses them to make necklaces from the stingers. The sharks, also called leopard sharks, are three to four feet long, 20 to 40 pounds, are not man-eating.

Pedersen also reports that Peaches, firehouse mascot of Station One, is singing her farewell song. She is about 15 years old, turning gray and slow of age. "We hate to see her go," said the fireman. The dog has a bed near the television set, is a Sausalito native, and knows the town from hill to water.

Asked what position he will play in the fireman-police ball game Sunday at Sausalito's Richardson Bay School, police Sgt. Stan Kelly replied, "I'm going to be all over."

GUNTUR GRASS, "Cat and Mouse" and "The Tin Drum" author, is to meet with Bay Area writers at a reception aboard the Sausalito ark, Omphale, May 14, according to Ward Evans. He will be guest of the German consulate but will be entertained also by ark owner, Virginia Barclay, called "The Perle Mesta of Sausalito."

Gloria Alee, eighth grader at Richardson Bay School, heading for Mount Holyoke, Mass., this summer for school, has a very professional story in the current "Thoughts of Youth" booklet published by the school. It is called "A friend; Lost."

Kevin Percy, about 4, brought his tiny turtle in the other day, saying "Frosty" had a checkup at the pet shop and was found to be in good health. Kevin said the test was made by pushing down on the shell to see if it was hard.

Stanley Bala, Mill Valley city engineer, announced to City Council Monday in Mill Valley that he and his wife, Jadwiga, have produced twins—Eva and Monica. Bala, who said they had expected but one youngster, passed out cigars and candy and was applauded by the audience.

IN THE AUDIENCE Mrs. Frances Ferrario, head of the Mount Carmel Salvage Shop, said she was checking on "the shenanigans" of the council. She would not admit she is taking the vacant seat of Manny Gomez although she frequently exercised her rights—the voice of the people.

Si Weil has a new display at Redhill with a glass of water and a doll in a bathing suit, titled: "Practice Water Safety." The caption reads, "Learn how to give mouth to mouth resuscitation without becoming emotionally involved."

We have learned that Jenna Roth has a dog named Henry Cabot Lodge and a cat named Horace.

The dog, she said, knows 10 words and is very smart. When you say "door," he goes to the door. When someone says "that's the way the ball bounces," he runs and gets his ball.

Asked about the names, Mrs. Roth said they got the dog when Henry Cabot Lodge was returning from Viet Nam to save the republic from Goldwater. Horace came to the Redwood Bookstore on a cold day. "He was black and lean as the Latin poet. So we named him Horace."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Golf Course Offer, Park Bonds Merit Close Study By Citizens

FUSSELMAN

The following lines were cut from my copy last week because of space requirements: "There is another project of the Ross Valley supervisor which is difficult to understand. That is the gift to the county of a golf course just over White's Hill. Quite a number of people have said they feel the benefits (and to whom) are somewhat 'obscure' indeed."

I had intended to discuss this in some detail this week and was delighted to find that the editorial last Friday was headlined, "Golf Course Offer Sounds Good, But Requires Study." Then in the letters to the editor section, on Monday, Mrs. Edward Kaenel of San Anselmo, in a four paragraph note, said she found the "offer" had several points that were "confusing."

Following this, on Tuesday, was a news story that the Kentfield Civic League had voted unanimously to oppose two county park land purchases — one the 18 acres of park land, in Kentfield, from the San Francisco Catholic Archdiocese and the other the purchase (gift) of the San Geronimo National Golf Course.

THEY WERE quoted as saying, "Nobody in Kentfield needs or has asked for a park." The Kentfield site, which is being pushed by the Ross Valley supervisor, is the same area he was urging, in 1964, be used for Senior Citizen low rent housing units.

The editorial about the golf course made this point: ". . . a venture of this kind calls for caution. A careful analysis, both legal and economic, would be in order before we commit ourselves to this proposal, however inviting it may be . . . ."

"While this may be a bona fide offer by owners dedicated as much to conservation as to commercial gain, we would not want hasty acts now to establish precedents for the future." The Ross Valley man was quoted in the April 27 issue of the I-J that he had been working on this idea, "for more than a year." He has been on the board for a year and four months.

HERE ARE SOME of the things to be considered: Is the operation of the Golf Course paying? If so, why the offer? Is it not a fact that in order to have a non-profit corporation take over and issue bonds a public agency such as the county must own the land? And further is it not a fact that this plan would immediately pay off the private investment instead of this being extended over a long period of years?

THE AUDITOR-CONTROLLERS'S office, while I was supervisor, made a very careful computation of such an arrangement through a non-profit corporation, when we were trying to finance the Juvenile Hall and County Farm improvements.

He told us there was a "finders fee" and that in addition to the interest there were many other carrying charges (extra points, etc.) which made the plan somewhat too expensive to be considered when other methods were available.

So I sort of wonder just how the bonds would be paid off without a sizable hike in the green fees and if this would not be difficult in a competitive field.

The final paragraph of the editorial went like this: "We do not want to set any precedent that would encourage promoters to use the county as an unwitting tool for private financial gain."

I would like to applaud the San Anselmo city council for its refusal to tell the people of their city how to vote on the $4.3 million park bonds. If a governing body is submitting a bond issue, I believe it is perfectly proper for the members to present any advantage to the taxpayers incident to the passage, but the city councils are not submitting these park bonds. It is the Board of Supervisors.

I hope to discuss this $4.3 million bond issue further next week.

Drake Student Wins College Scholarship

Charles L. Hardin, honor student at Sir Francis Drake High School, has been awarded a four-year college scholarship by the Weyerhaeuser Company Foundation.

Hardin, 18, was one of 25 winners who competed against 250 other students for the scholarships awarded annually by the foundation to sons and daughters of Weyerhaeuser employees across the nation. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Hardin of 362 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax.

The Drake senior is a member of the school honor society and a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. He was awarded the school's Sportmanship Award two years ago and the scholarship award for the highest average attained by a student engaged in athletics. He is a member of the Drake Diplomats, and the German Club and has served in the student government.

Young Hardin plans to enter Stanford University in the fall.

ART BUCHWALD

It Happens To Mice; But Human Threshold Expected This Summer

WASHINGTON — Scientists are worried about the new fashions in women's clothes and their effects on the human male.

The short skirts, the topless evening gowns, and the bare bathing suits will soon be very commonplace, and no one knows how much further the male can be pushed before he loses all control.

One scientist who has been studying the problem is Prof. Heinrich Applebaum of the Advanced Institute for Provocative Behavior.

I visited the learned professor in his laboratory and he told me in a thick German accent, which I'll spare you, "We are reaching a threshold in clothes which could change the behavior patterns of every man and woman in the modern world."

"How's that, Professor?"

"WELL, LET ME show you. Naturally I cannot work with human beings as it is still too dangerous. So I have been doing my experiments with mice. Over here in this cage you see a female mouse and three male mice.

"Now the female mouse has a normal skirt which just covers her four knees. The male mice are relaxed and quiet."

"They don't even seem to notice the female mouse," I said.

"That's correct. Now I'm going to change the skirt on the female mouse, so that it will be several millimeters above her knees. I place her back in the cage."

"The male mice are becoming very agitated," I exclaimed.

"Exactly. They can't even work. Their pulse rate has gone up, their breathing is no longer normal."

"They're running around in circles," I said.

"Now, let us raise the skirt even higher, almost to the thigh."

"The male mice's eyes are bugging out."

"NOTE THAT two of them are frothing at the mouth."

"You'd have to see it to believe it," I cried.

"Let us go over to this cage," Prof Applebaum said. "I'm going to put a topless bathing suit on this mouse. Note what happens to the male mice that are swimming in the tiny pool when the female mouse appears."

"Two of the male mice are drowning," I said.

"It happens every time. The males get so agitated they forget how to swim."

"These experiments could have fantastic repercussions," I told the professor. "What is over in that cage?"

'These are female mice dressed in evening clothes. You will notice there are large holes cut in their dresses, and their bosoms are practically bare except for tiny band-aids.

"There is a little music box in the cage. When I turn on the music, the female mice will dance. Watch what happens to the male mice when I flip this switch."

"Heaven preserve us," I yelled. "The male mice have lost all control. They're chasing the female mice all over the cage."

"THE MALES have passed what I call the 'sex threshold,' which could be comparable to the sound barrier. There is no way of calming them down."

"Don't the female mice know what they have done?"

"They know, but they don't care."

"But if you translate this into human terms, it could mean . . . "

"Exactly," Prof. Applebaum said. "We're nearing the sex threshold now. By summer we may have passed it."

"Look, there's one male mouse that isn't doing anything. Does that mean there's some hope?"

"No, he's blind. He was left over from our cigarette experiments."

Marin Wants More Conventions, Needs Buildings To House Them

Conventions, which would be a natural industry for Marin, have been turned away for lack of facilities, according to Ray C. Schultz, chairman of the convention and facilities committee of the Marin Visitors Bureau.

"We're not out for large conventions," Schultz said last evening at a dinner meeting of the committee at Sabella's restaurant. "We want the overflow from San Francisco, conventions of 200-300-400, up to 1,000."

The Veterans Memorial Auditorium at the Civic Center will provide some facilities for conventions, "but we're still lacking housing," Schultz said. "If we had the facilities, we could have the conventions."

Schultz said the committee is seeking a means of financing convention facilities in conjunction with the memorial auditorium.

Ralph Devine, a representative of the Six Bay Counties Development Corp., a small business development corporation, said federal economic development funds would be available.

"You could form a special tax district or a non-profit corporation or there could be private financing," he said.

There were strenuous objections when Devine said the county could finance a motel near the Veterans Memorial.

"I was using the term county loosely," he explained. "But you have to have at least a quasi-governmental body or a non-profit corporation."

Paul Tunkis, another representative of the development firm, said eating and sleeping accommodations must be close to the convention hall to make the convention facilities suitable.

"There has to be planning to meet today's needs, and maybe 10 years in advance," he said.

Tunkis also advised that motels be constructed "with a dual purpose," so that if conditions change they can be converted into rest homes or retirement centers.

Marin affords an ideal location for conventions, and "has the areas for tourism," Tunkis noted.

Harvey Sawyers, chairman of the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors, reported that Mendocino has reached its peak in lumbering and agriculture and is trying to develop recreation to bolster its economy.

John M. Douglas, director of economic development for Marin County, said Marin has other potentials for development "right at the moment," aside from the convention potential.

"We've got the Point Reyes National Seashore," he said. "The ranger logged 177,000 visitors last year."

About 20 persons attended the meeting.

Send your teen-age questions to Youth Asked For It, care of Helen Help Us!, the Independent-Journal.

DEAR HELEN:

I like a boy but his little brother is a pest, and mean too. How can you keep him out of our swimming pool when his big brother is invited to go in.

That is a problem with almost everybody who has pools. You like one of a family but you can't have the whole family over or there wouldn't be any pool left. What to do?

—TIRED HOSTESS

DEAR TIRED:

Private swimming pools must be "By Invitation Only" or they soon become backyard menaces. Make this plain to your friends, and don't worry about getting tough: all pool owners do . . . or should! —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I have the biggest problem. My boy friend and I broke up, so my best girl friend said she'd help me get him back. Fine help she is! She got him for herself. Now they are going around together.

I want him back so bad I could just sit down and cry my eyes out. Don't tell me to forget him. I couldn't ever. —S.C.

DEAR S:

You can and you will, but you won't believe me now, so I'll say (again): the best way to get a boy back is turn your back on him. He would rather chase than be pursued. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'm a live-in baby sitter and care for this five-year-old girl who just won't learn to put her shoes on the right feet. I've marked one shoe so she knows it's for the left foot, but invariably she puts it on the right and vice versa, and then I have to help her change them. I thought it would help if I quit trying to help her, but it hasn't. What can I do? —B.K.M.

DEAR B:

If your small charge always puts her shoes on the wrong feet then she knows what she is doing — otherwise the law of averages would make her right half the time.

So I'd guess this is a bid for attention, and if you forget the shoes (let her wear them any way she pleases and she'll soon discover how uncomfortable they are) and concentrate on her less apparent needs the problem may disappear.

Those less apparent needs? Call yourself a substitute mother, rather than a "live-in babysitter" and you'll understand what I mean. —H.

NOTE TO PERPLEXED:

Telephone your Better Business Bureau and ask to have your contract checked. While all this sounds sneaky and underhanded (which it is!) I'm awfully afraid the fine print on the contract makes it legal. These sales companies know how to stay within the law.

When your mother put her name on that piece of paper, she agreed to a price which would probably shock you — though it sounded like a "bargain" at so much a week. A contract is binding. If she is sued, her credit rating suffers, and that is why most people pay up rather than fight. —H.

Models for the event will be Mrs. Thomas Pinkard, Mrs. Leo Souza and Miss Ann Klemme.

The upper team chorus will entertain the guests before the Bel-Aire children perform folk dances in an outdoor extravaganza.

Reservations chairman is Mrs. Aram Zailian, Mill Valley.

In Honor Society

Barbara Reichmuth, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority at the University of California in Berkeley, has been selected for membership in the Honor Student Society. Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reichmuth of San Anselmo, is a senior English major.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR Mrs. W. James Lloyd raps out some correspondence at her desk at her Mill Valley home with her children, Christopher and Katie, taking an interest in her volunteer activity. She has headed the board of the Volunteer Bureau of Marin, which is sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco.

Lynwood Elects Staff

Mrs. Roy Peterson has been elected to serve as president of the Lynwood School Parent-Teacher Assn. for the year.

Other officers include Mrs. George Ungemach, first vice president; Marlowe Lancaster, second vice president; Donald Slezak, third vice president; Mrs. Raymond Mushrush, secretary, and Mrs. Larry Hammond, treasurer.

Chairmen appointed by the new president include Mesdames Richard MacPherson, auditor; Will Behrens, historian; Ellis Conklin, health and safety; Dale Podshadley, Ralph Donohue and Fred Johnson, hospitality; Robert Trice, magazines; Joan Shannon and Cleve Wilkinson, membership; William Harris, parliamentarian; C. Ballard Breaux, education and legislation; and Mesdames Warren McGown, program; Kenneth Cline, publicity; J. Richard Dykes and James Bergstrom, room representatives; Ernest Stevens, spiritual and founders' day; Earl Karinen and Fred Robinson, ways and means, and John McDunna, newsletter.

Bureau's Volunteer Of Year Began Service As Teen-Ager

"This was not on the agenda!" commented Mrs. W. James Lloyd as she accepted the plaque which pronounced her to be the Volunteer Bureau of Marin's Volunteer of the Year. Minutes later her term of office as president of the Volunteer Bureau's board of directors ended.

The outstanding volunteer is one who starts, often as a teen-ager or younger, in lowly jobs. Through varied and continuing experience she learns how to achieve the maximum in community service and satisfaction from her work. Mrs. Lloyd began her volunteer life as a teen-ager, when she spent a summer assisting the occupational therapist in the pediatrics ward of Stanford Hospital. She went on to work at Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Assn. in San Francisco, Children's Health Council in Palo Alto, Children's Receiving Home in Sacramento, and educational television stations KVIE in Sacramento and KQED in San Francisco.

THE LLOYDS MOVED to Mill Valley in 1962 and Pam Lloyd immediately became busy as a teacher's aide in the Marin School Volunteer Program, and later as Mill Valley's area chairman for United Fund, Chairman of Volunteers for the Psychiatric Unit of Ross Hospital, and a board member of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health.

In March, 1964, she was asked by the Junior League of San Francisco, of which she is a member, to be president of the Volunteer Bureau's board. The bureau is a league project in Marin, founded and financed by it.

Mrs. Lloyd credits much of her training as a volunteer to the league, which has as its stated purpose to foster interest in the community and to train effective volunteers.

A VOLUNTEER MUST learn how to keep home life and volunteer job in balance, too. Pam Lloyd's husband, an engineer at Johnson Service Co. in San Francisco, accepts her volunteer work as something she wants and needs to do and their children, Chris, 7, Katie, 5, and Jeannie, 3, have learned to be quiet when their mother is on the telephone, but they get their share of her time and attention.

Mrs. Lloyd is a native San Franciscan, who attended Smith College in Massachusetts and returned to graduate from the University of California. Her favorite hobby, shared by the rest of her family, is skiing.

WHAT LIES ahead in Mrs. Lloyd's volunteer career? She has begun a year as recording secretary for the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.

New Hill P-TA President Has Large Bell Collection

The volunteer director for Marin County schools in the program for the mentally handicapped, Mrs. Donald Bresnahan of Novato, has been elected president of the Hill Junior High School Parent-Teacher Assn.

She is also on the steering committee for the volunteer program in the Novato Unified School District, helping children that are slower in some subjects; is just beginning to work as a volunteer one morning a week in a class at Marion School and is a volunteer once a week in a classroom at the MARC training center in Lucas Valley.

Marjorie Bresnahan and her husband, a radio and television writer, have two boys, Mark, 11, and Erin, 9 years of age.

They came to Marin County from Chicago two years ago. Marjorie immediately became active in the Lu Sutton School P-TA, where she served two years as treasurer.

"I am also interested in gardening, tending our numerous pets, which include a gold fish, one horse, two dogs, four cats, two sheep and a guinea pig, and I spend a lot of time dusting the 600 bells in my collection," Mrs. Bresnahan said.

Her bell collection ranges in size from one as small as a large thimble with a French design to a school bell in use since 1892 in a one-room school. The bell was given to Mrs. Bresnahan when the school was dismantled for her activities in school work in their former community of Naperville, Ill.

Serving on the board with the new president will be Mrs. Louis Dorshkind, vice president; Leigh Metteer, second vice president; and Mesdames William Thompson, secretary; William E. Garl, treasurer; Wilma McDermott, auditor, and William E. Bolton, historian.

MRS. BRESNAHAN

Hartzell Student Brochure Winner

Full county participation was sought and obtained at the recent luncheon held at Peacock Gap Country Club by the Marin Museum Assn. Mrs. Frank J. Keaton of San Rafael was chairman of the event.

The cover for the brochure at each plate was drawn by a first grade student at the Oliver Hartzell School. His name was Steig Klein and it was his interpretation of a "Visit to the Museum." Steig vied with 400 other grade school students throughout the county.

William Torrance of Fairfax and owner of Torrance Art Gallery in San Anselmo presented an exhibition of 11 paintings done by early Marin artists dating from 1839.

America's Mother Of Year Founded Asian Adoption Plan

CRESWELL, Ore. (AP) — She has met the president of South Korea and attended a state reception in honor of President Johnson, but America's 1966 Mother of the Year doesn't own a pair of white gloves.

Mrs. Harry Holt, 61, describes herself as a farm woman who doesn't need a lot of fancy clothes, yet her activities have taken her to Latin America, Asia and across the United States.

"I get around quite a bit for an old lady with 14 children," she says.

MRS. HOLT was named America's Mother of the Year Wednesday night in Washington. She already is Oregon's Mother of the Year.

She is a widow who has helped 3,500 Korean orphans find homes in the United States. In 1955, Mrs. Holt and her husband, who died in 1964, started an adoption program by bringing eight Asian children into their farm home.

From then until his death, Holt spent more than half his time in Korea while Mrs. Holt found herself in Creswell, near Eugene in the Willamette Valley, raising a second family, running a mushrooming adoption service, and working as a one-woman public relations agency for the program.

"Things were never the same after Harry arrived with our eight little ones," she said. "At first we had five in diapers at once. Our 'first family' was a great deal of help."

The Holts spent most of their private assets supporting the babylift operation and the orphanage which today has 36 buildings and houses 557 children.

HOLT ONCE was called a "slave trader" by the North Korean government and fought a continuing battle with social workers, U.S. immigration laws and adoption procedures.

Yet, awards include the Medal of Culture — the highest honor the Republic of Korea can bestow upon a foreigner — awarded posthumously to Holt in 1964, the Public Welfare Service Medal from the Korean government and an accompanying citation from the late Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Mrs. Holt's role in the project has been a quieter but equally vital one.

She received her nursing degree from the University of Iowa in 1926, but nursing is only one of her many skills.

IN 1956 SHE wrote a book, "The Seed from the East," in which she told the story of the first two years of the adoption service and the Korean orphanage run by Holt.

She even has directed and edited a movie illustrating the operation of the Korean orphanage.

Her 23-year-old daughter, Suzanne, and five other fulltime employes handle the bulk of office work for the agency. Daughter Millie, 31, is a missionary nurse in Korea working with orphans.

MOTHER OF YEAR — Mrs. Bertha M. Holt of Creswell, Ore., was named 1966 American Mother of the Year in Washington Wednesday night by the American Mothers Committee. Mrs. Holt, who has six children of her own, once adopted eight Korean war orphans at one time. (AP Wirephoto)

MARIN FILM FARE

'Harper' Recalls Bogart Thriller

By LES DARD

Here's what's to see this fine weekend at Marin area movie houses:

RAFAEL THEATER

Now on screen is the flashy new drama "Harper," with Paul Newman in the title role of a private eye. This is no Bondian imitation—it's in a class by itself and harps back only to the films of the late Humphrey Bogart.

Newman is a brash, intelligent, glib investigator who is called in to locate Lauren Bacall's roving husband. She doesn't want him back. In his search, Newman gets involved with the frantic, sinister world of the very rich and the slick underground alternately that provides for them and preys on them.

Aside from Newman, there is Miss Bacall's stepdaughter, Pamela Tiffin, who is engaged to Robert Wagner, a carefree ingratiating young man who meets a very surprising end. Arthur Hill plays the missing man's attorney and Shelley Winters is a fat, boozy one-time film star.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Elizabeth Hartman, Shelley Winters and Sidney Poitier star in "A Patch of Blue," a simple, unpretentious drama that makes a statement from the heart—something rare in films these days.

Basically the story is that of a blind girl, Miss Hartman, who has never been to school and is horribly mistreated by her slutish mother, Miss Winters, who won an Oscar for this performance. One day in a park she meets Poitier—an educated, sophisticated young man who offers her inspiration, hope and warmth.

Definitely the theme here is one of racial understanding, yet it is touched gingerly, and never overplayed.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Now playing is "A Thousand Clowns," featuring Jason Robards. Robards plays a TV gag writer who resigns from gainful employment in order to be an individual again and to do the things he always dreamed of. But there are problems. For one, he is taking care of a twelve-year-old boy—his sister's illegitimate son—who loves and honors him for his unconventionality.

Yet when a pair of social workers drop in to check on the child, Robards is warned that he must either conform or the boy will be taken to a more "normal" home.

101 DRIVE-IN

Certain to appeal to those afflicted with the current epidemic of super-spy fever is "The Second Best Secret Agent In The Whole Wide World" (TSBAITWWW for short) — a real spoof's spoof.

Tom Adams plays the supposed good guy. He is staunchly true to form in his continuous pursuit of luscious females, and in his enthusiasm for doing away with the opposition (no less than 15 fall before his menacing silencer-equipped revolver.

NOVATO THEATER

Basically, this is the story of a dog and his devotion to a frontier family. The hearty animal's will to serve his young masters and his faithful efforts to protect them makes a tale to rend the hearts of young and old. The tragic climax is eloquent in its simple beauty.

Co-featured is another Disney from a few years back—the delightfully lovable "Bambi," one of the first feature length cartoons.

MOTOR MOVIES

The United States has its westerns, and Italy has their ancient Romans. The latest—and one of the best—exploitations of this theme is "Revenge of the Gladiators."

The setting is about 73 B.C. and centers around the fabled Spartacus, leader of the Roman slave rebellion. Roger Browne stars.

Co-featured is "Seven Slaves Against the World," another action bill in the same vein.

LARK THEATER

The new British influence is definitely here to stay—take for instance the glittering, irreverent drama "Darling," for which Julie Christie won the Best Actress Oscar.

Miss Christie takes the title role—of a girl who deserts her husband for the high-flying life. She becomes a jet-set jade, one of those young things who pop up in big city society simply because of their very special beauty. She first takes up with bookish TV commentator Dirk Bogarde, but then sees greater opportunities in a relationship with advertising executive Laurence Harvey. Nevertheless, she seems caught up in an alien world that moves too fast for her.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Also held over is the masterful "The Spy Who Came In From The Cold," a critical look at the grey, murky world inhabited by sordid little people licensed to maim society under the auspices of freedom and democracy.

Richard Burton takes the title role of a seasoned, cynical British espionage agent whose immediate assignment is to destroy the head of East German Intelligence. Burton is ably assisted by Oskar Werner, Claire Bloom and Cyril Cusak.

Co-featured is an equally engrossing film, "The Pawnbroker," starring Rod Steiger.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over here is the gold plated, eight cylinder comedy extravaganza: "The Great Race."

Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis star as the two major contestants in a crazy New York-to-Paris auto race in 1910. Curtis is the good guy, dressed in white, and Lemmon is the villain, dressed suitably in sinister black.

Pepperdine Says 'No' To Bequest

LOS ANGELES (AP) —A $1 million bequest granted on the condition that an honorary degree be awarded to an ultra-conservative radio commentator has been rejected by Pepperdine College.

The bequest was made by the late Dallas Bedford Lewis, a millionaire dog food manufacturer. Lewis died April 25. He was 62.

Under the terms of his will, the college was to have been given the money provided that former FBI agent Dan Smoot received a degree within six months of Lewis' death.

Children Will Write Script

A new type of children's play will be presented at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Novato Community House by the Castle Court Players, sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

In "The Magic Storybook," children in the audience will participate in creating the play.

This is achieved by the ruse of the actors arriving at the theater, setting up the stage, and then accidentally destroying their script. The director, Douglas M. Briggs, then asks the audience to help him. They will suggest characters and situations for the play, generally helping create the play. Then the actors will take the ideas and present the play. No two performances will be the same.

It will be presented again at the same hour on May 21 at the Novato Community House.

Coast Guard Training In San Pablo Bay

The Army Corps of Engineers will close part of San Pablo Bay for four hours May 22 so it can be used for Coast Guard training exercises.

Area involved is between the mouths of the Petaluma River and Sonoma Creek. It will be declared a "danger zone" between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. that day, and will be patrolled.

Tam Musicians' Performances

Tamalpais High School's Music Club will present the 1966 Spring Concert at 8 p.m., May 20, in Ruby Scott Auditorium.

The event is to be directed by Mrs. Mabel Pittinger and Laurence Nelson. On the same evening the Shakespeare Music Contest will take place with Anne Roth, Gwen Brown, Brian Mann and a vocal quartet participating.

Other musical events in which the club will participate are the opera, "The Mother of Us All," Sunday at Angelico Hall of Dominican College, San Rafael, and a backstage concert Monday at Ruby Scott Auditorium, Tamalpais High. These events are also at 8 p.m.

Marin Painters' Art At Torrance Gallery

Recent artworks by two members of the Marin Society of Artists will be exhibited from May 22 to June 17 at the Torrance Gallery, 128 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo.

The show will consist of oils by Maxine Fiaccadori of Kentfield and oils, water colors and collages by Bettyjo Norton of Larkspur. Gallery hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. except Sundays.

KRON (4), 8:30 p.m.—Tunes of dolls, sailors, Latin America and classical music transformed into "pop" are features on "Sing Along With Mitch." (Repeat)

QUEEN OF MARINWOOD'S MAY

Although May Day used to come on the first of the month, it will be May 14 in Marinwood, as 9-year-old Loris Louise (Lori) Lynch of 633 Cedarberry Lane is crowned 1966 May Day Queen. The festival will start at 11 p.m. at the Marinwood Community Center. Lori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Lynch Jr., also will preside at a May Day festival in San Francisco tomorrow.

Branson Sets Two Concerts In Afternoon

Two musical afternoons are scheduled this month at the Katharine Branson School in Ross. On May 22 at 4:30 p.m. students will present a concert featuring pianists and the school Glee Club.

Playing in the recital will be Cathy McBain, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earle H. McBain, San Rafael, and Mary Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clarke of Kentfield.

The second musical afternoon will be on Monday, May 30, at 3:15 p.m., when French mezzo-soprano Claudine Carlson will sing. Miss Carlson was recently on tour in Europe and the Middle East with the Roger Wagner Chorale, and lately performed in Bach's Saint John Passion at the San Francisco Legion of Honor.

Her program will include works by Lully and Handel, cabaret favorites and Spanish folk songs, with specially composed arrangements by Miss Elinor Armer, who is in charge of school piano instruction. Eugene Ramey directs singing instruction.

Rockefeller Defends Women

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has gone to the defense of women.

"The greatest talent to be found in the United States is in our women and it is not being fully utilized," he said in a speech last night.

"Only one country, I'm sorry to say, fully utilizes their women and that is Soviet Russia," he added.

TELEVISION PREVIEW

Emmy Nominees Up His Blood Pressure

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —The show to miss again this year is the Emmy Awards program, to be broadcast May 22 on CBS-TV. Each season the nominations are unfailingly trivial and generally meaningless. This year they are so absurd that they defy satire.

The idea of these television prizes, you may remember, is to award exceptional achievement. Yet there are so many nominations in the latest competition that they took up nearly two pages of a Hollywood show business trade paper. Would you believe that there has been so much outstanding quality on video this past season? And not just outstanding—but exceptional.

The Andy Williams show, for instance, is nominated in the variety series field. You may or may not like the program, but is there anyone in his right mind who could term it exceptional achievement? In the same category, Danny Kaye's show was nominated and even his most devoted fans must surely know the program had a bad year.

Carol Channing's one - hour outing, one of the disappointing shows of the season, was nominated as a top variety special. So was another program that hardly made the world stand still, "Jimmy Durante meets the Lively Arts."

Among the dramatic series nominated — and why there must be nominations to fill each category is beyond me—is, so help me, "Bonanza."

And how, by the way, could "Secret Agent"—the best weekly entertainment series on the air—not even get a nomination in this category, considering the competition anyway?

The nominations for the news and documentary field are lumped in such disorganized fashion that it seems impossible to make head or tail of them, and needless to say they generally follow the establishment line. What is equally noticeable is that, unless my lists are incomplete, several major accomplishments in these areas are not even mentioned. These include:

The "Town Meeting of the World" broadcasts, international debates via the Early Bird satellite which turned into the most distinguished series of specials of the year. And the brilliant and powerful NBC-TV documtary "Who Shall Live?," which delved into the unglamorous subject of artificial kidney machines, and showed how the lack of them—despite their proven effectiveness—is making it impossible for some patients to be treated, and tremendously expensive for others. This is may personal choice for the season's best documentary.

In fact, there is no doubt in my mind that "Who Shall Live?," in its field, and Barbra Streisand's recent special, in the entertainment area, are network television's two foremost programming accomplishments of the 1965-66 season.

Horses On Block In Club Auction

A wide selection of horses for pleasure riding, breeding or show will be put on the block at the 1966 Atherton Club horse auction May 14 in Novato.

The auction on the club grounds at Atherton Avenue and Olive Street will include an informal horse show in which the animals are put through their paces and certified by their owners before sale.

Classes of horses being offered in order of presentation will be: English and Western pleasure horses, registered quarter horses, thoroughbred and standardbred horses.

Nixon Will Arrive On Los Angeles Visit

LOS ANGELES (AP) —Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow for a series of campaign speeches and a visit with his mother and other relatives.

Nixon will address San Diego and Monterey campaign meetings Monday on behalf of Robert H. Finch, his former administrative assistant. Finch is a candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Nixon will speak again Tuesday at Newport Beach.

No Contest Entered In Mac Theft Case

A no-contest plea to grand theft was entered in Marin Superior Court yesterday by Robert Gordon Wade Sr., 47, charged with stealing a $500 check March 16, 1965, from Mac Appliance Sales Co., San Rafael. He will be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. May 24.

Wade, of 120 San Carlos Way, Novato, was arrested by Novato police Jan. 12.

Once practically all butter was made on farms, but today only about three per cent is home-produced in the United States and Canada.

Preliminary Bypassed By Westmore

Hardy Westmore, charged with the shooting death of College of Marin student Mike Lazar and the attempted killing of Janine Lieberman, waived preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court yesterday and was certified to Marin Superior Court.

Westmore, who was a janitor at the college at the time of the shootings last Nov. 5, is to be arraigned in the higher court at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

His attorney, Richard Werthimer of San Francisco, said he probably will plead innocent by reason of insanity.

Werthimer said psychiatric reports by three doctors indicate Westmore was insane at time of the shootings in his Kentfield apartment.

Westmore allegedly shot the students in an unexplained rifle attack. He was sent to Atascadero State Hospital Nov. 23, then returned March 25 after being pronounced mentally able to stand trial.

Both Werthimer and Westmore told Judge Peter Allen Smith of the municipal court yesterday they felt he was able to cooperate with his counsel and understands the legal proceedings.

Lazar, 22, lived at 1155 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield. Miss Lieberman resides at 4 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield.

Thomson Rehearsal Open To Students

Dress rehearsal of the Virgil Thomson-Gertrude Stein opera "The Mother of Us All" will be tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in Angelico Hali, at Dominican College, San Rafael.

Students may attend the rehearsal on presentation of their student body cards. The Northern California premiere performance of the opera by the Symphony Guild of Marin is scheduled for 8 p.m. Sunday, in Angelico Hall. Tickets will be available at the door.

News Men Tour In Muir Woods

Thirty-two news correspondents from Europe and the Middle East will tour Muir Woods and Sausalito tomorrow as part of a three-day visit to the Bay Area which will begin this evening.

They are being given a two-week, coast-to-coast tour of the United States by Trans World Airlines, and are staying in San Francisco for this phase of their trip. The airline hopes to encourage foreign travel and spending in this country as a solution to the balance of payments problem.

On the tour are writers from Belgium, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom.

Judge Allows Firing Of Social Worker

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Judge Joseph Karesh ruled yesterday the Civil Service Commission can fire Harold Supriano, social worker who has visited North Viet Nam and taken part in civil rights drives.

Both times he asked leaves, Supriano said there was illness in his family. But Welfare Director Robert Burns said that during a 1963 leave he went to Mississippi for civil rights work and that in 1965 he visited Communist North Viet Nam.

Boat Assault Man Arraigned

Dean Morrison, 58, Piedmont builder, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a felony charge of assaulting a fellow yachtsman with a boat hook last Sunday near Angel Island.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled plea entry for May 19, then released Morrison on his own recognizance.

Morrison allegedly struck Dr. Herbert C. Enos, 48, Lafayette pschiatrist, on the head during an argument over a near-collision of their boats.

Cameras Banned For Dodd Query

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee has adopted a set of ground rules which would ban television, motion picture and other cameras when it holds public hearings in its investigation of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Committee sources said the rules, adopted Feb. 2 to cover all investigations by the panel, will govern the Dodd probe unless changed.

The committee announced last week it would conduct public hearings in its investigation of "the alleged relationship" between Dodd and Juliss Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm. A date has not been set.

Cost Of Sewers Said Too High

Resident of Forrest Avenue in Fairfax were told by directors of the Ross Valley Sanitary District Wednesday that prohibitive costs of sewers will force them to continue with septic tanks, at least in the foreseeable future.

District Mgr. Ralph C. Noah said in a letter, signed by 16 home and building site owners on the street, asked the district to study the cost of extending a sewer line to serve them.

The board said an assessment district for this purpose would cost each of the approximately 40 home and building site owners there $3,500. "That's too expensive," said Noah, blaming the hilly terrain for the cost.

During his lifetime, George Eastman, developer of photography gave more than $75 million to schools.

Burglary Charge Filed On Davis

A burglary complaint was filed Wednesday by the district attorney's office against Robert James Davis, 21, of Larkspur, accused of burglary of his mother's store in Tamalpais Valley.

Davis, son of Mrs. Margurite L. Davis, a partner of Dan's Groceries and Liquor at 254 Shoreline Highway, was arrested Monday night as the person seen in the store early Sunday, but was released from county jail when no complaint was immediately issued.

An arrest warrant has now been issued on the complant, however.

SURVEYING NEW CAMPUS

First step toward development of College of Marin's north campus is this survey, being taken by a crew from the Novato engineering firm of Murray and McCormick. Purpose of the work is to determine topography of the 333-acre site so engineers can decide where the buildings must go. Shown are (left to right) Paul Todd, Harold Patterson and John Gibbons. Mother Washington Fund Starts

Mrs. Booth Puts In $2 For Grave

Mrs. Carmel Booth, long-time firebrand of the San Anselmo City Council and now treasurer-tax collector of Lake County, has sent $2 to the Independent-Journal to start a fund for a marker for the grave of "Mother" Catherine Washington in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Writing from her home in Nice, Mrs. Booth said: "For shame with the money Marin throws to the winds that the markers could not be purchased. It makes me utterly sick at heart."

Mrs. Catherine Washington of Marin City was 104 when she died last year. She was given a pauper's burial, and lies in an unmarked grave.

"Grandma Washington buried in an unmarked grave after all the fanfare given her at each and everyone of her passing years is, to say the least, a crime against Christianity," wrote Mrs. Booth.

"I was responsible for the removal of bodies from Lucas Valley Hospital and Farm burial grounds after a battle before the board a few years ago. To say cattle are driven across the burial grounds is nothing new. At Lucas Valley they were always grazed over the graves."

Mrs. Booth, who left Marin in 1960, continued.

"There are many graves of ancient Chinese coolies, many of whom worked for the McNear family (both at the brick yard and in the shrimp and sturgeon fields) lost forever near the base of the hill behind the old TB sanatorium. No Catholic known to the local parishes was ever allowed to be interned at the Lucas Valley."

"For thirty-odd years I was a volunteer at your hospital and farm at least once a week some times three times a week. Believe me when things went wrong out there(and don't think they didn't) some one caught what for. As for county burials, I have seen them - enough said."

NEW GYM ROCKS AS COLLEGE CELEBRATES

The College of Marin's new gymnasium rocked to the new music yesterday as the Hollywood Allstars gyrated and sang to the rhythms of the Fireballs. Tonight, on the eve of the college's 40th anniversary, another new building will be dedicated on the campus, the College Center. The Associated Students will host a dinner for 350 persons in the new center. There will be songs by the College of Marin Madrigal Singers and brief talks by College President Stephen E. Epler, Associated Students President Allen Kelley, and others. (Independent-Journal photo)

YOUR ACHING BACK

Other Muscles Contribute To Soreness In The Back

By HANS KRAUS, M.D.

(Fifth in series)

When you go to your doctor for a thorough check-up, you may get an electrocardiogram. You will have your blood pressure and pulse taken. Your nervous system, your ears, eyes, blood, urine, heart and lungs will be examined.

All of these are good and necessary tests. But seldom are muscles checked for strength and flexibility. Few doctors test you to see whether your muscles can manage the weight of your body.

Yet muscles have a tremendous influence on over-all health. They even affect your metabolism and your emotional life. They help keep your entire heart and blood vessel system in good shape.

Your muscles are only as good as you make them. When you don't use them properly, they suffer and so do you.

Neglect or abuse the muscles that keep your body erect, and you are bound to get back pain. When muscles are weak through lack of exercise and tense because of irritation, they cannot do their share of keeping the body erect, and too much strain falls on the bones and ligaments of your spine.

Look at it this way:

Your spine runs from your head to your buttocks. It consists, in order, of seven cervical or neck vertebrae, then 12 dorsal vertebrae in the middle back, then five lumbar vertebrae in the so-called small of the back and, finally, the sacrum, a roughly triangular bone that connects the spinal column with the pelvis.

Vertebrae are the bony parts of the spine—but they are not directly linked to one another. Between each is a sort of ring of ligament with a soft inner section. These rings are called discs — and how many people have told you they have a slipped disc, or disc trouble?

Fortunately, slipped discs are not quite as common as you might think. Many persons who think they are suffering from disc trouble are actually victims of muscle strain in the back, and this condition can be corrected through exercise instead of surgery.

Besides the discs, there are other strong ligaments joining the vertebral bodies with one another and with the sacrum. On the back part of each vertebra is a bony ring. This holds the spinal cord. The center of the spinal cord consists of nerve cells. And around the center are great cables of nerve fibers that ultimately join the lower and upper part of the brain.

They are a two-way communication system — taking the brain's orders to the muscles and other parts of the body, and returning to the brain the sensations the body encounters.

The spinal column is the shape of a gentle figure "S". It is an elastic structure of muscle and bone. But, if it is to function correctly, and absorb sudden blows or continuous strain, it needs help.

That help comes from the trunk muscles. All of them, not only the back muscles, but the stomach muscles, the hip flexors and extensors, support the spinal column. They combine to keep it erect, and allow it to move. They protect by acting as an outer guard, and if they're in good condition, they can offset damage to the spinal column itself.

Working with the back muscles, strong stomach and hip muscles are also important to avoid back trouble. Some people always blame their back muscles, but the trouble may lie in these other muscle groups. They are often the first to weaken in our inactive life.

Suppose you spend most of your day sitting down. Your back muscles are active to keep you from toppling over. But at the same time, you let your stomach muscles go slack, and your hip-flexors are inactive as well.

If you got some exercise for them, the sitting inactivity wouldn't hurt. But, inevitably, you don't, and the muscles get weak, and they can't cooperate in keep your back erect. That puts a greater strain on the back muscles—and that leads to trouble.

Finally, adding tension, then stiffness, a simple act may produce the strain that will send those back muscles into spasm of rebellion. The result: pain.

As a matter of fact, muscle weakness may not have to contribute to back trouble at all. Tension—the tension of working in one position too long—can cause it all by itself.

Organic disease causes only a small percentage of back pain.

If you do suffer a sudden attack of back pain, lie down on a hard surface. A hard mattress over a board is best. The painful muscles should be covered with a hot pack—towels dipped in boiling water and then covered by a dry towel. To avoid scalding, the wet towels should be well wrung out.

And contrary to popular opinion, it is not how long the towel remains hot on the back, but how hot it is in the first place.

The sudden heat shocks the muscles and thus relieves the pain, until a doctor can examine the back and determine whether there is organic damage or not.

If there is, he must treat it. If there isn't, getting your back into shape again will probably be a job only you can do.

No Marinwood Bond Backing

Members of the Marinwood Parks and Recreation Commission last night were "noncommittal" on the proposed $4.3 million dollar county parks bond issue.

The Marinwood Community Services District Board earlier said that it was not interested in the bond proposal as all available land within the district had already been developed at the expense of district taxpayers. The parks commission is an advisory body for the district board.

Hypodermic Needles Found In Playhouse

A plastice bag containing 110 hypodermis needles, two lengths of clear plastic hose, some tubing and a pipe stem was found in an old, unused children's playhouse yesterday in Mill Valley.

The "kit" was found by Scott Bowman, 13, of 199 Tamalpais Avenue on the property of Blanche M. Hurley of 191 Tamalpais Avenue. Mrs. Hurley told police that the shed was built by neighborhood children years ago but has showed no signs of recent usage.

Frozen Meat Taken

Joseph J. Ancic told Mill Valley police last night that between Tuesday and yetserday someone entered his home at 77 Shelley Drive and stole an undetermined amount of frozen meat from his food freezer. There was no sign of forced entry, police said.

Wood Denies Asking Fulltime Pathologist

Richard F. Wood, candidate for county corner-public administrator, did not, as reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal, advocate hiring a fulltime pathologist for use by the county coroner during Radio KTIM's "Political Sounding Boards."

"If we had a fulltime pathologist, the amount of work he had would be so small in comparison, he would probably run out of practice. He might lose his ability," said Wood.

High School Youth Charged With Molest

A 16-year-old Novato High School boy was booked into Marin County Juvenile Hall last night on a charge of child molesting, according to Novato police.

The boy took a 5-year-old girl into wooded hills above Shevlin Road about 5:50 p.m. yesterday and molested her, police said.

Hunting is very popular in the rice fields of Arkansas because each year thousands of ducks come to feed on the rice.

Church Meeting Set In Marin Over Alinsky

Marin County Presbyterians will be filled in next Thursday on details of the proposal to bring controversial "slum-buster" Saul Alinsky to San Francisco and Oakland.

The meeting, which was first planned in San Rafael, will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in Duncan Hall of the First Presbyterian Church, San Anselmo.

A report in Tuesday's Independent-Journal that the meeting was to be held last night was in error.

Rev. Wesley C. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, said the meeting has been called primarily for Marin County Presbyterian leaders, but will be open to anyone.

It will, he said, deal with two questions:

1. Should Bay Area Presbyterians help residents of deprived areas in San Francisco and Oakland to organize their own community leadership?

2. If so, should this job be given to the Industrial Areas Foundation, headed by Alinsky?

Baker said the foundation is the only one of its kind and has been active in helping residents of metropolitan slum areas for nearly 30 years.

The San Francisco Presbytery, which includes Oakland, has already voted in favor of the project, and has pledged $200,000. Members of the Redwoods Presbytery, including Marin, will vote June 4 on whether to pay part of this sum.

Corte Madera Group Seeks Trees From U.C.

Directors of the Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. last night agreed to place an order for seedling pine trees with the University of California at Davis, reported President Albert Jones.

The trees will be planted on hillsides to prevent erosion and at the entrance to the Estates in connection with the town's beautification drive this month, Jones said.

Mental Health Center May Escape Federal Budget Ax

A federal stop order on assistance for community hospitals, issued yesterday will not delay design work now in progress on Marin's Community Mental Health Center, but it could delay start of construction, Dr. Clyde G. Miller said today.

Dr. Miller, director of the county's community mental health services, said the bid date on the two-story building next to Marin General Hospital was to be in July.

Yesterday's stop order on federally assisted projects under the state Short-Doyle Act, was issued by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Washington, D.C.

Secretary John W. Gardner of the department said he wanted assurance that projects would not be in areas of "concentrated construction" where costs would be inflated by the work.

Dr. Miller did not think Marin would be classified as such an area.

He said that Ellis Kaplan, architect for Marin's $1.35 million center, was told by a representative of the bureau of hospitals in California's Department of Public Health to go ahead with the work as funds were still encumbered in both state and federal budgets.

The federal government would contribute $450,000, the state another $450,000, the county would put up $150,000, the Marin Hospital District $150,000, and another $150,000 is to be raised in private contributions for the project.

Raid Leads To Arrests For Making Narcotics

A Lagunitas man and women, who allegedly operated a private narcotics-mixing plant in a small frame home, were arrested last night by state narcotics agents and sheriff's officers.

Booked for possession of narcotics and for manufacturing and use of narcotics and dangerous drugs were Eric Hoberg and Harriette Hutman Papio, both 30.

Sheriff's Inspector Kenneth Irving said he accompanied two state agents and Deputy Weldon Travis to Holberg's home on Arroyo Road about 8:50 p.m.

He said Hoberg and Mrs. Papio were there, and a search of the house turned up several pharmaceutical bottles filled with powders, two large sets of pharmacy scales, a microscope, and alleged narcotics paraphernalia.

He said the two allegedly have been making their own narcotics, but it was not known if they also have been selling the products, believed to be amphetamine.

Both remained in county jail at noon today in lieu of $5,500 bail each.

Tiburon Woman Hurt In Mishap On Highway

Mary Frances Wood, 27, of 2175A Centro East, Tiburon, was treated at Kaiser Hospital, San Francisco, yesterday after her car was hit from behind on a Highway 101 on-ramp south of Alto.

The California Highway Patrol said her car was hit by one driven by Ralph B. Rovat, 24, of 15 Marion Court, Apt. 3, San Rafael, at 7:50 a.m. She complained of hearache and a stiff neck afterward.

BETTER GET PERMITS FOR FIRES, BARBECUES

Ban on burning through Marin, including cities and unincorporated territory, will take effect May 15, according to Chief Carl Heynen of the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Protection District.

He is secretary of the Marin County Assn. of Fire Chiefs, who agreed on the date at a recent meeting. It is the same date designated by the State Division of Forestry as the start of fire season.

Burning of any type will require a permit from the local fire department. Incinerators may be used on a permit basis from 7 to 11 a.m. Outdoor barbecues will also require permits.

More than 45 festive Maytime events are on the Redwood Empire Association's calendar, available free from REA at 476 Post Street, San Francisco.

Floral displays head the list: the Anderson Valley Wildflower Show at Boonville was Sunday and Monday; the Rhododendron Festival at Ft. Bragg, tomorrow and Sunday; the Stinson Beach Wildflower community, also tomorrow and Sunday.

San Francisco's Hall of Flowers in Golden Gate Park hosts the 25th annual Spring Rose Show on Sunday and the African Violet Show, May 14-15. The Marin Garden Society schedules its annual tour in Ross on May 14. The far-famed Luther Burbank Rose Festival, with parades and exhibits, is in Santa Rosa next Friday through May 15.

Hamilton Air Force Base holds open house on Armed Forces Day, May 22. "Peer Gynt," the Mountain Play, on the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais, is May 15 and 22.

Second Camp Outing

The recently formed Bay Area Campers Club will hold its second monthly outing May 13-15 at the Hilton Resort near Rio Nido on the Russian River Frank Strom of San Rafael has announced. The three-day gathering will include games, dancing, barbecues and swimming.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

When Carpal Tunnel, Contents Swell, Misery Is The Result

VAN DELLEN

The carpal tunnel is a passageway in the wrist through which the median nerve passes on its way to the thumb and index finger. The narrow canal is bounded by bones and fibrous tissue and also contains the tendons of the flexor muscles of the hand. A bottleneck is created when any part of the tunnel or its contents swell; the nerve is the softest structure and usually suffers first.

WHEN THIS occurs the victim develops numbness, tingling, or an aching or burning sensation in the hand and fingers. This is most noticeable over the palm side of the thumb, index, and ring fingers. The distress is sporadic and usually is encountered at night when in bed.

The pain may awaken the victim from a sound sleep. Rubbing the hand, holding the arm up, or dangling it from the side of the bed usually brings temporary relief.

Others develop tingling when gripping an object. This is true of the housewife when she sews, irons, knits, or holds the steering wheel of the car.

Middle-aged women are favored. The syndrome often follows an injury or a rheumatic disorder of the wrist. Now and then the condition is traced to an infection in the ligament within the tunnel.

PSYCHIATRIC factors also play a role. Prolonged pressure on the nerve ultimately leads to weakness of the hand muscles.

Not all pain, tingling, numbness, or weakness of the hand is due to this condition. Nerve conduction tests on the nerve help to determine if the impulses are passing through normally.

Some obtain relief when the wrist is immobilized with a band or splint. Hydrocortisone, injected into the canal to reduce the swelling, helps others. Diuretics occasionally lessen the edema.

BUT SURGERY is the best remedy when there is proof that the nerve is being pressed upon and relief follows when the fibrous part of the tunnel is cut. This simple operation is performed under a local anesthetic.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

FILTERED AIR

D. writes: Some of our friends say we should not run an air conditioner when the weather is cool. They feel raising the windows for fresh air is better. My husband and I are more comfortable with filtered air. We don't like the night air or the dust from open windows. Will this harm our health?

REPLY

No. Filtered fresh air is a luxury, especially for those living in an urban area.

COLD IRRITATES

R. writes: Why do iced drinks induce coughing?

REPLY

Because cold irritates the back of the throat and stimulates the cough reflex. But this is an uncommon reaction, for most of us are able to drink ice cold liquids without being bothered in this way.

DIMINISHING HEIGHT

M. O. writes: Can an operation be performed on a young girl to decrease her height one or two inches?

REPLY

Possibly but it is easier to do with hormones provided she has not reached the age of adolescence.

INFLAMED LUNGS

K. E. R. writes: Please relate the symptoms of pneumonitis.

REPLY

These very from manifestations of simple bronchitis to those of pneumonia. Fever, cough, weakness, and loss of appetite are common.

Spaceman Bone Loss Of Calcium Controlled

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Center

WASHINGTON—One of space travel's greatest potential health hazards—loss of calcium from astronauts' bones—appears to be a smaller problem than previously feared.

The encouraging news for spacmen comes from a recent interpretation of medical data gathered during the 14-day Gemini 7 flight last December.

Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. lost "considerably less" calcium and other nutrients in X-ray measurements of their heel bones and fingertips than any other astronauts, reports Dr. Pauline Mack, a space agency experimenter. All previous astronauts had flown shorter missions.

The calcium loss from the two areas measured has ranged up to 12 per cent in some astronauts. Doctors don't agree whether such data can be extrapolated to the whole skeleton. They say that a 12 per cent loss in bone density in the heel doesn't necessarily mean that all bones lose that amount.

In fact, experiments on monkeys confined to beds for long periods show that different amounts of nutrients are lost from different parts of the skeleton.

For some time, medics believed that men spending months of relative inactivity in space could suffer broken, twisted, or soft "jelly" bones on return to Earth. Now, says Dr. Mack, "we think proper diet and exercise will take care of that."

The fact that Borman and Lovell ate and drank better and exercised more in space than other astronauts seems to account for the smaller calcium loss from their bones, Dr. Mack said.

It's still uncertain whether relative immobility of men in space or weightlessness is the major culprit in softening the bones, but it's definitely known that the greatest calcium loss was experienced by astronauts L. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad Jr., who ate only about one-third of their space food during their eight days in orbit last August.

For the first time in the U.S. space program astronauts flew in their underwear part of the mission on Gemini 7. This enabled them to move their limbs freely, exercising muscles and bones.

Prior to Gemini 7, calcium loss averaged two to three times the amount lost by healthy young volunteers confined to hospital beds for the same length of time.

The Gemini 7 finding is considered encouraging but space medics would like to see more data from additional long space flights. The exact percentage of the loss hasn't been calculated yet.

No data is yet available from a related experiment which sought to evaluate the rate and amount of calcium change in the spacemen's bodies by comparing amounts of calcium eaten in food with that excreted.

Calcium is responsible for giving bones their strength and hardness and the body contains about three pounds of it. Along with calcium, astronauts have been losing such bone nutrients as proteins and phosphorus.

Despite the encouraging Gemini 7 findings, it's still unknown whether men can safely survive months-long space trips and even extended stays on the moon where the gravity is only one-sixth that of earth's.

Baptist Prof Leaves On Trip

Elmer L. Gray, chairman of religious education at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Strawberry, left Wednesday by jet airliner for a 46-day Sunday School teaching mission in Asia.

He is one of about 50 Americans taking part in the Asia Sunday School Crusade, sponsored by the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Gray will spend 34 days in Indonesia. For three weeks of his time, he will teach Sunday School in Semarang on the island of Java. He also expects to visit Tokyo, Manila, and Hong Kong before returning June 18.

McNamara Not Worried About Flying Saucers

By MICHAEL MOSETTIG
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara isn't losing sleep over reports of unidentified flying objects.

McNamara's views of UFOs were elicited by the House Foreign Affairs Committee in March when he testified in closed session on the administration's foreign aid bill.

The testimony, recently declassified by the Pentagon, was made available recently.

McNamara said each report a UFO is thoroughly investigated by Air Force scientists. "If anything, I am inclined to think the investigations are more extensive than actually required," he said.

Despite magazine articles and pictures, McNamara said the Air Force does not place "any real credence in the reports we have received to date."

"That doesn't mean that a report tomorrow may not be sound and warrant the full investigation that we give it," the defense secretary said.

McNamara said there is no indication that magazine photographs of UFO's "are anything other than illusions."

"The condition of the viewer and the physical circumstances in the environment at the time generally create optical illusions," McNamara said explaining the reports of UFO's.

McNamara also said there have been no discussions between the United States and the Soviet Union on UFO's. He said the Soviets have not reported any sightings to the U.S. government.

Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., a committee member, said his constituents were writing many letters on the subject. Gallagher said members of Congress wanted an official denial that the UFO's were the real thing.

SANITARY GROUP COMBINE SOUGHT

But Local Agency Commission Hears Plan Needs Help From Reluctant Mill Valley

Steps toward formation of new districts in the Mill Valley area —one of them not too hopeful a step—were taken last night by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Commission Executive Officer John F. Barrows told the commission he saw little hope for creation of a Southern Marin Sanitary District that would consolidate four district systems and Mill Valley's system, unless the City of Mill Valley agreed to back it.

Mill Valley City Mgr. Bert Balmer said the city council was opposed, Barrows reported.

Nevertheless, the commission scheduled a hearing on the proposal for its June 2 meeting.

The plan, proposed by directors of Homestead Valley, Almonte and Alto sanitary districts, would take in these three districts, the city system, and the Kay Park Sewer Maintenance District operated by the county.

The little Kay Park district figured in another formation proposal for which commissioners were a little more hopeful last night.

That was the plan to create the Tamalpais Community Services District, which would encompass 6.25 square miles, go all the way to the Pacific Coast and include all of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and portions of the Almonte and Sausalito-Marin City sanitary districts, part of the Tamalpais Valley Fire Protection District, and the Tennessee Valley portion of Marincello.

Barrows recommended that the Marincello portion, where a county service area is planned, be taken from the proposal at once. This the commission agreed to do.

The commission also adopted a resolution creating a reorganization committee to study the plan, to include one representative each from Almonte and Sausalito-Marin City sanitary districts and Kay Park Sewer Maintenance District.

Proponents of the new district, members of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club who collected a petition with 209 signatures for the new district, said the main idea was to provide recreation.

The district would also provide sewer service and garbage collection. It would not replace the fire district, because it would not offer fire protection.

Gale Bishel, a director of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and one of the signers of the petition, said he could foresee the time when the area would be served by a larger sewer plant on the Pacific Coast.

The Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District now contracts with Sausalito-Marin City for disposal of sewage. This means, Barrows told commissioners, that Kay Park Sewer Maintinance District's lines "practically cross" those of Tamalpais Valley. Kay Park sewage goes into Mill Valley's plant.

Commissioners had hopes that creation of a large CSD district might correct this situation.

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, a member of the commission, said the proposed Community Services district presented an "opportunity of tremendous value," but he said the politics would be extremely difficult.

The committee is to report on the merits of the proposal by August.

U.C. Senior Found Dead Near Bolinas

A 25-year-old senior at University of California in Berkeley was found dead in her car on Arroyo Canyon Road near Bolinas yesterday.

A garden hose had been taped to the exhaust pipe and led into the car through the left front window.

Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton said the woman, Penelope Dell Carr, had died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

No suicide note was found, but authorities said Miss Carr had been under psychiatric care.

The body was discovered at 7:30 a.m. by Edward Genazzi, an employee of the Bolinas Water District, who spotted her car on the road three miles north of Bolinas at the edge of Point Reyes National Seashore.

The coroner's office made no report on the discovery when checked yesterday morning by the Independent-Journal. Coroner Keaton, who reported it in the afternoon, said his office staff did not know about it.

Big Induction Jump Slated For July Call

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has called for the induction of 26,500 men in July. This is 11,500 above the June quota, but about 8,000 below the number being inducted in May.

All the July draftees will serve in the Army. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force did not draw on the draft for July manpower requirements.

Former Premier Asks U.S. Move

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Tran Van Huu, a premier of South Viet Nam in the days of Emperor Bao Dai, suggests that the first move toward peace there must come from the United States.

Huu, 70, has lived in Paris the last 11 years. Winding up a month's visit to the United States, he told an interviewer this week:

"I am sure that if the Americans stopped the war, the others would too. The call to a truce can come only from the mightiest, the smallest cannot call for a truce. But if the mightiest called for a truce, the others would follow."

Motel Liquor Theft Value Totals $1,800

Thirty cases of choice liquors, with a wholesale value of $1,800, were stolen yesterday from the Bermuda Palms Motel at 737 Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael.

Motel owner Irving Litchfield, who discovered the theft at 11 a.m., said it must have occurred between the bar's 2 a.m. closing and dawn.

The burglars, Litchfield said, pried open the rear door to his office, then forced the door to the liquor storage room. The office safe—which was blown open a year ago when $5,000 was taken—was untouched. A crowbar was found in the office.

"There had to be a truck and more than one man to move all that liquor," Litchfield said. "But," he added, "I've been robbed so often, I've gotten immune. I've had 25 TV sets and I don't know how much linen stolen. I'd like to catch someone once, though."

Among the liquor stolen were cases of Jim Beam, Jack Daniels and V.O. bourbons; Inverness House, King George and Cutty Sark scotches; 10 cases of vodka and gin and a case each of Canadian Club and mixed cognacs.

Youth Arraigned On Lewd Charge

William Duncan Lindley, 20, of 101 H Street, San Rafael, arrested Wednesday by San Anselmo police, was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on a felony charge of lewd and lascivious behavior with a 13-year-old boy.

Judge Peter Allen Smith set bail at $1,100 and scheduled plea entry this afternoon.

Lindley, who said he was "on leave" from College of Marin, allegedly committed the offense in San Anselmo March 11.

Tiboron Fire Budget Sets 12-Cent Increase In Tax

The Tiburon Fire District board last night adopted a preliminary budget for fiscal 1967 that may call for a 12-cent increase in the tax rate.

The board will vote on the final budget at its next meeting, June 2 at 8 p.m. at the Tiburon fire station.

The preliminary budget, totalling $179,056.98, shows an expected increase in the tax rate from 58 cents to 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation, based on a 5 per cent increase in assessed valuation.

The budget shows $78,165 for salaries, a figure that includes a 5 per cent raise for employees. Other major budget items are $17,850 for maitnenance. $40,000 in reserve, and $43,041.98 for capital outlay. The capital outlay figure includes the final payment of $22,000 on Station 2.

The board also elected new officers. James P. Jenkins was elected president; Fred Mantegani, vice president, and George Drejes, secretary.

Galvanizing Fluid Blast Burns Worker

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—One workman was critically burned and another severely injured last night when a fluid exploded at San Francisco Galvanizing Co.

San Francisco General Hospital said Manuel Reygosa, 25, was critically burned by the fluid. His working companion, Conrad Stephens, 36, was in serious condition.

Committee On Peace Formed By Council

NEW YORK (UPI) —The National Council of Churches has expanded its international affairs program with creation of a permanent Advisory Committee on Peace to coordinate, explore, promote and participate in global peace moves.

The committee, which will begin operations July 1, will be headed by the Rev. Dr. Robert S. Bilheimer, senior minister at Central Presbyterian Church, Rochester, N.Y., and former World Council of Churches' program secretary for North America.

Department Store Worker Jumps From Gate Bridge

A 26-year-old San Francisco department store employee jumped to his death from the Golden Gate Bridge shortly after 2 p.m. yesterday.

The California Highway Patrol said he was Ferdinand Paul Pechin Jr. of San Francisco, who lived alone in an apartment and had no known survivor.

A bridge painter, Ralph Disharown, said he saw the man climb over a railing 50 feet south of the one he was painting on the east walkway. Pechin jumped before Disarown was able to run to the spot.

The Coast Guard found the body five minutes later.

San Francisco authorities said Pechin left a note in his apartment asking that his body go to a medical school. It requested that the proceeds of an insurance policy go to the San Francisco Boys Club and his other possessions to the Society of Friends.

Highway patrol figures show Pechin as the 302nd known suicide from the bridge.

Prisoners Not Helpful In Stabbing

Fourteen closed mouths at San Quentin Prison today were frustrating attempts by prison authorities to discover the killer or killers of convict Manuel Anthony Zamora, 25, stabbed to death Tuesday.

Officials continued questioning 14 men who were among the group of 25 who shielded the stabbing from guards as it took place near the linen room.

If the men under suspicion knew anything, they weren't saying. "It appears they are not giving anything away at the moment," said Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

Motive for the murder of Zamora, a convicted robber from Los Angeles County, remained a mystery. A knife-like instrument, which could have been the murder weapon, has been found but not yet traced to an inmate.

More Tax Delays On Withholding

WASHINGTON (UPI) —More people than usual fell behind on their taxes last year as an indirect result of underwithholding in 1964.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said yesterday more than 1 million taxpayers ended 1965 owing the government a total of $1.3 billion. The number of delinquent taxpayers was up 17 per cent and the amount of unpaid money increased by 7 per cent over the previous year.

The IRS attributed most of the increases to the five-month extension many taxpayers were given beyond the April 15 filing deadline to pay taxes for 1964. Many taxpayers were underwithheld in 1964 because the big tax cut bill of that year cut the withholding rate faster than the tax rate.

Stinson Beach Wildflower Show Opens Tomorrow

Stinson Beach will be the site of the Ninth Annual Wildflower Show tomorrow and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., in the Community Center.

Flower show founders, Mrs. Arthur Menzies, Mrs. Kenneth Shockey and Mrs. Edward E. Leary, were to return today from collection trips over much of the state.

A feature display of this year's show will be shrubs from Mount Tamalpais. The display is being prepared by Arthur L. Menzies, superintendent of plant accessions at Strybing Arburetum in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

Admission will be charged visitors. Tea will be served.

District Attorney Seeks Old LSD Bill

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 31 Los Angeles County assemblymen are being urged by Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger to take floor action to restore to original form a bill outlawing possession of LSD, a drug embodying hallucinatory qualities.

Younger criticized Thursday the assembly's criminal procedures committee action that deleted from SB 6 the clause outlawing possession. He said that as the bill now stands it merely gives stiff penalties for its sale, and its possession for sale.

Governor Will Sign Molotov Cocktail Law

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rioting in the Watts district of South Los Angeles last August has inspired a new law.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown said he will sign today a bill providing stiff penalties for possession of fire bombs or Molotov cocktails, and making it illegal to assault or interfere with a fireman in the performance of his duties.

Exhibitionist Is Doubtful For The Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Exhibitionist, owned by Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs, became a doubtful starter today for tomorrow's Kentucky Derby and Sean E. Indian was all but counted out of the line-up.

Exhibitionist injured his nose, probably in his stall, sometime during the night. There was no sign of serious infection and trainer Hirsch Jacobs said the injury may well clear up before the 2:30 p.m., PDT post time tomorrow.

Meantime, owner-trainer Mrs. Mary Keim and Dr. Alex Harthill, veterinarian, said it was very doubtful if Sean E Indian would start. The son of Seanee injured his right leg sometime yesterday before 16 horses were entered in the 1¼-mile race.

In fact, Sean E Indian was so doubtful that trainer Jim Padgett took steps to secure Earlie Fires, down to ride Sean E Indian, as the jockey for Blue Skyer, a last-minute entry.

Bill Shoemaker, trying to become the first jockey in 64 years to ride two Kentucky derby winners in a row, will climb aboard the pre-race favorite, Abe's Hope tomorrow.

A field of 16, including two questionable starters, were entered yesterday, each adding $500 to the Derby pot. If all start, the 1¼-mile classic will gross $164,000. If any drop out, its starting fee of $1,000 will be subtracted from the total.

Second choice at 7-2 before the betting starts was shared by Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Stupendous, carrying the colors of the Wheatley Stable, and Kauai King, owned by Michael J. Ford of Omaha.

Reginald Webster's Amberoid, the winner of the Wood Memorial, was next at 6-1.

Shoemaker, beginning to grey a little at 34, will be starting in his 15th Derby, more than any other active rider. The retired Eddie Arcaro holds the all-time record with 21 appearances and six winners.

Shoemaker has won three times, including last year with Lucky Debonair. Just being in the race, he says, still is the biggest thrill in his life.

"It's like a golfer being in the Masters Tournament," Shoemaker said. "Sure, you get excited."

The last jockey to ride consecutive Derby winners was Jimmy Winfield in 1901-02.

Still in doubt as Derby starters are Sean E Indian, with a bothersome leg scratch, and Blue Skyer.

"They just talked to me into entering," trainer Jim Padgett said after he pulled a surprise and made Blue Skyer the last entry in the box.

Padgett, sounding very doubtful, said Ray Broussard will be his jockey "if we really start."

Sean E Indian may not go because of a slight leg injury.

3 New Records In Marin Track Trials

Three Class A league records were shattered in yesterday's field portion of the Marin Athletic League track and field trials at Drake High School, San Anselmo. Track events were scheduled today, 4 p.m. at Drake.

Drake's Doug Manuel tossed the discus 53 feet, 5½ inches, breaking his own record of 53-2½, established last year; Redwood vaulter Jeff Hicks soared 12-10, erasing the old league mark of 12-9¼; and big Gary Wittenmeier of Marin Catholic made another by busting his own mark in the discus, eclipsing last year's toss of 142-5½ with a 143-0.

All events had eight qualifiers with the exception of the shot-put which had nine because of errors made by meet officials in listing the order in which each boy finished. The errors were discovered when Novato shotputter Ron Sparling insisted he hadn't qualified because he had been beaten out for eight place. His honesty, combined with the officials' errors, made him a qualifier.

Qualifiers and best heights and distances:

Shot Put—Manuel (D), Beerbower (S.R.), Rowe (R), Wittenmeier (M.C.), Hickerson (D), Borges (T.L.), Gagen (S.R.), Sparling (N), Dukes (T.L.), 53-5½ (new league record; old record 53-2½ set by Doug Manuel last year).

Long Jump — Jackson (T), Turner (T), Blasingame (T), Swanson (S.R.), Banks (T.L.), Howell (R), Johnson (N), Heisler (S.R.), 22-½.

Pole Vault — Hicks (R), Loback (T.L.), Dondero (R), Stewart (N), Fontana (R), Sauber (N), Widmer (S.R.), Salum 12-10 (new league record; old record, 12-9¼).

Discus — Wittenmeier (M.C.), Bortfield (S.R.), Otis (N), Scott (R), Gagen (S.R.), Dukes (T.L.), Tobiason (R), Sthymmill (T.L.), 143-0 (new league record; old record, 142-5½, set by Gary Wittenmeier last year).

High Jump—Stark (T), Palmer (N), Balzan (S.R.), Lennahan (M.C.), Adams (T), Cole (R), Bowman (T), Arnsberg (T.L.), 5-8.

HOW THE WESTWOOD WAS WON:

Them as has, gits.

It's like giving Rockefeller a dime. Or Doda a shot of silly cone.

What I mean is, Marin's finest athlete is going Hollywood. Well, not really; I mean Dean Lazzarini is going to UCLA, which is in Westwood, just a short Rolls-Royce drive from Hollywood.

The sensational gridder-sprinter announced last night "I'm 95 per cent sure of going to UCLA. I'll sign my letter of intent either tonight or tomorrow."

DINO THE LAZZ reached his decision after carefully studying oodles of scholarship offers. He visited four campuses, turning down four more invitations from the Big 10 because "It's too far from home," and settled on UCLA because of its "tremendous athletic program."

Like I said five paragraphs ago, UCLA is loaded with talent. Lew Alcindor was the Bruins' prize basketball catch and, according to Lazzarini, "they've got a great freshman football team coming in, I understand." All UCLA sports are riding high.

A PORTION of that frosh grid squad will be the Drake High senior who has wowed Marin grid and track fans for three years, gaining more publicity for San Anselmo since Carmel Booth.

Dean seriously considered Washington and Cal. "I really like Washington; their coach, Jim Owens, is great," he said, "but all that rain up there discouraged me. Cal's coaching staff impressed me, but Berkeley is too close to home. When you go to college you want some independence.

"UCLA IS just right—not too near, not too far. I won't be able to run home anytime I feel like it, yet it's close enough so I can come home on holidays. And my folks will be able to see me play. One of the reasons I turned down the Big 10 was it's just too far from home."

Dean said he would concentrate on football at UCLA, although his 9.6 clocking in the 100-yard dash would suggest a track future. "I'm just not too hot for track," he smiled. "Football is my sport," which is saying a mouth full.

DEAN MADE these comments at last night's Radio KTIM Sportsman's Club's banquet honoring the two top athletes from each of the seven schools in the Marin Athletic League. (See photo, page 40.)

In spite of a stirring patriotic speech by Maj. Gen. Andrew Lolli, commander of the Western Air Defense Command, not one of the 14 top athletes expressed a desire to enter the military. Tam's Ken Blasingame, however, said he planned to major in Military Science. At Cal, which is 3,000 miles from West Point.

If you'll be kind enough to tune in tomorrow I'll cue you in on the future plans of the cream of Marin's athletic crop. Pretty please.

OOPS!—This was the play that gave the Giants a 9-8 victory over the Dodgers at Candlestick Park yesterday. Los Angeles outfielder Tommy Davis chased a fly ball off the bat of Jimmy Hart and—BINGO—he dropped the wind-blown missile, allowing Ollie Brown to score the winning run in the 10th inning. Wind A Big Help In Win Over L.A.

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Candlestick Park's capricious winds deserve some of the credit for the virtual first place tie held in the National League today by the San Francisco Giants as they headed away from home.

The Giants completed a three-game sweep over the Los Angeles Dodgers yesterday while the Pittsburgh Pirates lost to Cincinnati.

So San Francisco stands 15-7 for the young season and Pittsburgh 13-6. In percentages, the Pirates lead by .002, but on the basis of games won and lost, the Giants hold a half game edge.

Los Angeles left for Cincinnati and San Francisco for St. Louis and games tonight. Neither will soon forget the vagaries of the breezes in their latest meeting, an untidy session including six errors. One was by the Giants' Willie Mays, his first of the season.

The Giant won 9-8 in the 10th inning when Dodger center fielder Willie Davis dropped a line drive by Jim Hart which scored Ollie Brown from second base.

"That ball just stopped in the wind," declared Davis who was charged with an error on the play.

Just the inning before, Len Gabrielson slammed a hit that sailed past Davis for a double and the harassed defender explained, "The wind carried that ball."

Mays, who plays the same position, didn't blame the weather for his error but commented:

"Whatever he said about the wind, believe him. It was doing all kinds of things out there. I couldn't even explain to you what it was doing."

Brown, San Francisco's rookie right fielder, said, "Every minute the wind was changing. Every pitch you had to look to see which way it was blowing."

Still, winning pitcher Bob Priddy said there was virtually no breeze on the inner diamond when he hurled the final frame.

The Giants jumped on Dodger ace southpaw Sandy Koufax and held a 7-0 lead by the end of the second inning when Koufax already had departed for the locker room.

The Giants can't blame the wind for blowing the lead but by the bottom of the fifth the score was tied. San Francisco starter Bob Bolin allowed just three hits prior to his departure, but each was a homer — a two-run poke by Wes Parker and solos by Ron Fairly and Lou Johnson.

Davis robbed Hart in the sixth when he leaped above the fence in left center to haul down a drive. Then the Dodgers drew ahead in the eighth aided by a pair of errors on one play.

The Giants tied it again in the bottom of the inning on singles by Jack Hiatt, Davenport and Brown as the wind whipped debris around the park.

Heading away from the Candlestick breezes, the Giants send Gaylord Perry to the mound tonight opposing Bob Gibson while rookie Don Sutton goes for the Dodgers against the Reds' Milt Pappas.

Canadiens Win Playoffs

DETROIT (AP)—For the first time in his life, Henri Richard knows exactly how his big brother felt when he scored six overtime goals in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

His brother, Maurice (The Rocket), remains five up on him but the goal Henri scored last night has to be the biggest of his life. It gave the Montreal Canadiens an overtime 3-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings and a second straight Cup.

The Canadiens became only the second team in the 40-year modern history of the Cup to win it after dropping the first two games in the best-of-7 series. Montreal won four games in a row in gaining its 12th Cup championship.

Richard, bothered by a leg injury during the semifinals, did not score a goal in the playoffs until he put on the red light at the 2:20 mark of the overtime session.

"Dave Balon shot the puck across to me and someone grabbed my stick and the puck hit me and went in," Richard said.

He added that someone else should be basking in the glory of getting the winning marker.

"It should have been someone like J.C. Tremblay of Jean Beliveau, who played well all through the series that should have got the goal, not me," he said. "But don't get me wrong. I'm glad I did".

Detroit goalie Roger Crozier, who was named the Most Valuable Player in the playoffs, had a different version of the game-winner.

"Richard was flat on the ice and he knocked the puck in with his glove," Crozier said. "I protested to referee Frank Udvari but he said the puck was in and that was that."

Red Wings' Manager-Coach Sid Abel said his only regret was that the series had to be decided on a flukey goal rather than a good, clean hard shot.

Montreal Coach Toe Blake, who has now won seven Stanley Cups, explained he was confident of victory after the Canadiens won the third game to cut Detroits' lead to 2-1.

"Beliveau was the big guy for us that night and he has been one of our joys ever since," Blake said.

"They outplayed us but we still won," Blake continued, pointing out the 30-22 shooting edge held by the Red Wings. "It's the goals that count."

Neither Blake nor Detroit defenseman Bill Gadsby announced plans for retirement. Both had been rumored as ready to call it quits after the series.

"I'm not sure...I want to talk with Abel and Bruce Norris (club owner) in the next couple of weeks," Gadsby said.

Beliveau opened the scoring at the 9:08 mark of the first period and Leon Rochefort scored the Canadiens' second goal midway throught the second period.

Norm Ullman of Detroit tipped in Alex Delvecchio's shot from the point soon after Rochefort's goal and Floyd Smith of the Red Wings scored with 9:30 to go in the third period to send it into the overtime.

Ullman topped all scorers in the playoffs with 15 points on six goals and nine assists.

Champs Golf Again Is Washed Out

HOUSTON (AP) — Rain washed out the $117,000 Champions International Golf tournament for the second straight day today.

The first round of the 72 hole tournament now is scheduled to start tomorrow.

Bob Rule, executive secretary of the sponsoring Houston Golf Assn., said plans now call for 18 hole rounds tomorrow through Tuesday.

"Tuesday is absolutely the last day we can play here," Rule said. "The players have committments to play next week in the New Orleans Open.

"We hope we can get in 36 holes Saturday and Sunday. Then we can cut the field for the final 36 holes and play the final two rounds on the same day if the weather demands."

After three days and two nights of almost continuous rain, water was standing in the fairways and on the greens.

Clearing skies were forecast for Saturday.

Lanky Bobby Jennings has been named to ride the Sunrise Stable's Switchback, the second high weight at 119. Sunrise also has Ask Father in the race with 112 pounds.

THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Boccabella Stars But Cubbies Lose

John Boccabella, former San Anselmo Little Leager who grew up into a big leager, was a one-man gang for the Chicago Cubs last night, but his batting heroics went for naught as the hapless Cubs bowed to the Houston Astros, 4-3 in a 13-inning thriller at Houston.

Playing first base, just one of three positions in his utility repertoir (he's also a catcher and outfielder), Boccabella drove across all the Cub runs on a homer with one on in the fifth inning and a double in the seventh that knocked in Ron Santo with the tying run.

Boccabella's homer was his first of the year. He was two for five in the game that the Astros finally won in the 13th inning when Joe Morgan and Jim Wynn singled around an infield out.

Elsewhere on the major league scene yesterday, San Francisco beat Los Angeles 9-8 in 10 innings (story on page 39), Atlanta edged Philadelphia 4-3 and Cincinnati walloped Pittsburgh 10-6.

In the American League the Cleveland Indians shut out New York 4-0 and California blanked Kansas City 1-0.

The Braves pulled ahead of the Phillies with a two-run seventh inning produced on a double by Denis Menke, Felipe Alou's single and a double by Hank Aaron. Joe Torre hit his seventh homer for the Braves and Lee Thomas hit his sixth, while Tony Taylor connected for the Phillies.

The Reds outslugged the Pirates with Don Pavletich and Pete Rose hammering homers and Leo Cardenas driving in three runs with a pair of singles. Joey Jay, tagged for homers by Roberto Clemente, Jim Pagliaroni and Jesse Gonder, got credit for the victory and became Cincinnati's first two-game winner.

Laguna Seca Race Set This Weekend

MONTEREY (AP) — Qualifying starts today for the big Laguna Seca sports car race, a wide open event this year.

No clear cut favorite has emerged for Sunday's 150-mile feature, the third in the current series of United States Road Racing Championships.

A full series of regional amateur races will go tomorrow over the 1.9-mile course with its nine turns on the tip of Ft. Ord. In addition to the big race Sunday, there will be the regional finals and a special event for sedans.

John Cannon, winner in the first USRRC race this year at Las Vegas, Nev., and Buck Fulp, the Riverside winner last weekend, are on hand. Cannon drives television star Dan Blocker's Nickey Chervolet. Fulp pilots a Lola-Chevy.

The two USRRC point leaders also will appear. They are Chuck Parsons of nearby Carmel in a Genie Mark 10 and Skip Hudson of Riverside in a Lola-Chevy.

A total of 24 cars will advance from the qualifying today to the Sunday feature. Nine more entries will emerge from a short qualifying race Sunday.

Included in the late qualifying is Bill Amick of Portland, Ore., the 1965 late model stock car champion. He'll drive the untriedMcLaren-Comet in his first attempt at big time sports car racing.

Perhaps the oldest driver on the circuit, 59-year-old Briggs Cunningham, will try to qualify a Porsche 904. If successful, the Los Angeles senior citizen will let alternate Scooter Patrick drive the car in the race.

Drivers will fight for an overall purse of $15,500 with $2,500 to the winner and $1,700 for the runner-up.

Fulp beat Hudson at Riverside by less than a second. A McLaren-Chevy driven by Maryland's Charlie Hayes couldn't finish because of a faulty rear end.

JFK Soccer Trophy Up For Grabs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two California teams, one from San Salvador and one from Canada, will compete this weekend for the John F. Kennedy Cup, emblematic of the Pacific Coast soccer championship.

The Vancouver Firefighters will meet San Francisco Select in a 1 p.m. game tomorrow at Balboa Stadium. The Deportio Universidad Club of San Salvador meets Los Angeles Select in a 4 p.m. contest.

The winners play Sunday at 3 p.m. for the cup, given by the late President five years ago when the tournament began. The Saturday losers play in the preliminary contest on Sunday.

The Firefighters have a 20-1 record. Deportivo defeated Santos Club of Brazil for the Latin American championship. Pele, the Willie Mays of soccer, plays for Santos. The California squads are all-star teams.

REC SOFTBALL

Gary Swarm aided his own cause by slamming two home runs and driving across four runs as he pitched Sohner Tree Service to a 12-0 victory over Indian Valley Lumber Co. last night in the San Rafael Recreation Department's Class A Softball League at Albert Field.

In the other scheduled game, Cain Tires won by forfeit over the Larkfield Merchants of Santa Rosa.

Two neuro-surgeons were called in yesterday but no surgery was performed.

Maury Wills Was Extravagant In His Prediction For L.A. Dodgers

HANLEY

Most pre-season predictions about the 1966 National League baseball race were on the conservative side. One, however, was a bit extravagant. Maury Wills said at the outset of the race that the Dodgers "could run away and hide."

No National League team has been able to do that in the past decade and the way the current race is going, no club has displayed an ability to do it this year.

ON THE SAME day Wills was predicting a potential Dodger runaway, Herman Franks was declaring: "You can throw a blanket over half a dozen teams. I wouldn't think of trying to predict the outcome."

As the first month of the campaign nears an end, it is possible to throw a blanket over half a dozen teams but one of them is not Cincinnati. The Reds, without Frank Robinson, are off to their shakiest start in years and Bill DeWitt who traded the big belter to the Orioles for Milt Pappas, is hearing about that trade from Crosley Field fans.

THE QUICK getaway of the Pirates this year is in marked contrast to the way they started the 1965 campaign. A year ago the Pirates could win only nine of their first 33 games and by May 20 were 13½ games off the pace, even four behind the Mets, in the National League cellar.

Then Pittsburgh won 19 of their next 20 games and the Pirates were back in the race but ultimately finished No. 3 behind the Dodgers and Giants.

The admirable 1965 comeback of the Pirates was the primary reason they got top ratings this year.

ALTHOUGH THE Pirates had their early season problems last year, the Giants were not one of them. Of the nine Pirate wins in the first 33 games last season, three were against the Giants who just couldn't handle the Pirates in 1965. The Pirates couldn't win a pennant for themselves but kept the Giants from winning one by beating them 11-7 over the season's 18 games.

THE BRAVES and the Phillies, among the top rated six, thus far have justified the preseason crystal ball gazing. The Braves looked like pennant winners on their first visit to Candlestick Park when they twice belted the Giants into submission, hitting six homers in two games.

Then the Braves were helpless in bowing to the Astros in their new Atlanta home. It's very puzzling how such things can happen but that's baseball in the National League where it is extremely precarious to make extravagant predictions.

EVEN MAYS WATCHED THIS ONE

Willie Mays watches the flight of the ball after tying into Claude Osteen's change up Wednesday night at Candlestick Park. Being the homer that established a new record (512) in the National League, even Mays wanted to see the ball clear the rightfield fence.

In addition to his certificate and national champion's emblem, Holton will receive a framed certificate as the best lifter in the 14-15 age group.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Unlucky Players Can Win More By Forgetting About Guessing

Some people are so unlucky that they could not guess what day of the week it is even if you gave them seven chances.

Don't despair if you belong in this unfortunate group. You'll do better in some hands if you don't guess at all.

Opening lead — ◇ K

West took his top diamond and led a third diamond. Declarer discarded a club, cashed the ace of hearts and let the jack of hearts ride for a finesse.

LOSS TO QUEEN

This lost to the queen, much to South's annoyance. He could have saved the heart trick if he had guessed the hearts the other way.

West returned a trump, and South had to guess who held the queen of clubs.

Using what he called his brain, South decided that both of the missing queens were not likely to be dealt to the same opponent. For this "reason," he finessed through East for the queen of clubs.

This finesse lost also, and South was down one. South is still screaming about his bad luck, but it would be a mistake to listen to him.

GOOD ODDS

The odds were better than two to one that the five missing trumps would be divided three-to-two. If so, there was no need for South to guess about either queen.

South should take the second round of trumps with the king instead of letting the jack ride as a finesse.

This leaves only the queen out against him.

THREE SPADES

Declarer runs the three spades and then leads a trump to give up a trick to the queen.

Any return will then give him his contract.

A club return gives declarer a free finesse. Any other return allows dummy to ruff while South discards another club.

Either way, the game is safe.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ 8 6 4
♥ Q 5 3
♦ A K 4 2
♣ Q 7 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

With 11 points in high cards, you are too strong for a raise to two hearts but not strong enough for a jump to three hearts.

Bid a side suit first and raise the hearts later to suggest the intermediate strength of your hand.

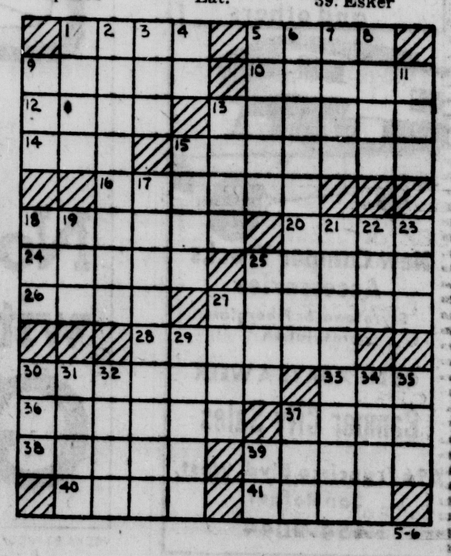
Yesterday's Answer



Experts Arguing Why Wall Street Shudders

NEW YORK (UPI) —The stock market took its biggest one day plunge yesterday singe the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963 with across-the-board losses of nearly two per cent and deficits up to 20 points on the glamor issues.

Brokers hesitated to give any sweeping explanations for the sharp decline, but two theories semed to prevail:

The market's nervous behavior was a reflection of apparent uncertainty among government officials over how to meet the mounting threat of inflation in the face of the "guns or butter" controversy triggered by the war in Viet Nam.

An announcement by General Motors Corp., the nation's largest industrial firm, that it was cutting automobile production by about 100,000 units at some of its plants because of an inventory surplus.

Whatever the cause, the name of the game was selling on Wall Street yesterday. The trading was so brisk high-speed tickers fell 10 minutes behind transactions on the floor at one point, and were still seven minutes behind when the final gong brought an end to the day's activity.

The United Press International stock market indicator showed a loss of 1.93 per cent for the 1,442 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Losers overwhelmed gainers, 1,083 to 18.

Dow-Jones industrial average dropped 15.09 to 899.77.

Those who felt that confusion among government officials on the inflation issue was chiefly to blame for Thursday's tailspin pointed to conflicting statements made this week by Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler and Federal Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin.

Fowler said yesterday that economic trends still do not warrant an anti-inflationary tax increase.

Martin, chairman of the quasi-independent reserve board, said Wednesday night across-the-board increase in corporate and personal income taxes was the logical way" to deal with current inflationary problems.

Pollution Control Man To Conference

SAN FRANCISCO—Robert S. Cramer, staff specialist on pollution control for the Standard Oil Company of California, Western Operations, Inc., has been appointed National Assn. of Manufacturers' representative on the steering committee for the National Conference on Air Pollution.

The confereence, called by John Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, will be held in Washington, D.C., Dec. 11-14.

Stock Market Closes Mixed; Trading Heavy

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today, wiping out all or most of the decline on average which — at its worst—matched or exceeded yesterday's plunge.

Trading was heavy. A huge buying wave swept the market.

The recovery drive was sparked by a published report that General Motors said all its plants would resume normal operations Monday.

GM common snapped back from a 2-point drop and was showing a fractional gain in the final minutes.

Gains of 3 or 4 points were shown by United and Eastern Airlines, Boeing and Chicago and North Western.

Here was the picture near the close:

Volume for the day was estimated at 12.3 million shares compared with 10.09 million yesterday.

Stocks declined from the start but losses were cut by mid-day and an increasing number of issues were showing gains. Losers still outnumbered gainers by about 3 to 1 when the recovery stalled—then selling increased as stocks sank to their lows of the day.

Another stiff loss was in the making as IBM sank nearly 17 points, Zenith and Eastern Air Lines 3, Xerox 11, Polaroid 4½, Texas Instruments 6 or more.

General Motrs was down between 1 or 2 points, touching new lows.

Chicago and North Western converted a 3-point recovery into a loss exceeding a point. Other recoveries by high-flying issues melted away.

Brokers said the fresh wave of selling arose from disappointment over failure of a rally to develop.

Sperry Rand, very actively traded, was ahead for the position of most active stock, showing a loss of a bout a point.

Losses of a point or more by key stocks such as Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, Air Reduction, New York Central, Goodyear and United Aircraft pulled the averages down to big losses. General Electric dropped more than 2.

TESTIMONY OF TORTURE

Romanian Lutheran clergyman Rev. Richard Wurmbrand gestures emotionally (above), and then removes part of his garb to show scars he says resulted from tortures while imprisoned 14 years by communists in his homeland. State Report Flays U.C. As 'Center For Reds'

Deviates, Narcotics Decried

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A State Senate committee today charged that under University of California President Clark Kerr the UC Berkeley campus has turned into a Communist haven and a center for sexual deviation.

In a second consecutive slap at Kerr, the Senate Fact-Finding Committee on Un-American Activities also said he was instrumental in the re-hiring of a teacher who the committee said lied about former Communist connections when he took the state's loyalty oath.

Kerr immediately labeled the report inaccurate and said it contained "distortions, half truths, inaccuracies and statements and situations taken out of context."

His five-point statement in reply to the report said, "The University of California has a policy against the employment of members of the Communist Party. I voted for this policy as a faculty member in 1949. I have supported it ever since. The report does not name a single one of the over 50,000 employes of the University as a current Communist party member."

Calling the Berkeley campus the "pivotal base" for the anti Viet Nam war movement in the United States, the committee said Communists or Red sympathizers who first gained power in the "free speech" uprisings of 1964 had grabbed control of the antiwar Viet Nam Day Committee.

The 153-page report, issued as an almost unprecedented supplement to the committee's 1965 report, also raps Kerr for allowing students and non-students to make use of university facilities to support off-campus political causes.

Much of the report is devoted to an attempted rebuttal of

Stock Market Keeps Falling After GM Cut

President Silently Watching Economy From Texas Ranch

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stocks continued their plunge today, involving about 85 per cent of all issues on the market in the worst decline since 1963.

President Johnson today faced a touchy problem of what, if anything, to say about stock market reaction to an announced cutback in automobile production.

The Chief Executive was spending the weekend at his Johnson City ranch and for the time being, maintained watchful silence on the national economy.

FAST TRADE

The United Press International stock market indicator showed a loss of 0.91 per cent for the 1,078 issues traded in the first 30 minutes at the New York Stock Exchange. The across-the-board loss yesterday —the biggest one-day rout since President Kennedy's assassination—amounted to nearly 2 per cent.

Two million shares were traded in the first half hour this morning. There was some bargain hunting in several glamor issues which slipped 20 points in yesterday's selling. Further cautionary selling and bargain hunting appeared likely during the balance of the day.

TWO FACTORS

Brokers hesitated to give any sweeping explanations for the sharp decline yesterday, but two major factors clearly played a part in the selling which climaxed two weeks of nervous decline.

Johnson on Wednesay at a White House labor-management conference spoke of certain "disquieting signs" in the economy. One such sign became clearly evident yesterday as the New York stock market pitched and heaved over news that General Motors was cutting back production in four assembly plant.

BOLINAS HARBOR NIPPED BY ARMY

Engineers' Report Reduces Possibility Of Federal Funds For Long-Sought Project

The Army Corps of Engineers today scotched hopes for development of Bolinas Lagoon as a "harbor of refuge" with federal funds.

The corps, in a review decision announced by Brig. Gen. E. E. Wilhoyt Jr., South Pacific Division engineer, declared improvements are not recommended on Bolinas channel and lagoon.

Wilhoyt said both the South Pacific Division and the San Francisco District of the Corps of Engineers "found a lack of economic justification and insufficient financial capability of local interests to meet requirements of cooperation."

Development of the harbor has been the goal of the Bolinas Harbor District Board.

Gene W. McDaniel, board president, said today, "We hope we might have some new information before this is finalized in Washington that will permit us to leave the door open."

The door was left open a crack in General Wilhoyt's report. He said interested persons may present written views on the report to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, Tempo C Building, Second and Q streets, Washington, D.C., by June 6. "Information submitted should be new, specific in nature, and bear directly on the findings of the report," he said.

The harbor district had hoped for federal participation in a development estimated to cost $5.5 million without a breakwater.

McDaniel said the corps' decision is based on the premise that a breakwater is necessary to offset littoral drift.

"Our people don't think the drift is of enough significance to make a breakwater necessary." He said the breakwater has been estimated to cost $6 million. It is the stumbling block in a feasibility study due to the high cost," McDaniel declared.

The harbor district board is

Reds Block Help For U.S. Prisoners

GENEVA (UPI) —The International Red Cross said today the Communists are blocking every effort to get help through to American prisoners of war in Viet Nam.

The statement was made by IRC President Samuel Gonard in talks with U.S. presidential envoy W. Averell Harriman who told newsmen nothing could be arranged "at the present time" for any exchange of POWs.

Gonard said the Viet Nam Communists have refused so far to comply with the Geneva war conventions on prisoners but that the Red Cross is doing all it can to ensure humane treatment for the POW.

Harriman left afterward for home to report to President Johnson on his 45 minute meeting with Gonard. He said the United States is grateful to the Red Cross for its efforts.

Harriman planned to fly to Washington in the afternoon. He later will report directly to President Johnson on his talks with the head of the private all-Swiss organization.

Harriman said America is "most anxious" to obtain the humane treatment for U.S. war prisoners as laid down by the 1949 Geneva agreements.

"This hasn't been done so far," he said. "This treatment includes arranging the exchange of mail and packages, and receiving reports on conditions."

A Red Cross official later said flatly that the Communists are far from contemplating any prisoner exchange.

Harriman said there are more than 200 American servicemen listed as missing in Viet Nam. Only 33 are known to be prisoners of war he said.

MYSTERY ATTACK IN NOVATO HOME

Intruder Preys On Family Earlier Burned Out Of Home Twice; Husband Chases Man

Someone attempted to kill a Novato woman is she dozed in her bed early this morning, hitting her over the head with a blunt instrument, police reported.

Mrs. Patricia Ann Wilson, 25, of 84 Trish Drive, was in satisfactory condition at Novato Hospital with a deep scalp wounud.

Her husband, James Richard Wilson, 30, told police that he arose before 4 a.m. and went into the spare bedroom to dress. His wife awoke when he got up, but went back to sleep, he said. Wilson said he then went into the garage, where he got his boots, returning to the bathroom, and while there he heard his wife cry, "James! James!"

He stepped into the bedroom to find his wife with a wound on her head. A man was crouching across the room, he related.

The intruder ran down the hall and out the front door, with Wilson in pursuit, Wilson told police.

Wilson said he returned to check on his wife and children, Kathy, 7; Lynn, 5, and Jim, 10 months, then called a doctor, who in turn called an ambulance and police.

Police received the call at 3:56 a.m. and were at the house at 3:58 a.m. They found Mrs. Wilson conscious, lying in a pool of blood. She was rushed to Novato hospital by California Ambulance.

Within 10 minutes, six Novato patrol cars, one from the California Highway Patrol and one

Airborne Alert Slice Told By McNamara

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara is drastically reducing the U.S. airborne alert which has been flown continuously for five and one-half years by bombers of the Strategic Air Command.

Bombers have been kept in the air, flying the same courses over which they would travel to targets in the Soviet Union if a nuclear war started.

The decision to cut down the operation reflects the increased importance of intercontinental missiles in the U.S. military arsenal and, as McNamara put it, "the declining importance of bombers in relation to missiles."

McNamara's decision was revealed today with publication of previously secret testimony before the House Appropriations Committee.

The Pentagon said the airborne alert had cost $104 million a year. It said the planned reduction would save $64 million a year.

The continuous airborne alert was started on a modest scale during the Kennedy administration.

The idea was that catastrophe from a missile attack would be averted by keeping some bombers always aloft and ready to counterattack while others remained alert on the ground and ready to take off in 15 minutes.

Cavalry Catches Cong Battalion; Cambodia Says Own Troops Fired

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON — U.S. 1st Air Cavalry troopers today caught up with the remnants of a fleeing Viet Cong battalion and trapped them between American guns and the South China Sea. They killed 39 more of the enemy trying desperately to escape, boosting the toll of the two-day battle to 141.

A U.S. military spokesman said the 1st Cav troopers, pursuing the guerrillas through jungle so heavy it blocked out the sunlight, had blocked all avenues of escape except the sea. He said "significant contact" had been made.

"There's a lot of Viet Cong trying to get out of there and some of them haven't been successful," the spokesman said.

Radio Cambodia said today Cambodian defense forces, not the Viet Cong, fired across the border at South Vietnamese or violations of our air space and American troops last Saturday.

The broadcast said Cambodian troops were simply "defending the frontier against daily aggressions, infiltrations or violations of our aire space by American-South Vietnamese forces."

The United States contends that its troops in South Viet Nam were fired on by Viet Cong hiding out in Cambodia and that American artillery fired across the Cambodian frontier to silence the fire.

In Saigon, labor unions today demanded a government crackdown on Communist infiltration of their ranks. They also warned of increasing political penetration of the capital by Viet Cong agents.

The new chief of the nation's security apparatus, Gen. Linh Quang Vien, was reported planning a vast campaign to flush out known Communists in Saigon and other urban centers.

American pilots once more ravaged the Communist supply arteries in North and South Viet Nam despite the loss of three planes in yesterday's attacks. They turned petroleum dumps into infernos that left smoke towering 7,000 feet into the air.

Almost impudently, the U.S. Air Force for the first time sent propeller-driven A1 Skyr-

No Early Viet Peace, Thant Says After Trip

NEW YORK (UPI) —U.N. Secretary General Thant returned from meeting with European leaders yesterday and said "there is no hope for an early settlement" of the war in Viet Nam.

"No new initiative on the party of anybody, on the part of any government, is called for at the moment," Thant told newsmen at Kennedy International Airport. He returned from a 10-day European trip which included talks with Prime Minister Harold Wilson of Britain and President Charles de Gaulle of France.

Republicans Retain Edge In Marin; Gap Narrowing

The Republican party still has a majority of the voters registered in Marin, but its lead has narrowed considerably in the past two years.

County Clerk George H. Gnoss today announced a total of 83,475 are registered for the June 7 primary, for which registration closed April 14.

Of these, 41,397 are registered as Republican and 38,827 as Democrat. There were 3,237 who declined to give a political party, and 14 registrations with possible defects, Gnoss reported.

This gives the Republicans an edge of 2,570, compared with 4,244 for the 1964 June primary, the county clerk said.

The total registration is 7,843 above that for the primary of two years ago, but 3,527 below the total for the November general election of 1964.

Gnoss said he expects a large increase in registration for next November's election.

Hearings On National Park Slated In June

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Interior Committee will hold hearings next month in California on the proposed redwoods national park, according to Chairman Henry M. Jackson D-Wash.

He announced yesterday that the exact date and details for the hearings would be set by June 1 and that a subcommittee would make an inspection trip in the redwoods area of Northern California.

Human Rights Group Asks Bremond Rehired

Marin County's "old" Human Rights Commission last night questioned one of its members over apparent criticism of the commission, discussed membership to the "new" commission, and recommended that supervisors rehire Walter Bremond, giving him the title of director of the Human Rights Commission.

Bremond, who was fired by supervisors and later resigned two weeks ago, was praised by the six commissioners attending last night's session at the Civic Center.

Commission secretary Wyman Hicks reported that a letter will be sent supervisors recommending rehiring of Bremond and praising the "marvelous job" he did while county director of community relations services.

Hicks said the commissioners at last night's session agreed that it will probably be their last meeting. An ordinance adopted by supervisors will take effect

About Face For Rights Lawyer

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—Leaders of Baltimore's Negro community expressed shocked surprise today at statements by a Baltimore attorney and long-time courtroom champion of Negro rights that he opposed "any further extension of civil rights" for Negroes.

Kerpleman

The attorney, Leonard Kerpleman, said in a letter published by the Baltimore Evening Sun Wednesday that the riots in Los Angeles Watts area "disgusted me and sickened me as a human being."

He said he could not accept "the manner in which Negro leaders have drawn the Watts carnage to their bosoms and have declared it to be, not their shame, but their glory.

"Gentlemen of the Negro community, by expressing pride, complacency or satisfaction in the Watts riots, you have lost me," said Kerpleman.

U.S. Sues In Selma Election

SELMA, Ala. (AP)—The Justice Department has charged that nearly 1,700 Negro voters were disqualified improperly in Tuesday's Democratic primary to assure a victory for Sheriff James G. Clark, in Dallas County.

Clark

In a suit filed in U.S. District Court at Mobile yesterday, the federal government asks that Clark's opponent, Wilson Baker, be declared the winner.

Baker, the city's public safety director, is a racial moderate while Clark is known for his segregationist views.

The government suit seeks to overturn the action of the county's Democratic Election Committee, which supports Clark's contention that ballots in six of the county's 80 voting precincts were handled improperly. It asks for a preliminary injunction to prevent the disputed ballots from being destroyed.

Baker

If the predominantly Negro votes are counted, then Baker would win the primary by a clear majority, thus avoiding a May 31 runoff election for the party's nomination for sheriff.

In a secret session late yesterday the committee announced that it had found too many irregularities and that a runoff must be held.

Fulbright Calls Saigon Brothel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ignoring Barry Goldwater's demand that he step down as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Sen. J. W. Fulbright has challenged new controversy by calling Saigon "an American brothel."

Fulbright

The outspoken Arkansas senator said what is happening to the capital of South Viet Nam is the result of the "fatal impact" that a rich strong civilization— "even when acting with the best intentions"— can have on a poor weak one.

Fulbright, concluding last night his series of lectures at John Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies, said published reports of the impact of Americans and American money on Saigon show:

Goldwater

"That it is not unusual to hear a report that a Vietnamese soldier has committed suicide out of shame because his wife has been working as a bar girl.

"That as a result of the American influx, bar girls, prostitutes, pimps, bar owners and taxi drivers have risen to the higher levels of the economic pyramid."

An outspoken critic of President Johnson's Viet Nam policies, the senator delivered his lecture a few hours after Goldwater, the Republicans' 1964 presidential candidate, denounced him for what he termed carping criticism "that lends aid and comfort to our enemies."

College Calls Draft Test Off Due To Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — San Francisco State College has canceled plans to administer Selective Service college deferment tests because of threat by an anti-Viet Nam war group to "do whatever necessary" to disrupt the testing.

Stanley Paulson, acting president of the college, announced yesterday that he had asked and was granted permission to cancel the tests scheduled May 14, May 21 and June 3.

Paulson said he took action after receiving a letter from the Viet Nam Day Committee (VDC), which has organized a number of demonstrations to protest the Viet Nam war.

Dean of Students bfred Riddell said the tests were canceled because of fears that students competing while demonstrations occurred nearby would not perform as well as under calmer conditions.

Thousands of San Francisco State students who had planned to take the test on campus were advised by the college to write immediately to Science Research Associates, the firm which administers the tests, and request a change of location.

Wolden Tells Of Relations With Firms

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—San Francisco Assessor Russell Wolden was questioned again about his relations with various local companies during his fifth day on the witness stand in his bribery trial.

Wolden said yesterday that American Home Products Corp. and General Foods Corp. have been charged $257,308 in back taxes by Alameda County authorities. Both firms were referred to Albert F. Skelly, a tax consultant, by Wolden in return for a payment of $125,478.

Wolden testified that the extra tax assessment made against American Home Products in Alameda County "would be absolutely invalid" if they took the matter to court.

He denied prosecution attorney Francis Mayer's continued references to American Home Products as a Wolden client.

Questioned about his acceptance of campaign fund contributions, Wolden testified he accepted none until assessment roles closed July 1, after assessments could be altered.

He attributed the early tax-roll closing of Diamond National Corp., after he received a $1,000 contribution from the firm's vice president, to the fact that a company officer had to leave for Europe before the normal closure date.

In response to Mayer's questions Wolden testified he had only approximate figures on the amounts of campaign contributions he had received after 1962.

He maintained that hotel bills he included in campaign expenses were necessary and legitimate.

He called meetings with Standard Brands Products officials "purely social," having nothing to do with assessments.

Dry cleaning originated in France but was refined and perfected in Germany and the United States.

Growth Hormone Chemical Structure Now Uncovered

BERKLEY, Calif. (UPI) — The ingredient in the human body that makes one man six-feet-four and another four-feet-nine has finally been pinpointed and taken apart.

A team of scientists at the University of California, after years of research, has isolated HGH—the Human Growth Hormone—and broken it down into 188 chemical units. Their work was reported yesterday in the Journal of the American Chemical Society.

The discovery marks a turning point in research which may some day develop an injection which would make a stunted child grow to six foot height.

The growth hormone can be used effectively on a part of the body that is growing too large, the researchers said, or could be used to induce growth in one part of the body, as in the case of flat-chested women.

HGH, besides controlling growth "undoubtedly has other functions in the body," he added.

Leading the work at the hormone research laboratory here was Dr. C. H. Li, assisted by Dr. Jonathan S. Dixon and by Dr. Wangkyng Liu.

Drawback to any wide use of HGH in the near future is its extreme scarceness.

Pituitaries from 5,000 humans were used to obtain one-sixth of an ounce of the hormone, and the growth hormone of animals was found to be ineffective on humans.

However, Dr. Li and his associates said they hope, now that human HGH has been analyzed, to find a way to create a chemical substitute, or perhaps to modify animal hormone to make it effective on humans.

Judges Cause Cannes Trouble

CANNES, France (UPI) — The judges are causing more of a stir at the Cannes Film Festival this year than the entries.

Sophia, Loren, president of the festival's jury, caused a near riot last night when she showed up, squired by husband Carlo Ponti for a showing of "Ashes," Poland's entry.

Police struggled with hundreds of photographers and spectators trying to catch a glimpse of the bejeweled actress as she swept into Festival Palace, overlooking the moonlit Mediterranean.

PUC Considers Phone Identification Rule

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The Public Utilities Commission today was studying arguments aimed at requiring recorded messages put out by anonymous telephone callers to carry the name and address of sponsors.

PUC examiner Donald B. Jarvis heard testimony yesterday calling for telephone companies to revise practices and tarriffs regulating such recorded messages and to have sponsors identified.

Opposition came from William K. Rawson, a member of the San Gabriel Committee for Let Freedom Ring. The organization has a weekly program of recorded messages that can be heard by dialing a special number.

A ruling from the PUC was expected after June 24 when Jarvis submits the case to the commission. Briefs also would be filed by both sides.

The messages were described by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith as often "abusive and extremist attacks and libels on individuals and institutions."

Rawson said "the purpose of these messages is to provide anyone who cares with the truth about communism," as well as "news and facts to preserve our freedom."

He said he already has been subjected to "needless and frightening harrassment" because of the publicity surrounding the telephone message controversy.

"I don't know why we should submit ourselves to the unstable among us by requiring us to give through our messages our name, home address and telephone number," Rawson said.

GM Cutback Hits Workers By Hundreds

DETROIT (AP) — Several hundred auto production workers have been laid off and hundreds more face furloughs because General Motors Corp. is cutting back production for the first time in five years.

GM, the world's largest automaker, said yesterday the cutbacks were to "get production schedules in line with current stocks in the field."

GM was the only one of the big auto firms to announce cutbacks.

At the same time, Ford scheduled 10 of its assembly plants on overtime operations Saturday. Chrysler and American Motors were on regular five-day weeks.

All the companies were expected to be mentioned today in Sen. Abraham Ribicoff's report on auto defects.

The Connecticut Democrat, head of a Senate subcommittee probing auto safety, recently asked the four major U.S. auto firms to list all manufacturing and design defects found in cars since 1960.

GM, Ford, Chrysler and AMC sent their lists to Washington Thursday. They are due to make them public in Detroit at exactly the hour that Ribicoff begins a Washington news conference today (2 p.m. EDT).

Nazi Pickets Freed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Appellate Department of Superior Court has reversed the conviction of three American Nazi party leaders on charges of disturbing the peace and endangering the public. Robert E. Giles, 30, Frederick E. Harry, 23, and Walter E. Gould, 21, were cleared yesterday of charges stemming from a demonstration a year ago when they were arrested while counter-picketing Congress of Racial Equality pickets in Glendale.

BOYS HUNT 'PEOPLE;' MAN SHOT

PERTH AMBOY, N.J. (UPI) —Two teen-agers with rifles walked by yesterday as Joseph Bolinski sat on a rock in a field near his home.

"What are you doing? Bird hunting?" he asked.

"No. People hunting," one of the youths replied with a smile.

A minute later, as the boys were about 40 feet away, a shot rang out. The bullet struck Bolinski in his back.

With only the victim's description, police began a search for the youths. Bolinski was in critical condition, with the bullet lodged in his spine.

Religion Hurt In North Korea, Report Shows

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress was told today there is ample evidence that Communist North Korea has attempted to eradicate Christianity, while religious persecution in North Viet Nam has been concealed and indirect.

A Library of Congress report, prepared for the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, said before World War II about 300,000 Christians lived in the north of Korea.

This number had dropped to about 200,000 by 1949, the report said, and "just before North Korea started the Korean war the Communist persecution of Christianity intensified."

In North Viet Nam, the Communist regime has avoided open religious persecution, the study said. But it added that a close examination shows indirect means of persecution through land reform and counter revolutionary activities.

Burns Study Says Deviates, Reds At U.C.

Kerr's charges that the 1965 report — which said Communists revolt — was largely inaccurate and based on "half truths" and "distortions."

Kerr also had asked that the 1965 report be stripped of the shield of legislative immunity, which means that since it is an official legislative document, its contents cannot be held liable for court action.

"We wish to make it clear," states the 1966 report, "that this immunity, being specifically conferred by statute, is not subject to waiver."

The committee accused Kerr of harboring a "hostile attitude" toward its activities, saying he not only did not solicit the committee's help in seeking out Communist activities on campus "but actually took steps that tended to prevent its being given."

The committee cited reports of widespread student homosexuality, dances with lewd themes and the presentation of "disgusting, debased spectacles" on campus in concluding that under Kerr, the campus "sank to a new low."

Specifically mentioned were the appearance on campus of the San Francisco Mime Troupe, whose shows were banned from San Francisco's public parks; and a dance sponsored by the Vietnam Day Committee that featured the showing of pictures in which nude torsos "were exhibited in a sensual and provocative manner."

At the dance, the committee said, the smell of marijuana "pervaded the area," many of the dancers were intoxicated and "sexual misconduct was blatant."

Turning to homosexuality, the committee cited a story in the student newspaper, The Daily Californian that asserted 2,700 of the 27,000 Berkeley students were homosexual.

Jim Branson, editor of the Berkeley Daily Californian, said the information was published in one of a five-part series on homosexuality and was obtained from Harold Call, president of the Nattachine Society of San Francisco, a homophile group.

Branson said, "His estimate was based on a Kinsey report figure that one in ten men studied had most of their sexual experiences with men."

Branson said the article was not intended as a sociological survey. He said it is a mistake to consider the campus "a center for sexual deviation."

The committee gave 16 pages to what it called "The Eli Katz Case," and Kerr's handling of it.

The committee said Katz lied when, in 1957, he signed a loyalty oath at the University of California at Los Angles saying he had not been a member of a Communist organization for five years. The oath was necessary before Katz could get a job at UCLA.

Katz joined the Berkeley faculty in 1963 but failed to get his contract renewed when the administration decided he had lied about his past when signing the loyalth oath.

Katz then took a position at Western Reserve University but was offered his UC post back in December 1965 after strong protests from Berkeley faculty groups. He accepted the offer and is scheduled to report for the fall term this year.

The committee charged Kerr allowed rehiring of Katz despite being told by an unnamed but "responsible" federal agency that Katz had not signed the loyalty oath "in good faith" and in fact "had not changed his political views and connections" and was still connected with subversive organizations.

The committee said Chancellor Roger Heyns, appointed to head the Berkeley campus after the student uprisings of 1964-65, "either did not know of the federal agency's information (about Katz) or chose to ignore it. The Kerr's policy, the senators contended, was responsible for Berkeley becoming the focal point of the Vietnam Day Committee. Cited was an Alameda County Grand Jury report saying the VDC used university facilities 34 times during the latter three months of 1965.

In contrast to last year's report, signed by only two of three members of the committee, the supplementary report bears the names of all five members of the current committee. They are:

Senate President Pro Tem Hugh M. Burns, D - Fresno, chairman; Sens. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael; Richard J. Dolwig, R-San Mateo; Aaron W. Quick, D - Chula Vista; and Stephen P. Teale, D-West Point. Teale refused to sign the 1965 report.

Reds Hit Thai Aid To U.S. As Allies Gird For Rains

TOKYO (UPI) —Red China warned Thailand today its decision to send air and naval units to Viet Nam was a serious step "to widen the war" and a step for which it would be held "to account."

The warning was carried by Peking's "Dwangming Daily," and broadcast by the New China News Agency .

"The Thai authorities are long-time accomplices in the U.S. criminal war against Viet Nam and other Indochinese countries," the broadcast said.

In Washington officials said today the Communists are building up their forces in south Viet Nam in a huge effort which shows that Hanoi has no intention of accepting offers of peace negotiations, officials said today.

Girding for rainy season offensive by the bolstered Red forces, the United States has deployed 40,000 men to South Viet Nam in the past two months, and now has a total strength there of 255,000.

The explosion is expected at any time as the monsoons arrive, ending a lull in ground fighting during which the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese expanded their forces despite slashing air attacks. Their total manpower in the South is estimated at 250,000.

Evidence now at hand from U.S. military officials on the scene indicates that Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was conservative in his estimates of enemy ability to infiltrate troops into the South.

Information from Saigon indicates that more than 20,000 men were moved southward in the first four months of 1966. The rate of troop movement from North Viet Nam toward South Viet Nam was 5,500 a month for part of this time and may have reached 7,000 in April.

Some of these troops may still be in assembly areas just beyond South Viet Nam's borders, away from the main centers within the country which have been under heavy air attack.

036 zzzyrcyn Policy 5-6 d

The latest count on U.S. forces in South Viet Nam shows this breakdown: 156,500 Army, 13,500 Navy and Coast Guard, 51,000 Marines and 34,000 Air Force. Ground forces have close to six combat divisions.

Allied forces from other cointries 26,500 men.

from the county sheriff's office were combing the area, Novato police reported.

Wilson described the intruder as about five feet six inches tall, of medium build, and wearing a black jacket.

The intensive search failed to find anyone answering the description, police reported. A search this morning failed to turn up the weapon used in the attack.

Mrs. Wilson was questioned today at the hospital but said she could not identify her assailant, reported Police Sgt. Walter Weidauer.

Two fires during the Christmas holidays, swept the Wilsons' house at 23 Stasia Drive. The first broke out at 1:39 a.m., Jan. 1, while Mrs. Wilson was away baby sitting. The second was 48 hours later after the family had left the house because of the first fire.

The house at 84 Trish Drive was given the family by builders Roberts and Aguirre for use while their house at 23 Stasia Drive is being rebuilt.

Daily was in good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital.

First Rabid Cow Of Year Found At Dillon Beach

First report of a rabid cow in Marin this year was made today by the County Health Department.

The cow, said health education officer Dan R. Pelz, was killed Monday on a ranch at Dillon Beach, and its head was sent to the Sonoma County Health Department for testing. Tests proved the animal was rabid.

Pelz said two workers on the ranch were required to undergo the Pasteur series of rabies treatments because they had handled the animal. He declined to identify the ranch.

It was the third report of a rabid animal in Marin during 1966.

Further nominations will be called for and election held at the club's next meeting, June 2, Zipf reported.

Anyone protesting tre decision will have until next Thursday to file an appeal with the Marin County Planning Commission.

Candle Under Bed Starts Minor Blaze

Two Tamalpais Valley tykes, three and five year olds, wanted to see what it looks like under a bed by candlelight. So they lighted a candle and went under a bed yesterday at their mother's home at 515 Marin Avenue.

The result, reported Tamalpais firemen who were called to the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Hanson at 5:57 p.m., was minor damage to the bed, smoke damage, and two holes in the rug.

No Psychiatric Calls To Homes Proposed

A psychiatric team proposed for mentally ill children in Marin County would not travel to patients' homes, but to area clinics in the county, Dr. Clyde G. Miller, director of the county's Community Mental Health Services, said today.

In reporting his proposal made to supervisors Tuesday, the Independent-Journal incorrectly said the specialists would make home visits.

negotiating with various governmental departments, particularly the State Small Craft Harbor division, to make a littoral drift survey. McDaniel said it is hoped this would show a breakwater is not necessary. Littoral drift, he explained, is drifting of sand sideways, back and forth above and under water.

He said it is hoped the Corps of Engineers and the Small Craft Harbor division will participate with the district in the survey.

"Even though the Corps' decision might be agreed to in Washington, it doesn't close the door forever," McDaniel declared. "It can be reintroduced."

The commission expects to have a master plan showing uses of the lagoon prepared by July 5, he reported. It is to be presented to the county board of supervisors on that date at the same time at which the supervisors are to consider the proposal of open area zoning for the lagoon. Rezoning has been held up, on commission request, pending completion of the plan by Norman Gilroy and associates of Mill Valley.

Harbor commissioners have argued against the county proposal for open area zoning for the whole lagoon. There are two applications for resort-commercial recreation zoning on the east shore of the lagoon, from Bahia Baulinas Inc. and Wilma Leonard.

Two Valuable Cameras Are Stolen

Burglary of a car parked at Strawberry Town and Country Village netted the thieves two cameras of total value estimated at $2,000, sheriff's officers said today.

Al M. Williams Jr., of 155 Jamaica Avenue, Paradise Cay, told deputies he left the vehicle in a parking lot while doing photography work. The trunk, he said, was forced open and a $1,300 movie camera and a $700 still camera were taken.

Ola Williams, operator of Marin City Cleaners at Cole Drive and Drake Avenue, reported a rear window of the shop was broken. Nothing was missing, officers said.

William C. Corrett, 1300 Fourth Street, San Rafael, told deputies someone entered his weekend cottage on Perth Way, Inverness, taking cigarettes, costume jewelry, and an electric razor. No forced entry was evident.

A clothes dryer was taken from the basement of the rental house at 7198 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Lagunitas, officers said. No forced entry was made of the house.

Pickets Slated At Jolly Stores

National Farm Workers Assn. announced plans to picket Jolly Markets in Fairfax and Kentfield starting at 5 p.m. today.

The action is "informational picketing" of S & W Fine Foods and Treesweet Juice brands of the DiGiorgio Corp. and not against the stores, said Mark Vincent, Mill Valley field representative of the association.

Vincent said this is part of a statewide boycott being launched today since negotiations with DiGiorgio Corp. to accept a strike clause in its contract have reached a stalemate.

Stereo, Radio Equipment Gone

Two cars were looted, in San Rafael yesterday of expensive stereo and radio equipment.

A $150 stereo and $39 worth of tapes were taken from the car of Donald C. Kane of 582 Thornwood Terrace. Kane told police a wing window had been forced sometime before 6:30 a.m. while the car was parked outside his home.

A record changer and radio worth $70 were taken from the car of Pat Earle of San Francisco at about 12:30 a.m. while parked and locked on Vivian Way near Belvedere Street. A rear window had been pried open, police said.

Cold Virus May Help Resist Cancer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Don't curse that cold — it may be saving your life.

The possibility that nonfatal virus infections such as the common cold may protect many humans from cancer and leukemia came yesterday at the annual meeting of the American Society for Microbiology.

Dr. E. Frederick Wheelock of Western Reserve University School of Medicine said competition between different kinds of viruses in the human cell may result in the death of one kind, thus producing immunity against the disease caused by the losing virus.

Wheelock disclosed new research in which he said he made mice temporarily resistant to leukemia, a form of blood cancer.

He found indications the immunity resulted from direct competition between viruses, rather than from production of a newly found cell substance called interferon.

"We know that leukemia in mice is caused by a virus," Wheelock told a news confernce. "We have recently proved that in mice leukemia can be controlled by injections with another benign virus.

"If leukemia in humans is caused by a virus — and this has yet to be proved — it is possible that nonfatal virus infections such as colds may be good for us. The benign viruses may be interfering with the growth of cancer viruses, which could be present in all of us.

"At any rate, one of the next steps is to determine whether leukemia and cancer patients were significantly free of colds, influenza and the like in the period immediately preceding the more serious illness."

Bus Driver Robbed In Marin City

A lone gunman late last night robbed a Greyhound bus driver of $290 cash at the Marin City bus stop on Donahue Street.

The driver, Delbert C. Sanford, about 50, of 49 Blossom Drive, San Rafael, said the man then fled afoot.

According to sheriff's officers, Sanford, with no passengers, pulled his bus up to the stop at 11:38 p.m. The man, about 20 years old, six-feet tall, and slender, approached the front bus door, flourished what appeared to be a .32 caliber pistol, and ordered Sanford three times to open the door.

Sanford said he did, and the bandit said, "Give me your wallet."

He also took small change, according to the driver. The loot was both bus company money and Sanford's personal money.

Sanford said the man then ran toward Drake Avenue.

Members of the Marin Labor Council held a marathon candidate's night Wednesday in which every candidate for county office in the June 7 primary was given a chance to speak, but no endorsement was made of any candidate.

Hugh Cassidy, secretary-treasurer of the council, said endorsements will be made May 18 by the local Committee on Political Education (COPE).

in two weeks, reducing membership from 22 to seven members.

Supervisors have asked anyone interested in appointment to the new commission to write the board and seek interviews with supervisors prior to May 17, when appointments are to be made.

Hicks said the commission in March wrote supervisors recommending seven appointees. Hicks would not name them today, but indicated they were members of the present commission.

Rev. John J. O'Connor, a member of the commission, was questioned last night about what other members thought a "negative" statement in an April 25 letter to supervisors.

Father O'Connor wrote that he did not want to minimize the work of the commission, but "I do feel, however, that it could and should have done much more.

"The commission has been dominated by a couple of people, and communication with and involvement of the other members has been weak; often, unilateral action has been taken without communication with the members.

"I have been at most of the meetings, yet seldom have known what was going on, and often felt we were going in circles."

Hicks said that Father O'Connor last night told commissioners he did not intend his comments to be interpreted as negative ones.

Los Angeles Tax Cut Looms For County Fund

LOS ANGELES (AP) —The tentative county budget will show a property tax reduction of 1.8 cents if supervisors stick with a revised document they approved yesterday.

But after the smoke and fury of a 2½ hour session, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn charged that the final 1966-67 budget would bear little resemblance to the one tentatively adopted by the board, which he charged "was made only for the June 7 primary."

Among the recommendations approved were:

1. Trimming $5.3 million from an earlier budget proposal of $1.12 billion that had indicated a 5.9 cents increase in the current property tax rate of $2.415 per $100 of assessed valuation.

2. A possible $5 million sale of land in the Civic Center area now used for parking.

District Finds New Contractor For Creek Job

A new contractor was brought in yesterday to complete a forced main crossing on the south fork of the Gallinas Creek for Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District.

Maggiora and Ghilotti Inc. of Corte Madera will do the work on a time and materials basis, District Secretary Helen Foulkes reported.

The original contractor, Kirkwood-Bly of Santa Rosa, refused to do any further work on leaks developing in the main unless the district directors ordered the crossing re-engineered.

Directors refused to do this and declared the contract with Kirkwood-Bly in default Tuesday, Mrs. Foulkes said.

The district will attempt, through court action, to have Kirkwood-Bly, or its bonding company, cover any extra costs.

OBITUARIES

Frank Percy Green Dies In South

Requiem Mass for Frank Percy Green, 83, former resident of Sausalito and San Rafael, was offered today in Redondo Beach.

As owner of a piano firm, he settled in Utica, N.Y., as a young man.

Green died unexpectedly Tuesday in Torrance.

A native of Bath, England, he sold a piano in 1908 to a young high school girl who directed the school's orchestra. This started a friendship which led to their marriage three years later.

The Greens were professional musicians for many years in Utica, where he was in charge of music at the Baptist Church, and both played in the Utica Symphony.

In 1923, they moved to Beverly Hills, which then consisted mostly of cornfields. Green joined a small radio station, KNX. It was later purchased by the Columbia Broadcasting System and became one of the major stations on the West Coast. He stayed with the station 29 years, and was in charge of its musical instruments when he retired in 1952.

F. PERCY GREEN
Dies in Torrance

In 1957, they moved to Sausalito to be near their son, Harold F. Green, who since has moved to Palos Verdes Estates. They later moved to San Rafael, and returned to Southern California within the last two or three years. They celebrated their golden wedding in 1961, while living in San Rafael.

Surviving are his wife, Mary C. Green, his son, and two grandchildren.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Los Angeles.

NELLIE BEFFA

Funeral for Mrs. Nellie M. Beffa, 81, of Berkeley, sister of Joe Berryhill of San Anselmo, will be tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the Fred Young and Co. Mortuary in Healdsburg.

Mrs. Beffa was born in California, and had lived in Berkeley for 15 years. She died in Berkeley Wednesday after a brief illness.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen B. Oxley of Berkeley, a son, Floyd C. Beffa of Geyserville; her brother; three sisters, Ethel Bailey and Agnes Jones of Santa Rosa and Eileen Stockham of Healdsburg.

Inurnment will be private.

Fire Re-Visits Snack Bar

The already twice-burned Canteen at Stadium Avenue and Homestead Boulevard near Tamalpais High School was ignited again last night, but firemen were on the scene quickly and there was but minor damage.

Tamalpais firemen received a call from Irvin Sutley Jr. of nearby 137 Lark Lane at 10:22 p.m. He said he saw someone lighting the closed eating establishment.

Evidence showed that arsonists had poured gasoline on the outside wall near the front entrance, reported fireman Carl Carlson. Firemen extinguished the flames and soaked the building with water.

The structure, nothing more than a shell, is reportedly to be torn down by owner Mrs. Blanda Telander of Mill Valley. It was fired by arsonists Feb. 16, when two rooms were gutted, and Feb. 17, when the entire interior was charred.

Mitchell Stay Denied By High Court Justice

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Supreme Court justice denied yesterday a stay of execution for Aaron C. Mitchell who killed a Sacramento policeman during a robbery.

In turning down the request, Justice William O. Douglas said Mitchell's lawyers should file a habeas corpus proceedings either in a California court or a federal court in that state.

Mitchell is scheduled to be executed May 11 at San Quentin Prison for killing Arnold Gamble, 42, and wounding another policeman during an attempted holdup at the crowded Stadium Club Feb. 15, 1963. The club is a bar and restaurant.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown is expected to rule Monday on a clemency hearing held Tuesday.

GOP Leaders Reluctantly Agree To Move On Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly's Republican leader said today he opposes the latest compromise plan to avoid a tax hike but indicated the GOP is ready to lift its budget blockade, anyway.

Minority Leader Robert T. Monagan, R - Tracy, made the statement as lawmakers prepared to send all their unsolved problems to conference committees where final agreements will be made behind closed doors.

Monagan, optimistic a settlement was in sight, said "most of the major issues are moving in the direction of resolution."

"I'm not very much in favor of the program," he said of the compromise.

Approved by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee yesterday, the plan would make some $240 million available by accruing—or counting in advance — half of the expected personal income tax revenues.

This would be on top of the $243 million that would come from Democratic Gov. Brown's plan to count the sales, inheritance and other taxes in advance.

All told, it would give the Finance Department about $483 million without raising taxes in an election year — all available for making up a budget deficit of about $250 million; reducing a $295 million state construction bond issue; putting aside a surplus or boosting school aid.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh and Assembly Republicans had advocated including all the personal income tax in the new accrual system. Brown had said only part of the state revenues should be counted in advance.

But he agreed to meet them halfway, putting at least 50 per cent of the income tax under accrual. The plan was quickly approved by the Assembly Revenue and Taxation Committee, with most Republicans dissenting. The Assembly may vote Monday.

"The governor doesn't agree with it, but agreed on it to keep the bill moving," said John Sheehan, deputy director of finance.

Monagan reiterated the GOP still wants all income taxes included in the system — along with reduction of the construction bond issue, budget cuts of at least $55 million and a reserve fund.

But he conceded the Republicans—outnumbered 49-31 in the house—can't prevent Democrats from mustering the 41 votes needed for approval of the accrual bill.

And he emphasized "we'll look at the budget as a separate item," indicating the Republicans will not refuse to vote for the budget if their other terms are not fully met. A two-thirds majority of 54 is needed for Assembly approval of the spending bill and the GOP has refused, so far, to supply the five votes needed for passage.

He said the Republican budget cutting program, to be announced Monday, will be "pretty definitive," but added the Republicans are willing to talk about revising it.

Plans were afoot for conference committeeson every issue —the bonds, the accrual plan and a constitutional revision that could clear the way for a tripling of legislative salaries. The Senate and the Assembly are expected to come up with different versions of all the issues.

The Senate Finance Committee yesterday approved the constitutional revision in a form unacceptable to the Assembly. Stripped away were Assembly backed provisions dealing with the executive and judicial branches and a limitation on legislative pensions.

Attorneys Assail Yorty On Proposition 14 Remark

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Mayor Samuel W. Yorty was assailed yesterday by three top-ranking lawyers for his attacks against decisions of the State Supreme Court and one of the attorneys said he might seek disbarment proceedings against the mayor.

Attoney Glendon Tremaine, president of the county Bar Association, and attorneys Herman F. Selvin and Samuel O. Pruitt Jr., defended the high court from Yorty's "Uunfair, unjustified and inaccurate" statements.

Tremaine told a news conference that the mayor's "zeal for high office does not justify a libel of the Supreme Court of this state."

Yorty, seeking the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in the June 7 primary, said Wednesday that the high court had violated "the spirit, if not the letter," of the law by "delaying it decision on Proposition 14," the 1964 ballot measure which invalidated the state's fair housing laws.

The mayor had implied that the court was holding up its decision until after the primary as a favor to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, himself a candidate for nomination for re-election to his third term.

Selvin and Pruitt had argued against and for constitutionality of the amendment respectively.

Selvin said "to falsely publish a court decision has been held to be contempt of court and the law should be applied to Mayor Yorty, just like anyone else."

He said Yorty, also an attorney, libeled the court by charging it haf been "perverted for political purposes."

Selvin said that "this is despicable conduct. Being a candidate does not relieve Yorty of his duties as a lawyer."

The attroney noted that bar associations can recommend court discipline of their members "up to and including disbarment.

"I have not decided whether or not to ask the Los Angeles County Bar Association to take action," Selvin said, "but if I wake up some morning and find I've decided to do just that, it won't surprise me a bit."

Attorney Phill Silver, one of Yorty's long-time political supporters, termed the mayor's assault on the court "scandalous, unfair and unjustified."

Synanon House Members Injured

Three residents of Synanon House at Marshall were hurt when the car in which they were riding collided with a county dump truck on Lucas Valley Road at 8:20 a.m. yesterday.

Injured, according to the California Highway Patrol, were Gary S. Jenkins, 21; Joseph Leonard, 25, and William Lee, 35, all of Synanon. Jenkins suffered a pain in the right leg, said the patrol, while the other two bumped their heads. None was hospitalizaed.

The patrol said a Synanon-owned car driven east by Jenkins, collided with the westbound truck driven by county employee Mario J. Robello, 51, of 232 Picnic Avenue, San Rafael, on a winding, hilly section of the road about four miles west of Highway 101. Jenkins was cited for failing to stay on the right side of the road.

Bids On Resurfacing

Bids were opened today for the resurfacing of a 5.4-mile stretch of Highway 101 between Novato and Petaluma. The low bid received by the state division of highways was $139,266, submitted by the Fisk, Firenze and McLean Co. of San Carlos.

Assemblymen Ask For Aid On Asparagus

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two assemblymen, declaring efforts to recruit workers have failed, have appealed to Gov. Brown to help save the San Joaquin County white asparagus crop.

Republican Assemblymen Robert T. Monagan of Tracy and John G. Veneman of Modesto asked Brown to contact the President and the secretary of labor "to impress them with the gravity of the situation."

The lawmakers said yesterday that the San Francisco and Los Angeles labor markets haven't produced enough workers.

Brown replied that if the assemblymen convince growers to meet the $1.40 hourly minimum wage demanded by the government for workers, "I will fly back to Washington, if necessary, to get prompt action."

He insisted that the growers must meet the minimum wage. "The growers know it. You know it . . . The chances of getting braceros are slim unless the growers" meet the minimum wage, Brown said.

The labor shortage, they said, could cut production in half in the county — which produces 85 per cent of the world's white asparagus crop. They said this year's production could amount to half a million cases, compared with one million in 1965 and 2½ million in 1964.

1328 FOURTH STREET SAN RAFAEL

(BETWEEN C & D)

Follow The Lines To Find Your Supervisorial District

REDISTRICTING IS STILL CONFUSING

Supervisorial Candidate Must Be Sure Which Side Of The Street They're On

The three campaigners for election as First District supervisor in Marin County sometimes find themselves talking to people they think are their constituents, only to be informed that the votes they are wooing are cast in the Fourth District —which does not elect a supervisor this year.

And if the candidates are confused, many people are more so.

Change of supervisorial district boundaries a year ago last December wiped out the simple following of city lines. To more nearly approach a "one man, one vote" goal, the supervisors enlarged the formerly rural Fourth District by projecting it in an irregularly shaped corridor through the Second district to the shore of San Pablo Bay and back again through the heart of San Rafael.

They also added the San Geronimo Valley and part of the Tomales area, formerly in the Fifth supervisorial district, to the Fourth district.

The Fourth district is represented by Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, whose term has two more years to run. So voters in the San Geronimo Valley and the Marshall-Tomales area which was added to the Fourth district will not vote for supervisor this year. Supervisor William A. Gnoss of the Fifth District, whom they helped re-elect four years ago, is running this year with Lynes Downing as opponent. But the San Geronimo Valley-Tomales residents who have been redistricted must go two more years—a total of six years—between chances to elect a supervisor.

It's in former parts of the First district which were sliced away to enlarge the Fourth that the real confusion arises, though. Candidates John F. McInnis, Melvin Warneback, and William F. Upton have to be careful which side of the street they work—literally.

At the bottom appears the northern part of the Third District (represented by Peter H. Behr and not electing a supervisor this year).

Directly north of it is the corridor that carries the Fourth district to the shore of the bay. A dog-leg of the Fourth district runs back inland at San Rafael from the right edge of the map, taking in most of the lower portion of the city. Its northern edge follows the San Rafael Canal from the edge of this map to the bay.

North of that is First District, where a supervisor is to be elected.

All residents of the upper Fourth District portion shown on this map resided in the First district until the redistricting. However, they are now represented by Supervisor Storer and will not vote for supervisor this year.

The new Second district line created by the Fourth district corridor, also shown on the map, does not affect the current campaign since the Second District has no election this year.

Four Firemen Given Promotion

Promotions of four firemen and addition of one by the Novato Fire department were announced by Fire Chief George Cavallero today.

Lt. Charles Ridgeway was promoted to captain to fill the vacancy created by resignation of Capt. George Hale, who resigned because of a heart attack. His salary was increased from $685 to $695 per month.

Firemen Charles Onorato, James Berthinier and Walter Nolan were given the rank of lieutenant, increasing their pay from $645 to $655 per month.

William Springborn, 21, of 1311 Leafwood Drive, was hired as a fireman at $550 per month.

POLITICAL BRIEFS

Drath, Other Demos Will Talk At Rally

Phillip Drath, candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress, will host a political rally on the San Rafael courthouse steps tomorrow from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Drath will be joined on the speakers' platform by William M. Bennett of Kentfield, who seeks the Democratic nomination for attorney general; Robert Mertle of Santa Venetia, who seeks the Democratic nomination for State Assembly, and Thomas A. Skornia, chairman of the Marin County Council of Democratic Clubs.

Drath, a San Rafael building contractor, is an outspoken critic of the administration's policy in the Viet Nam war.

Entertainment will be by Malcina Reynolds, composer of the hit song "Ticky-Tacky Houses", and by the Dick Saltzman Trio.

On Sunday, Drath will lead a noontime parade from Lagunitas to Woodacre. At the Dickson Ranch in Woodacre, Drath will speak and meet the people from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

CHRISTOPHER AIDES

A San Rafael former judge and an attorney were named today to head the Marin Lawyers for George Christopher Committee.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori will be honorary chairman, and Edmond C. Ward, chairman of the lawyers' committee.

Charles Michals of Greenbrae is county director of the campaign to win Christopher the Republican nomination for governor of California.

DRATH ASSISTANT

Gary Smith of San Anselmo has been appointed staff assistant by Phillip Drath, candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress.

Smith is director of Christian education for the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo. He and his wife took part in the Selma, Ala., civil rights march last year.

FOR FLOURNOY

Sen. Minority Leader John F. McCarthy is one of 12 Republican state senators who have endorsed Assemblyman Houston I. Flournoy's candidacy for state controller.

Said McCarthy: "There is no one in Sacramento today who knows more about the needs of our state government, in theory and in practice. Houston Flournoy has, by his academic training, learned the fundamental rights and wrongs of the democratic system."

Tiburon Club Project Almost Completed

A budget slightly in excess of $120,000 for next fiscal year was adopted, according to president Joseph Royer.

Local Agency Board Stalls Decision On Miwok Issue

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission last night agreed to continue until June 2 consideration of a request to detach 55 acres from the Muir Beach Community Services District.

The continuance was requested in a stipulation signed by Attorney John L. Rockwell, representing Miwok Corp., developers of the Seacape subdivision, and Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino, representing the community services district.

"I don't see why we can't settle this tonight," CSD Director Jack Harris objected. He and other directors showed up at last night's hearing at the Civic Center, expecting Godino to be present. Godino was not, evidently thinking the continuance would only involve a routine commission action.

Rockwell said the continuance would enable Miwok representatives and CSD directors to get together. The CSD has protested detachment, but Miwok claims the district cannot supply adequate water to the 60-lot Miwok tract.

Commissioners voted 4-0 for continuance, with Commissioner Byron W. Leydecker, named Tuesday to replace Thomas T. Storer as a board of supervisors' representative, absent.

With little discussion, the commission approved the 3.84-acre McDevitt subdivision at the end of Monticito Road near San Rafael to the San Rafael Sanitation District and the annexation of a one-third acre lot on the south side of Center Road east of Fredson Lane, owned by Norman T. Beeck, to the Novato Sanitary District.

Desegregation Deadline Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Today is deadline day for school districts to file assurances of compliance with the 1966 desegregation guidelines.

Office of Education officials have warned they will cut off federal aid to schools failing to file, in 17 Southern states.

The Office of Education said 1,943 districts in 17 southern and border states must file assurances. Officials said 1,468 have been received so far, but not all of the assurances have been processed and found acceptable.

a fine crop of football stars is growing in lucas valley!...

And perhaps an Olympic swimming champion or two as well. When the boys get tired of passing the pigskin, they will head for the swimming pool, where the sound of young laughter is the order of the day. Eichler Lucas Valley offers all the distinct advantages of a complete community, skillfully planned in every way. The people of Lucas Valley live in one of the most beautiful settings in all of magnificent Marin. Hundreds of massive oak trees have been left untouched, to stand silhouetted against a golden background of rolling hills. In addition to the community center with the swimming pool and spacious recreation hall, there is the convenience of a community TV antenna, and utilities have been installed underground, eliminating unsightly poles and wires. Lucas Valley is 25 minutes away from San Francisco . . . close to two golf courses, to Mt. Tamalpais and Stinson Beach . . . a hundred years away from overcrowding . . . a thousand miles away (in spirit) from the tension of modern living. 4 & 5 bedroom-2 bath radiant-heated homes, some with separate dining rooms, atriums, galleries, service rooms, sewing rooms, and the famous Eichler kitchen. Luxury "extras" such as concrete patios, weather-stripping and insulation are included in the prices, which start at $34,950.

Marin Jury Finds Meter Man Guilty

Charles R. Herren, 61-year-old San Rafael parking meter collector charged with embezzling meter funds, was found guilty by a Marin Superior Court jury after two hours deliberation yesterday.

Judge Richard Chamberlain, visiting from Alameda County, scheduled sentencing for May 31.

Herren's attorney, William B. Wolfson, said, however, he will make motion for a new trial May 18. He said grounds will be that evidence admitted during testimony was obtained through illegal search and seizure.

Herren looted about $7 daily over a long period of time from meters, caching the money in bags and cigar boxes in his home at 3 Bayview Street, San Rafael, officers said.

Wolfson has maintained a Dec. 2 entry of the house by San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa and others was illegal, and that none of the coins found there was a "marked" coin planted earlier in meters.

Leonard Shaw, assistant district attorney, prosecuted the case. Trial began Monday.

Body Found In Mill Valley After 11 Days

The body of an 83-year-old Mill Valley widow was found lying in the living room of her home last night.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said she apparently died of natural causes on April 25.

The body of Mrs. Grace Brand was discovered by Coroner Keaton, who broke two windows to enter the home at 157 West Blithedale Avenue after Mill Valley police had been asked to check the house by a relative of the dead woman.

Mrs. Charlotte Akins called police from Port Hueneme in Ventura County to say she got no reply from her sister's telephone since last speaking to her April 25.

Police Officer Robert Sisk went to the house where Mrs. Brand had lived alone since the death of her husband several years ago. Newspapers and mail outside the home had not been touched for about 11 days.

Keaton said Mrs. Brand had apparently fallen from her chair in the living room during a meal sometime during the evening of April 25. Lights in the house were still on and the curtains were drawn.

An autopsy was to be performed today at Russell and Gooch, Mourtuary, Mill Valley.

Rescue By Balloon Slow, But Thrilling

POINT MUGU (AP) — Its a little slow to be ideal under fire, but the Air Force's new snatch-and-run rescue system promises to be a great sport for the jet set.

Land and sea pickups of six men in the past three days averaged about 40 minutes per rescue.

That's a long time to advertise — with a light balloon necessary to the operation — the presence of a downed flier or a reconnaissance team awaiting recovery from enemy territory.

But everyone of the six volunteers jerked skyward from desert or raft found the experience so exhilerating that he wanted to do it again.

It's something like skydiving in reverse.

A long-range cargo plane — a specially equipped four-engine Lockheed MC-130H—drops a kit containing a folded balloon, tanks of helium to inflate it, a long nylon cable, and a flight suit with a built-in harness.

The man on the surface dons the suit, hooks the line to the harness, and inflates the balloon, which is tethered by the cable.

The cargo plane circles and snags the cable in a fork on its nose, just below the balloon. The impact severs the line and the balloon rises to a height of 4,500 feet, where it explodes.

The cable, locked in the fork, stretches and gently lifts the man into the air, then the cable is reeled in and the man is hauled up into the plane.

For a few seconds, while the cable is stretching, the man rises upwards slowly. Then, like a rubber band, the cable snaps back and the man streaks upward like a hooked fish jerked from a pond.

Kindly Elevator Man Inherits $250,000

NEW YORK (AP)—An elevator operator who showed "kindness, friendship and loyalty" to an elderly Manhattan woman is more than $250,000 richer today, according to a will filed for probate.

Ella Veronica King, who died last March 24 at 85, left the bulk of her estimated $300,000 estate to Christopher T. Kenny, of Teaneck, N.J., who operated the elevator in the building in which she lived.

The view grows daily in Marin's best-selling newspaper

Each day, Marin adds a special dimension to its panorama of growth. Each 24 hours it creates that which takes you from yesterday into TODAY—the thousand, exciting faces of LOCAL NEWS.

And local news is growing in every area of Marin County as new people, new homes, new businesses take root.

To report all that happens (the trial, the new bank, the grocery specials, the day Johnny met that unusual, striped pussy-cat) is a challenge. To bring ALL the news of Marin into focus that you may be well-informed is a job requiring growth on the part of the Independent-Journal. For news waits for no one.

This is why the I-J has made unusual advances in news services and equipment within this past year—with bigger ones in the offing. In fact, few newspapers of ANY size, anywhere, have added so much for the reader in so short a time. (The sports page, business page, the stocks, the new columnists, wire services, wire photos . . . these should give you an idea. And we might add the increasing news of advertised goods which is no less an adventure in daily living.)

The usual word for this is EXPANSION. But we see it simply as growth to meet your NEED FOR NEWS. It is a commitment to report the TOTAL COMMUNITY . . . the big and the little stories, the humor, the tragedy, the events around you which shape your life, affect your family, and even your future. The larger end, of course, is your RIGHT TO KNOW . . . in a free society . . . the change and the significance of each day's events.

As Marin expands, creating more and more local news, the I-J will print it in full dimension . . . presenting a view that grows daily.

Russ Barred From Drake's Bay Visit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Soviet ships — elements of the fishing fleet that has been operating off the Pacific Coast — have been denied permission to enter U. S. territorial waters, the Coast Guard said today.

The vessels, the Skryplev and the Chernjakhovsk, had requested permission to enter Drake's Bay, north of San Francisco, to transfer supplies in protected waters.

Adm. C. C. Knapp, commander of the 12th Coast Guard District, said entry of the Russian ships would be inimical to the best interests of the United States.

One ship, about 300 feet long and of several thousand tons displacement, was under Coast Guard surveillance about 20 miles off Point Reyes. Whereabouts of the other was not reported.

A large Russian fishing fleet has been operating off the Pacific Northwest coast in recent weeks and has gradually moved southward. The Coast Guard said it is strung out now all the way south to the San Diego area most vessels staying well outside the three mile limit.

Senator Reports Makers Recalled Millions Of Autos

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff reported today that in the last six years 8,700,225 automobiles have been called back due to some defect.

In a statement prior to making public information from the American auto industry on defects in their cars over the last six years, the Connecticut Democrat said the total auto production for that period was slightly more than 47 million according to industry statistics. He added:

"Thus in the psat six year 18.5 per cent of the cars produced by the four major auto companies have been defective in some respect."

He noted however, that "it should be made clear many of these defects were not safety related."

Ribicoff, as chairman of a Senate subcommittee investigating highway safety, had asked Detroit's Big Four to provide him with information on their recall campaigns involving certain auto defects and deficiencies. Ribicoff praised General Motors, the Ford Motor Co., the Chrysler Corp. and Ford Motors for their "immediate and cooperative" response.

Eyeglass Theft Charge Dropped

A felony complaint of grand theft was dismissed yesterday against Bern Stambler of 320 Richardson Drive, Strawberry, in Marin Municipal Court.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Gary Thomas, who recommended the dismissal to Judge Peter Allen Smith, said unavailability of prosecution witnesses was cause for the action.

Stambler was accused of selling about $17,000 worth of eyeglass frames acquired from a business associate, David Goldberg of New York, between July 1, 1964, and July of 1965, and keeping the proceeds.

Million Dollars Balm Asked For Goldstein

An amended complaint seeking $1 million in punitive damages alone was filed today in Marin Superior Court on behalf of Peter L. Goldstein, 31-year-old San Anselmo pulicist critically injured in a two-car accident on Highway 101 last Oct. 19.

The suit, filed by his wife, Vivian, names as defendants Paul Edward Beyer, Burlingame, driver of the car which crashed atop one driven by Goldstein; Conklin Brothers of San Mateo, Inc.; the State of California—Department of Public Works, and General Motors Corp's Chevrolet Motor Division.

It alleges the highway at scene of the accident, Waldo Grade, was in defective and dangerous condition, that there was negligent design and manufacture of the Beyer vehicle, a 1961 Corvair, and that Goldstein suffered a crushed skull, brain and eye damage, a broken hand, and internal injuries as a result of the negligence.

The suit asks the $1 million damages from General Motors, and unspecified general damages from other defendants. It also seeks $8,500 medical and hospital expenses, $15,000 for loss of work income, and $1,995 for loss of Goldstein's car.

Goldstein, of 26 Carlson Court, was unconscious in Marin General Hospital for nearly two weeks after the accident. Attorneys representing him are W. O. Weissich and Hadden Roth, both of San Rafael.

Bond Vote Cut Bill Signed By Governor

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Legislation that would reduce the requirement for voter passage of local school or library bonds from two-thirds to 60 per cent was signed yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

To become effective, the measure needs approval of the voters as a constitutional amendment.

Hub Councilman To Huddle With City Police, Firemen Tonight

City Councilman Robert M. Scott of San Anselmo will meet with a recently formed association of the Hub City's police and firemen tonight, telling them what he thinks the city should do to improve their lot this year.

Scott will appear at 8 p.m. at a closed meeting of the San Anselmo Police and Fire Assn. in City Hall. The organization, formed in December, includes all the city's uniformed personnel, except the police and fire chiefs, according to its president, Fire Capt. Robert Beedle.

Scott, elected to the council last month, at his first council meeting declared inadequate and faulty equipment was being used by police.

He said he learned of the police and fire association just last week, when he read a letter from the organization's attorney, James B. Leech of San Francisco, saying he would like to speak for the men at budget time.

"One thing I want to do tonight," Scott said, "is tell them to be patient and not break the town open with a labor dispute. I don't want to start out by sitting across a bargaining table from them. You don't conclude bargaining like that as friends and that is not the way I want to see San Anselmo run."

Captain Beedle said the organization was formed to improve the lot of police and firemen, but added he does not think it will be necessary to have an attorney represent it at budget time.

"I think things are going to be much better under this council than ever before," he said, adding; "I think it's very decent of Mr. Scott to come and talk with us."

Beedle said tonight's meeting will be closed to the public.

Scott said he has made a study of the needs of the city's uniformed departments and will tell tonight what he will recommend to the council.

"I think we should have a realistic re-examination of wages being paid them," he said. "I think we have to treat these people more as human beings . . . There is no realistic insurance policy for these men and they take their lives in their hands when they go out."

Scott said he has studied the department's needs by talking with the men, riding with police officers on their night patrols, inspecting equipment, and visiting other police and fire departments in the Bay Area.

Officers of the new association, besides Beedle, are Police Sgt. Robert White, vice president; Fireman George Jewell, secretary and Patrolman Edward Silva, treasurer. Beedle said they meet irregularly.

Marin Dining And Wining

Mother's Day Big For Restaurants In Marin, So Expect Some Delay

A new food operation (take-home food) soon will be opened at 71 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo. It will be known as Captain's Curries.

This stretch of the Miracle Mile should be a popular one for the take-home food enthusiast. Already on one side is Londoner Fish and Chips, and across the street is Col. Sanders Kentucky Fried Chicken.

Captain's Curries, as the name indicates, will specialize in curries, rice, condiments and exotic dishes, and with each order will go "puris," an Indian bread.

Owners are Dick Lindauer and Gordon Morse of Fairfax, former advertising and display men. Both have operated a couple of restaurants in the past, so know their foods. They've always been particularly interested in Indian foods.

Opening is probably 10 days to two weeks away. Hours will very likely be those when most take-home business is done—from 4 to 9:30 p.m. Monday will be the day of closing.

SOME RESTAURANTS rate Mother's Day as their busiest day of the year. Others place it second to Easter, and a few look upon it as a day not especially to turn up new faces, but to bring out the old ones—those that have shown on previous Mother's Days year after year.

All this is academic to the average diner who is mainly concerned on that day with dressing up and going somewhere. It would appear that all those whose appearances in restaurants throughout the rest of the year have been sporadic suddenly come to life and by mutual consent crowd the tables of every dinery that happens to be open.

No criticism—it's an excellent day to celebrate.

Fortunately to lessen the traffic, Mother's Day food service can be divided roughly into three periods—each having its own appeal. There's the breakfast-brunch period, the early dinner hours and the after six hours.

The last named is the most crowded time and often involves a wait for service during the later evening. If you have gone through this in the past it might make your outing more enjoyable to consider one of the others.

LIN FA GARDENS at Northgate is opening an hour earlier this Sunday for Mother's Day dinners—at noon instead of at 1 p.m.

Ethel Barrie is providing flowers for the ladies. Special dinner menu includes a complete prime rib repast and accessories at $3.95 and a complete fried chicken dinner at $2.50. Also Chinese dinners from $2.50. I know you'll like one or the others.

NEW FOOD OPERATION at the Rancho Rafael in Ignacio for the past month or so has been primarily steaks and is known as the Rancho Rafael Steak Corral. Service is a la carte and warm weather menu includes salads and such.

But for Mother's Day, rock Cornish game hen has been added to the menu and dinners will be served from noon to 8 p.m.—same as every Sunday. Hours of service Mondays through Saturdays are from 11:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Banquet fare is more varied and groups of 25 or more are taken. There's plenty of room. Rancho Rafael still has entertainment Friday and Saturday nights.

FRANCHINI'S CHATEAU usually makes much over Mother's Day; traditionally serves up flowers to all the ladies and a special menu to everyone in general.

This year there are 14 items to choose from, with dinners ranging upward from $3.50 and starting early in the afternoon (about 1:15 p.m.).

There's also a family-style breakfast from 9:15 a.m. at $1.95 ($1 for the youngsters)—and if there are youngsters in your family the morning might be a time they'd enjoy, with a chance to look over Franchini's livestock collection and feed the ducks.

DEE BRUNAL tells me that Oak Tree Inn in San Geronimo will start its Mother's Day dinner Sunday at 4 p.m. Earlier in the day consider the fine food selections provided by Don Caseldine's staff across the way at the San Geronimo National Golf and Country Club.

The Brunals are serving their regular menu, which includes two items worthy of mention at this time—the chicken provencale and the cannelloni. Like escargots? You can get them here now—a special of Carlo Givoni.

AND MANAGER Dick Walters at Peter Alioto's Arbordale in Sausalito has plans for a special Mother's Day menu—service starts at about noon.

Johnnie Cutlip will be back playing the piano at Alioto's again starting next Wednesday night.

NEW ON THE LIST of dineries open for Mother's Day this year is the Restaurant de L'Europe at 2214 Fourth Street, San Rafael. This is the one on the Miracle Mile at Santa Margarita Avenue.

Mother's Day menu includes, among other things, wiener schnitzel, steaks and coq au chambertin. Children's portions are half price. Leo Cantayre and Geofrides A. Verburg (to whom I shall refer hereafter as Fritz, not Jeff) were hoping to have their wine and beer license activated by this weekend.

There's a small parking area in the rear—holds about eight cars.

NO MOTHER'S DAY DINNER at MacArthur's in San Anselmo this year. This place is converting the dining room into a dance floor and discontinuing the food service.

Lunches will go on, but as a "serve yourself" operation—sandwiches, etc. And some of you may not realize that there's space in back of the dining room made into a beer garden, with a ping-pong table and dart board.

Don and Mike MacArthur haven't decided on a name for it—so have a look and turn in your suggestion. There's some kind of a prize offered for the best idea.

THAT PORTRAIT of the distinguished gentleman of a bygone era on the dining room wall of the new Windjammer in Tiburon bears a close resemblance to owner Ernie Van Asperen—but I have yet to learn which of his forebears it represents.

THERE'S A GOOD possibility that Tiburon may see another new opening by the end of the month. Ben Farlatti hopes to get his Tiburon Lodge into business by the Memorial Day weekend. I notice by the recorder that he has applied for the on-sale liquor license of the Oakview Club at Terra Linda Meadows for his cocktail lounge.

TOMMIE COX tells me that the special decorations ordered for his upstairs Destination South Pacific Room have been shipped from New Zealand and he hopes to have them by the end of the month.

Meanwhile the Cove Players have been using this room for their productions—a mighty convenient location. Only a few steps from Tiburon Tommie's dining room tables. No need to be late for a show here. I imagine they even hold the curtain until you finish your coffee—or mai tai, as the case may be.

BLUE ROCK INN, Larkspur, is now serving champagne dinners from $3.50 on Monday and Tuesday nights.

Open for brunch from 10 a.m. on Mother's Day—fizz brunch, if you like it that way. Mother's Day dinner, of course.

FORMERLY CLOSED on Mondays, Bob's of Marin has gone into its summer schedule of being open for breakfast, lunch and dinner seven days a week.

Supervisor Candidates Wax Hot At Terra Linda Meet

By WAT TAKESHITA

Three candidates for county supervisor from the First District tore into each other last night at a candidates' night at the Terra Linda Recreation Center.

John F. McInnis, former mayor of San Rafael, declared that one of his opponents, Dr. William F. Upton, "charged me with favoring the filling of the bay."

"This is a flat lie!" McInnis fumed.

Dr. Upton, in turn, declared that McInnis, while mayor, "grabbed the best part of Terra Linda for a tax base and did very little for the rest."

And Melvin Warenback, also in the same race, took a few swings at McInnis. He said San Rafael sold its municipal yacht harbor at a cheap price and had to buy it back for a high price. "And they took away the little league field and turned it into a parking lot."

Referring to the last city election for mayor, Warenback crowed:

"The people of San Rafael rejected Dr. Aby, Mr. McInnis's candidate, and put in my honorary chairman, Paul Bettini" as mayor.

The heated exchange among the three highlighted an otherwise quiet meeting sponsored by the Greater San Rafael Democratic Club. C. Roy Calder, president of the club, presided. About 70 attended.

Here are some of the other statements made by the supervisoral candidates:

McInnis—During his term as councilman and mayor of San Rafael, the city made great strides in street improvements, offstreet parking, underground storm drains, library addition, new city hall, and improved street lighting.

All of this was accomplished and paid for, said McInnis, while the tax rate dropped 10 cents.

He was co-founder of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments and formed an eight-county planning area for joint regional planning.

McInnis stressed that this wealth of experience and record of accomplishment in city and regional government could be put to good use as county supervisor.

Dr. Upton—A resident of Marin for 33 years, he has been on the county planning commission since 1952, six years as chairman. He said the open ditch in Terra Linda, which marks the boundary between San Rafael and the county area, shows the difference between San Rafael and county planning.

"On this (county) side of the ditch, there is some landscaping, but on the San Rafael side, well, you can see for yourself."

Upton, a member of the Bay Conservation and Development Commission, said he is basically a conservationist. He opposed Marincello but now that it is legally approved, he will not obstruct its development, he said.

Warenback — He would work for location of a University of California campus in Marin. "It will attract light research industry like at Stanford. It would be a potential gold mine."

Warenback also favors consolidation of districts for law enforcement and fire fighting to cut down duplication and cost.

Other candidates who spoke last night were Democrats in the races for state Assembly, state Senate, and Congress.

ASSEMBLY

Robert E. Mertle, Santa Venetia businessman, and James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park, teacher at Richardson Bay School, are seeking the Democratic nomination.

Mertle charged that incumbent Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, "is not giving us any representation at all."

He sees a conflict of interest in Assemblyman Bagley's position as a legislator and his representing Marincello.

Mertle called for tax reform to relieve the homeowner, improved schools, and sensible master planning.

Pockrus proposed that technical high schools be set up to handle those who would normally drop out from academic high schools but have talent in such fields as wood and metal shop.

It is the job of the Legislature to prevent such things as haphazard bay filling, said Pockrus. "Mr. Bagley is not going to do anything: he's just going to join the country club in Sacramento."

CONGRESS

Phillip Drath and Thomas T. Storer seek the Democratic nomination.

Drath called for a cease-fire in Viet Nam, withdrawal of United States forces to fortified bases along the coast, and a UN observer force to supervise elections. "We should then get out," said Drath. He warned that President Johnson's present policy will lead to nuclear war and obliteration.

"Furthermore, we've got to bring Red China into the UN and have a disarmed world under law." He said this is a difficult task but not impossible.

Storer — "I'm every bit as much for peace as Phil Drath." Storer said he would ask President Johnson to state unequivocally that we will sit down and negotiate with the Viet Cong. This is the only way to determine whether the enemy is serious about seeking peace, said Storer.

He said he would make every effort to get the UN to intercede and supervise elections. On the recognition of Red China, "It is completely unrealistic and assinine to try to ignore 750 million people."

Storer criticized incumbent Rep. Don H. Clausen for "voting against Medicare, against the education bill, which brings $400,000 to Marin schools this year, and against the urban transit bill."

STATE SENATE

Assemblyman Pearce Young, D-Napa, is trying to unseat Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, in the newly formed Fourth Senatorial District.

Young apologized for not being able to campaign in Marin as intensively as he would like. As chairman of the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee, he has had his hands full in Sacramento with such controversial matters as hallucinatory drugs and the mandatory blood test for suspected drunken drivers, he said.

Young said his bill for the undergrounding of utility lines would be of particular interest to Marin.

Young, who is an attorney, said his interests range from art and poetry to law and politics. He was a Fulbright scholar and was twice nominated for a Rhodes Scholarship while attending Stanford University.

Burglars Get Frozen Meat

Burglars looted a garage deep-freeze box of 40 pounds of assorted meats, Mrs. Jack B. Johnston of 745 Knocknaboul Way, Lucas Valley, told sheriff's officers.

Deputies said entry was via an unlocked door.

Soule Steel co. of San Francisco reported burglars broke the door hasp of a construction shack at Marin County Civic Center. It was not learned whether any tools were taken, officers said.

Genevieve S. Anderson, 753 McClay Road, Novato, told deputies a silver-turquoise bracelet was taken from her home sometime during the past three weeks. No forced entry was evident, she said.

Eight silver dollars and a small amount of other coins were taken from the bedroom of Robert T. Stewart, 7 Circle Way, Homestead Valley. Deputies said entry was by prying a window.

Burglars also struck at the home of Gail S. Costello, 704 Butternut Drive, Terra Linda, but nothing was believed taken. Entry was by breaking a bathroom window.

A vacant house at 12 Roosevelt Avenue, Santa Venetia, owned by Mrs. Stanley R. Frederick of Lagunitas, was also entered, possibly through an unlocked kitchen window. Deputies said no loss was reported.

Play In Spanish Set For Second Graders

The second grade class of Lethajean Brock at Central School in Sausalito will present a play in Spanish on May 24 at 10:15 a.m. in the school auditorium.

Title of the play is "La Fiesta De Los Tres Osos" (The Celebration of the Three Bears).

War On Poverty Unit Asks Joint Meeting

The county wide advisory committee for the War on Poverty Wednesday agreed to request a joint session with the Community Action Committee of Marin City and the board of supervisors to clarify organization and responsibility.

The committee also ratified the temporary appointment of Douglas J. Quiett as director of community relations services and acknowledged the resignation of Walter Bremond from that post.

College Stature Growing To Enhance All Of Marin

College of Marin, originally known as Marin Junior College, is celebrating its 40th anniversary this week, along with the dedication of its new million dollar College Center.

Since the Marin Junior College District's first board of trustees was elected May 7, 1926, the college has grown tremendously in both physical plant and in student population.

Even outstripping the physical growth has been the constantly rising stature of the college, both as an educational institution and the center of cultural exchange and enhancement for the entire community.

The college has student leaders and publications which speak out with courage on topics of the day. Even more important than frank expression have been the sophistication and responsibility with which college spokesmen have addressed themselves to the problems at hand.

In discussing the sale of cigarettes on campus, or vandalism in the newly built center, or problems of student dress and behavior, the student body has demonstrated the ability to make its view known in an orderly and responsible manner.

Aside from a few childish pranks that occur on any college campus, especially in connection with athletic rivalries, we don't recall any large-scale incidents at the College of Marin where student behavior in general has reflected adversely on the fine reputation that the college has established for itself.

College of Marin graduates who go on to University of California have consistently come up with high grade-point averages, thus attesting to the academic excellence of the local college.

College of Marin's attainments in such fields as music and drama have already been widely acclaimed. Some of the student performances have been praised by Bay Area critics and favorably compared with the best that professional adults have to offer.

We are proud to have with us a fine institution of higher learning, which is young in age and spirit but sophisticated and responsible in its dedication to learning and its relations with the community.

We are proud to join in commemorating the anniversary of a young college which has truly come of age.

Another Myth Shattered

We had always heard that it was possible to tell the age of a buck deer by the size of its antlers. Not so, say University of Pennsylvania scientists. They produced 12 point antlers on yearling bucks in their captive herd simply by giving the deer a balanced diet.

We trust they included plenty of rose buds, seemingly Marin's deer's favorite food.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

LIGHT CANDLES, DON'T BLOW THEM OUT

A "wet blanket" is defined as: "A person or thing that quenches or dampens enthusiasm, pleasure or the like."

—"Wet blankets" are quick to complain about a situation, but slow to do anything about it.

—They are more interested in fault-finding than in fact-finding.

—They are accustomed to speak of the group as "they" instead of "we."

Don't be a "wet blanket." Be a "candle-lighter," more anxious to improve than disapprove; more interested in getting action than fixing the blame for inaction; more concerned with winning cooperation than winning arguments.

In applying the principles of the Gospel to the solution of modern problems, you need God's unfailing assistance.

Then by prayer, intelligence and hard work you can be a constructive force in a fast-moving world.

"He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful in much." (Luke 16:10)

Let me do all I can, O Jesus, to build up and not tear down.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Reagan Has No Fears, Picking May 13 To Handshake In Marin

By WAT TAKESHITA

ACTOR RONALD Reagan apparently isn't at all superstitious.

He's picked Friday, the 13th of May, for a personal handshaking tour through Marin County.

The Republican hopeful for the governorship plans to spend most of that morning in and around San Rafael, with emphasis on handshaking and meeting crowds at shopping centers at Montecito in San Rafael, Bon Air in Greenbrae, and perhaps along Fourth Street in San Rafael.

Takeshita

THEY'RE STILL trying to figure out the identity of that young lady in black, who mingled prettily at the George Christopher dinner at Dominic's in San Rafael last week, all the time sporting an enormous Ronald Reagan button.

SUPERVISOR TOM Storer of Point Reyes Station and San Rafael contractor Phil Drath are conducting a friendly campaign for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

The other day, a woman driving a station wagon lost control of her car near Storer's home and crashed into the embankment. Mrs. Inez Storer, the candidate's wife, rushed out to give the woman first aid, quieted the victim, gave her refreshments and even called a tow truck to extricate the car.

As the tow truck pulled the damaged car away, Mrs. Storer noticed a big campaign sign emblazoned on the car bumper. It said "Drath for Congress."

JUD LEETHAM, Los Angeles attorney who is seeking the Republican nomination for state attorney general, has a couple of Marinites heading up his Bay Area campaign.

Leetham's Marin chairman is Mrs. Robert S. Milmoe of Greenbrae, who has been a member of the State Central Committee for six years, and active in local politics for about seven years.

And Leetham's chairman for the entire Bay Area is another Marinite—attorney Harvey N. Black Jr. of Mill Valley.

ATTY. GEN. Thomas Lynch will be honored at a reception in Tiburon tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 p.m. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sperry of 2 Spring Lane, Tiburon.

County co-chairmen for the Re-election of Tom Lynch are Roger Garety and Hadden Roth, San Rafael attorneys.

"I suppose it's just a coincidence, but I heard that's where they're getting material for his campaign!"

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Drivers Can't Read Signs

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In the past we have or, at least, I have read several articles as to why Johnnie cannot read. It appears to me that it is not Johnnie, but the parents who cannot read.

They park where they should not, having not one bit of consideration of other people. I have been blocked from entering parking lot where I live because of a vehicle parked in the driveway.

I firmly believe that some way should be devised to teach those who do not know how to read so that they can read signs and . . . the Vehicle Code Summary and the American dictionary so they learn the meaning of "Coordination" and "Cooperation." Did someone by mistake flush these two words down the drain? It seems to me that is what has happened.

Youth Should Be The Concern

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I have been reading in the San Rafael Independent-Journal and other newspapers regarding the disturbances in Marin City. As a former resident of Marin City (23 years). I feel qualified to make the following statements.

1. I feel that most of the young people who are causing the disturbances in Marin City are not all high school dropouts and juvenile delinquents.

They are young people who want to be heard and are asking for a better way of life than their parents have had in Marin City. They are restless and will go to any length to have a better life. Most of them feel they have nothing to lose because they're living a life of depression.

2. I'm sure it was appreciated by the Marin County Board of Supervisors to have a group of Marin City residents praising what they are doing for Marin City. But, this is not the group of people they should be concerned with.

Theo Brown and Jesse Berry cannot communicate with the youth of Marin City. Their ideas are obsolete.

The people the supervisors should be concerned with are the youth. These young people need somebody out of their own age group to communicate with you. Then perhaps you can reach the core of the real situation in Marin City.

Times have changed. The youth want goals in life and they cannot reach these goals without adequate educations and jobs.

3. I would like to say to the older generation of Marin City: Let the youth voice their opinions (new and progressive ideas). They are the men and women of tomorrow who will be the future residents and leaders in the community of Marin City.

Inmate Grateful For Kind Words

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The purpose of this letter is to express my sincere, heartfelt appreciation to each and every citizen of Marin County for their kind words and faith in me. It is indeed gratifying to know that in time of disturbing and difficult circumstances, there are people who actually practice forgiving from their hearts.

. . . My heartfelt thanks to each and everyone including my very dear, sweet wife for their undying faith of which I am sure restored a great amount of faith in myself. I will express myself a great deal better with actions by going out working very hard and earning the privilege of my wife and I living a decent, respectable life in a decent, respectable society.

Rescuers Are Thanked

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On the evening of April 17, our 5-year-old son fell from the back of our car as we were driving on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard toward San Francisco. Precious seconds or perhaps minutes passed before we knew that he was gone.

Two ladies, whose names we do not know, stopped to pick up the boy and comfort him. Shortly thereafter, he was taken to Marin General Hospital, where his injuries proved to be superficial.

My principal reason for writing, though, was to express our gratitude to the two women involved. It's our public way of saying "thank you" to them.

School Opinions Bring Thanks

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I would like to thank all the people of Stinson Beach and Bolinas who wrote letters in support of the school board's action in accepting Peter Auer's resignation. I would like to thank all the people who wrote in favor of Mr. Auer. Also all who came to both our meetings. Now we know what the people want, who we are trying to represent.

Out of this will come a better school system.

Disturbed About Use Of 'Negro'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Mr. Wellman and I are quite disturbed over a front-page article in your Tuesday (April 26) paper — in which the writer refers to "Three Tamalpais High School girl students and two College of Marin Negro youths." We thought this kind of journalism was a thing of the past in Marin County.

This type of selective identification does a great disservice to the efforts of those of us who are trying to bring about just treatment to all.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A DR. L. H. PARADIES, from down Texas way, sent a medical meeting into a tizzy when he declared that girls don't have to wiggle when they walk any more than men do; they just do it to drive poor lads crazy. Hollywood stars, just possibly egged on by studio press agents, leaped into the fray immediately. "Of course a girl wiggles when she walks," snapped the imported eyeful, Ursula Andress. "And it's very pretty — that is, if she does it right." Diane Cilento (who ought to know, since in private life she's the wife of .007 — Sean Connery) adds, "Women wiggle naturally because they're more flexible and mobile than clumsy men." English-born Sarah Miles wisely observes, "I think it depends on what a girl is wearing — or not wearing, don't you?" Ann-Margret winds up the discourse with an irrefutable "Why walk like a man? What fun would there be in that?" I guess the wrigglers have it!

IT IS REPORTED that one Southwestern college, famous for the powerhouses they send onto the football field season after season, had to drop an end from the squad, despite his skill at ducking defenders and snagging passes. It seems that every time he caught a long pass and chalked up big yardage, he couldn't find the huddle again.

'Creative Federalism' Just Means More Control From Washington

WASHINGTON — Have no doubt about it, President Lyndon B. Johnson's "creative federalism" is going to create more federalism, not more state-ism.

The President will soon send to Congress his message on this subject.

However he defines "creative federalism," there will be more federal grants-in-aid to the states, more federal influence in deciding what state government ought to do for its people, more federal control, and a constantly bigger central government.

MOST PEOPLE don't like this ever-larger flow of power to Washington but seem to feel that it is hopeless to try to do anything about it.

If the only way to enable the states to provide the public services which are urgently needed—and often long neglected—is for the federal government to lay out the plans, provide most of the money, and supervise how it is spent, there would be a strong case for doing more of the same.

The price would be heavy—the decay of state government.

But there is another way and now is a propitious moment for the governments, the state legislatures, and the mayors to mount a national campaign to persuade Congress and, if possible, the President, to support the plan to return to the states a moderate share of the burgeoning federal revenue.

THIS IS THE crucial time to press the revenue-sharing plan for three reasons:

1. The defeat of the Dirksen Amendment to dilute the Supreme Court's one-voter-one-vote requirement for reapportioning state legislatures means that state government will become more responsible and responsive. It will unshackle the state legislatures from a minority veto.

2. The affluent federal government has so pre-empted the sources of tax income that today there is hardly a state which has the resources to do the things needed to be done.

Without any increase in the tax rate, federal revenues are mounting by $6 to $7 billion every year. Most of the states which critically need to expand spending are poverty-stricken.

3. We are almost certainly at the point of no return. Either we will have a meaningful revenue-sharing plan or the federal government will increasingly take over more and more functions that should be done by states simply since the states do not have the resources.

IN THE END this will mean that nearly all political power will rest in Washington and the states will become mere administrative agents.

This revenue-sharing plan has its roots in both parties. Its principal initiators were Walter E. Heller, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers under both Kennedy and Johnson, and a Johnson-appointed task force on intergovernmental fiscal cooperation.

It has been ably advocated by two Republican groups, the Ripon Society and a special task force of the Republican Coordinating Committee. It has been strongly endorsed by the Governors Conference made up of 33 Democratic and 17 Republican governors.

In a let's-reason-together spirit LBJ likes to call on the governors to support him on such controversial matters as Viet Nam and inflation. It might be a good idea for the governors to reason together with LBJ on revenue-sharing.

Huge Construction Projects For Asia

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Military construction in South Viet Nam and Thailand is being expanded by 50 per cent to $1.5 billion and greatly speeded up to take care of a big build-up of U.S. military forces in the two countries.

By fall, the labor force employed in Viet Nam is slated to total more than 85,000, including 20,000 U.S. military and 5,000 civilian personnel.

THIS CONSTRUCTION force will aproximately double the 45,000 now working on airfields, ports, docks, roads, bridges, warehouses, cantonments and air defenses for major South Viet Nam cities.

Other workers on these projects will include 60,000 Vietnamese, half of whom will be from Army units, and 10,000 Koreans and Filipinos.

Construction personnel in Thailand will be increased from 10,000 to 20,000 to rush to completion a network of air, naval and communication installations and facilities for use in the Viet Nam fighting.

These and other still-to-be-disclosed details of the expanded military building program in support of Viet Nam operations were outlined by President Johnson and Defense Secretary McNamara at a White House conference with Democratic congressional leaders.

THE LEGISLATORS were told the construction schedule calls for completion of all major projects by the fall of 1967 — significant indication of the estimated duration of the Viet Nam war.

"We are making plans on the assumption that U.S. forces will be in Viet Nam for a long time," the President is credited as telling the lawmakers. "The deployment of troops will continue through the fall of 1967 when most of these projects will be completed."

Secretary McNamara indicated that the expanded building program is designed to handle the deployment and logistics for upward of 500,000 troops in that area, should this number be deemed necessary.

An estimated 300,000 troops will be in South Viet Nam by Aug. 1.

Many of the Viet Nam projects for which Congress voted funds in 1965 and early this year, such as development of the harbor at Camrahn Bay, will be completed by Sept. 1.

Other major installations, including of four jet airfields and harbor facilities and storage areas near Saigon, will not be finished until 1967.

SECRETARY Mc NAMARA stressed that completion of these projects will largely determine the number of troops and equipment the U.S. can support in Viet Nam.

Listed as under construction are 14 airfields and ports near Da Nang, Chu Lai, Qui Nhon, Nha Trang, Phan Rang, Vung Tau and Tan San Nhut. The site for a large jet base, capable of handling the strategic B-52 bombers, is still to be selected.

In Thailand, the largest airfield in Asia is being built at Sattship. Under the accelerated program, pipelines and storage facilities with connecting roads will be completed this year instead of 1967.

Three other airfields in northern Thailand, now being used for bombing attacks on North Viet Nam and the Ho Chi Minh trail in Laos, are undergoing extensive expansion and improvement.

Despite this tremendous building activity, General William Westmoreland, commander in Viet Nam, is understood to be urging that the number of military construction units be doubled. His recommendation has been pigeon holed for the time being while new Army construction battalions and supporting logistical units are being formed.

Sand Sharks, Sting Rays Caught Off Sausalito's Municipal Pier

It's the time of the sand sharks and sting ray at the Municipal Pier in Sausalito.

The Japanese current is warm and this is the time they are more plentiful in the bay, according to Swede Pedersen.

He said fishermen catch stingrays of 80 to 100 pounds. Swede's son, John, cuts off the serrated stingers, puts them in Clorox and then presses them to make necklaces from the stingers. The sharks, also called leopard sharks, are three to four feet long, 20 to 40 pounds, are not man-eating.

Pedersen also reports that Peaches, firehouse mascot of Station One, is singing her farewell song. She is about 15 years old, turning gray and slow of age. "We hate to see her go," said the fireman. The dog has a bed near the television set, is a Sausalito native, and knows the town from hill to water.

Asked what position he will play in the fireman-police ball game Sunday at Sausalito's Richardson Bay School, police Sgt. Stan Kelly replied, "I'm going to be all over."

GUNTUR GRASS, "Cat and Mouse" and "The Tin Drum" author, is to meet with Bay Area writers at a reception aboard the Sausalito ark, Omphale, May 14, according to Ward Evans. He will be guest of the German consulate but will be entertained also by ark owner, Virginia Barclay, called "The Perle Mesta of Sausalito."

Gloria Alee, eighth grader at Richardson Bay School, heading for Mount Holyoke, Mass., this summer for school, has a very professional story in the current "Thoughts of Youth" booklet published by the school. It is called "A friend; Lost."

Kevin Percy, about 4, brought his tiny turtle in the other day, saying "Frosty" had a checkup at the pet shop and was found to be in good health. Kevin said the test was made by pushing down on the shell to see if it was hard.

Stanley Bala, Mill Valley city engineer, announced to City Council Monday in Mill Valley that he and his wife, Jadwiga, have produced twins—Eva and Monica. Bala, who said they had expected but one youngster, passed out cigars and candy and was applauded by the audience.

IN THE AUDIENCE Mrs. Frances Ferrario, head of the Mount Carmel Salvage Shop, said she was checking on "the shenanigans" of the council. She would not admit she is taking the vacant seat of Manny Gomez although she frequently exercised her rights—the voice of the people.

Si Weil has a new display at Redhill with a glass of water and a doll in a bathing suit, titled: "Practice Water Safety." The caption reads, "Learn how to give mouth to mouth resuscitation without becoming emotionally involved."

We have learned that Jenna Roth has a dog named Henry Cabot Lodge and a cat named Horace.

The dog, she said, knows 10 words and is very smart. When you say "door," he goes to the door. When someone says "that's the way the ball bounces," he runs and gets his ball.

Asked about the names, Mrs. Roth said they got the dog when Henry Cabot Lodge was returning from Viet Nam to save the republic from Goldwater. Horace came to the Redwood Bookstore on a cold day. "He was black and lean as the Latin poet. So we named him Horace."

COUNTY COMMENT

By WILLIAM D. (BILL) FUSSELMAN

Golf Course Offer, Park Bonds Merit Close Study By Citizens

The following lines were cut from my copy last week because of space requirements: "There is another project of the Ross Valley supervisor which is difficult to understand. That is the gift to the county of a golf course just over White's Hill. Quite a number of people have said they feel the benefits (and to whom) are somewhat 'obscure' indeed."

FUSSELMAN

I had intended to discuss this in some detail this week and was delighted to find that the editorial last Friday was headlined, "Golf Course Offer Sounds Good, But Requires Study." Then in the letters to the editor section, on Monday, Mrs. Edward Kaenel of San Anselmo, in a four paragraph note, said she found the "offer" had several points that were "confusing."

Following this, on Tuesday, was a news story that the Kentfield Civic League had voted unanimously to oppose two county park land purchases — one the 18 acres of park land, in Kentfield, from the San Francisco Catholic Archdiocese and the other the purchase (gift) of the San Geronimo National Golf Course.

THEY WERE quoted as saying, "Nobody in Kentfield needs or has asked for a park." The Kentfield site, which is being pushed by the Ross Valley supervisor, is the same area he was urging, in 1964, be used for Senior Citizen low rent housing units.

The editorial about the golf course made this point: ". . . a venture of this kind calls for caution. A careful analysis, both legal and economic, would be in order before we commit ourselves to this proposal, however inviting it may be . . . ."

"While this may be a bona fide offer by owners dedicated as much to conservation as to commercial gain, we would not want hasty acts now to establish precedents for the future." The Ross Valley man was quoted in the April 27 issue of the I-J that he had been working on this idea, "for more than a year." He has been on the board for a year and four months.

HERE ARE SOME of the things to be considered: Is the operation of the Golf Course paying? If so, why the offer? Is it not a fact that in order to have a non-profit corporation take over and issue bonds a public agency such as the county must own the land? And further is it not a fact that this plan would immediately pay off the private investment instead of this being extended over a long period of years?

THE AUDITOR-CONTROLLERS'S office, while I was supervisor, made a very careful computation of such an arrangement through a non-profit corporation, when we were trying to finance the Juvenile Hall and County Farm improvements.

He told us there was a "finders fee" and that in addition to the interest there were many other carrying charges (extra points, etc.) which made the plan somewhat too expensive to be considered when other methods were available.

So I sort of wonder just how the bonds would be paid off without a sizable hike in the green fees and if this would not be difficult in a competitive field.

The final paragraph of the editorial went like this: "We do not want to set any precedent that would encourage promoters to use the county as an unwitting tool for private financial gain."

I would like to applaud the San Anselmo city council for its refusal to tell the people of their city how to vote on the $4.3 million park bonds. If a governing body is submitting a bond issue, I believe it is perfectly proper for the members to present any advantage to the taxpayers incident to the passage, but the city councils are not submitting these park bonds. It is the Board of Supervisors.

I hope to discuss this $4.3 million bond issue further next week.

ART BUCHWALD

It Happens To Mice; But Human Threshold Expected This Summer

WASHINGTON — Scientists are worried about the new fashions in women's clothes and their effects on the human male.

The short skirts, the topless evening gowns, and the bare bathing suits will soon be very commonplace, and no one knows how much further the male can be pushed before he loses all control.

One scientist who has been studying the problem is Prof. Heinrich Applebaum of the Advanced Institute for Provocative Behavior.

I visited the learned professor in his laboratory and he told me in a thick German accent, which I'll spare you, "We are reaching a threshold in clothes which could change the behavior patterns of every man and woman in the modern world."

"How's that, Professor?"

"WELL, LET ME show you. Naturally I cannot work with human beings as it is still too dangerous. So I have been doing my experiments with mice. Over here in this cage you see a female mouse and three male mice.

"Now the female mouse has a normal skirt which just covers her four knees. The male mice are relaxed and quiet."

"They don't even seem to notice the female mouse," I said.

"That's correct. Now I'm going to change the skirt on the female mouse, so that it will be several millimeters above her knees. I place her back in the cage."

"The male mice are becoming very agitated," I exclaimed.

"Exactly. They can't even work. Their pulse rate has gone up, their breathing is no longer normal."

"They're running around in circles," I said.

"Now, let us raise the skirt even higher, almost to the thigh."

"The male mice's eyes are bugging out."

"NOTE THAT two of them are frothing at the mouth."

"You'd have to see it to believe it," I cried.

"Let us go over to this cage," Prof Applebaum said. "I'm going to put a topless bathing suit on this mouse. Note what happens to the male mice that are swimming in the tiny pool when the female mouse appears."

"Two of the male mice are drowning," I said.

"It happens every time. The males get so agitated they forget how to swim."

"These experiments could have fantastic repercussions," I told the professor. "What is over in that cage?"

'These are female mice dressed in evening clothes. You will notice there are large holes cut in their dresses, and their bosoms are practically bare except for tiny band-aids.

"There is a little music box in the cage. When I turn on the music, the female mice will dance. Watch what happens to the male mice when I flip this switch."

"Heaven preserve us," I yelled. "The male mice have lost all control. They're chasing the female mice all over the cage."

"THE MALES have passed what I call the 'sex threshold,' which could be comparable to the sound barrier. There is no way of calming them down."

"Don't the female mice know what they have done?"

"They know, but they don't care."

"But if you translate this into human terms, it could mean . . . "

"Exactly," Prof. Applebaum said. "We're nearing the sex threshold now. By summer we may have passed it."

"Look, there's one male mouse that isn't doing anything. Does that mean there's some hope?"

"No, he's blind. He was left over from our cigarette experiments."

Marin Wants More Conventions, Needs Buildings To House Them

Conventions, which would be a natural industry for Marin, have been turned away for lack of facilities, according to Ray C. Schultz, chairman of the convention and facilities committee of the Marin Visitors Bureau.

"We're not out for large conventions," Schultz said last evening at a dinner meeting of the committee at Sabella's restaurant. "We want the overflow from San Francisco, conventions of 200-300-400, up to 1,000."

The Veterans Memorial Auditorium at the Civic Center will provide some facilities for conventions, "but we're still lacking housing," Schultz said. "If we had the facilities, we could have the conventions."

Schultz said the committee is seeking a means of financing convention facilities in conjunction with the memorial auditorium.

Ralph Devine, a representative of the Six Bay Counties Development Corp., a small business development corporation, said federal economic development funds would be available.

"You could form a special tax district or a non-profit corporation or there could be private financing," he said.

There were strenuous objections when Devine said the county could finance a motel near the Veterans Memorial.

"I was using the term county loosely," he explained. "But you have to have at least a quasi-governmental body or a non-profit corporation."

Paul Tunkis, another representative of the development firm, said eating and sleeping accommodations must be close to the convention hall to make the convention facilities suitable.

"There has to be planning to meet today's needs, and maybe 10 years in advance," he said.

Tunkis also advised that motels be constructed "with a dual purpose," so that if conditions change they can be converted into rest homes or retirement centers.

Marin affords an ideal location for conventions, and "has the areas for tourism," Tunkis noted.

Harvey Sawyers, chairman of the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors, reported that Mendocino has reached its peak in lumbering and agriculture and is trying to develop recreation to bolster its economy.

John M. Douglas, director of economic development for Marin County, said Marin has other potentials for development "right at the moment," aside from the convention potential.

"We've got the Point Reyes National Seashore," he said. "The ranger logged 177,000 visitors last year."

About 20 persons attended the meeting.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Private Swimming Pools May Soon Become Backyard Menaces

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teen-age questions to Youth Asked For It, care of Helen Help Us!, the Independent-Journal.

DEAR HELEN:

I like a boy but his little brother is a pest, and mean too. How can you keep him out of our swimming pool when his big brother is invited to go in.

That is a problem with almost everybody who has pools. You like one of a family but you can't have the whole family over or there wouldn't be any pool left. What to do?

—TIRED HOSTESS

DEAR TIRED:

Private swimming pools must be "By Invitation Only" or they soon become backyard menaces. Make this plain to your friends, and don't worry about getting tough: all pool owners do . . . or should! —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I have the biggest problem. My boy friend and I broke up, so my best girl friend said she'd help me get him back. Fine help she is! She got him for herself. Now they are going around together.

I want him back so bad I could just sit down and cry my eyes out. Don't tell me to forget him. I couldn't ever. —S.C.

DEAR S:

You can and you will, but you won't believe me now, so I'll say (again): the best way to get a boy back is turn your back on him. He would rather chase than be pursued. —H.

DEAR HELEN:

I'm a live-in baby sitter and care for this five-year-old girl who just won't learn to put her shoes on the right feet. I've marked one shoe so she knows it's for the left foot, but invariably she puts it on the right and vice versa, and then I have to help her change them. I thought it would help if I quit trying to help her, but it hasn't. What can I do? —B.K.M.

DEAR B:

If your small charge always puts her shoes on the wrong feet then she knows what she is doing — otherwise the law of averages would make her right half the time.

So I'd guess this is a bid for attention, and if you forget the shoes (let her wear them any way she pleases and she'll soon discover how uncomfortable they are) and concentrate on her less apparent needs the problem may disappear.

Those less apparent needs? Call yourself a substitute mother, rather than a "live-in babysitter" and you'll understand what I mean. —H.

NOTE TO PERPLEXED:

Telephone your Better Business Bureau and ask to have your contract checked. While all this sounds sneaky and underhanded (which it is!) I'm awfully afraid the fine print on the contract makes it legal. These sales companies know how to stay within the law.

When your mother put her name on that piece of paper, she agreed to a price which would probably shock you — though it sounded like a "bargain" at so much a week. A contract is binding. If she is sued, her credit rating suffers, and that is why most people pay up rather than fight. —H.

She has headed the board of the Volunteer Bureau of Marin, which is sponsored by the Junior League of San Francisco.

Bureau's Volunteer Of Year Began Service As Teen-Ager

"This was not on the agenda!" commented Mrs. W. James Lloyd as she accepted the plaque which pronounced her to be the Volunteer Bureau of Marin's Volunteer of the Year. Minutes later her term of office as president of the Volunteer Bureau's board of directors ended.

The outstanding volunteer is one who starts, often as a teen-ager or younger, in lowly jobs. Through varied and continuing experience she learns how to achieve the maximum in community service and satisfaction from her work. Mrs. Lloyd began her volunteer life as a teen-ager, when she spent a summer assisting the occupational therapist in the pediatrics ward of Stanford Hospital. She went on to work at Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Assn. in San Francisco, Children's Health Council in Palo Alto, Children's Receiving Home in Sacramento, and educational television stations KVIE in Sacramento and KQED in San Francisco.

THE LLOYDS MOVED to Mill Valley in 1962 and Pam Lloyd immediately became busy as a teacher's aide in the Marin School Volunteer Program, and later as Mill Valley's area chairman for United Fund, Chairman of Volunteers for the Psychiatric Unit of Ross Hospital, and a board member of the Marin Assn. for Mental Health.

In March, 1964, she was asked by the Junior League of San Francisco, of which she is a member, to be president of the Volunteer Bureau's board. The bureau is a league project in Marin, founded and financed by it.

Mrs. Lloyd credits much of her training as a volunteer to the league, which has as its stated purpose to foster interest in the community and to train effective volunteers.

A VOLUNTEER MUST learn how to keep home life and volunteer job in balance, too. Pam Lloyd's husband, an engineer at Johnson Service Co. in San Francisco, accepts her volunteer work as something she wants and needs to do and their children, Chris, 7, Katie, 5, and Jeannie, 3, have learned to be quiet when their mother is on the telephone, but they get their share of her time and attention.

Mrs. Lloyd is a native San Franciscan, who attended Smith College in Massachusetts and returned to graduate from the University of California. Her favorite hobby, shared by the rest of her family, is skiing.

WHAT LIES ahead in Mrs. Lloyd's volunteer career? She has begun a year as recording secretary for the Junior League of San Francisco, Inc.

New Hill P-TA President Has Large Bell Collection

MRS. BRESNAHAN

The volunteer director for Marin County schools in the program for the mentally handicapped, Mrs. Donald Bresnahan of Novato, has been elected president of the Hill Junior High School Parent-Teacher Assn.

She is also on the steering committee for the volunteer program in the Novato Unified School District, helping children that are slower in some subjects; is just beginning to work as a volunteer one morning a week in a class at Marion School and is a volunteer once a week in a classroom at the MARC training center in Lucas Valley.

Marjorie Bresnahan and her husband, a radio and television writer, have two boys, Mark, 11, and Erin, 9 years of age.

They came to Marin County from Chicago two years ago. Marjorie immediately became active in the Lu Sutton School P-TA, where she served two years as treasurer.

"I am also interested in gardening, tending our numerous pets, which include a gold fish, one horse, two dogs, four cats, two sheep and a guinea pig, and I spend a lot of time dusting the 600 bells in my collection," Mrs. Bresnahan said.

Her bell collection ranges in size from one as small as a large thimble with a French design to a school bell in use since 1892 in a one-room school. The bell was given to Mrs. Bresnahan when the school was dismantled for her activities in school work in their former community of Naperville, Ill.

Serving on the board with the new president will be Mrs. Louis Dorshkind, vice president; Leigh Metteer, second vice president; and Mesdames William Thompson, secretary; William E. Garl, treasurer; Wilma McDermott, auditor, and William E. Bolton, historian.

Hartzell Student Brochure Winner

Full county participation was sought and obtained at the recent luncheon held at Peacock Gap Country Club by the Marin Museum Assn. Mrs. Frank J. Keaton of San Rafael was chairman of the event.

The cover for the brochure at each plate was drawn by a first grade student at the Oliver Hartzell School. His name was Steig Klein and it was his interpretation of a "Visit to the Museum." Steig vied with 400 other grade school students throughout the county.

William Torrance of Fairfax and owner of Torrance Art Gallery in San Anselmo presented an exhibition of 11 paintings done by early Marin artists dating from 1839.

America's Mother Of Year Founded Asian Adoption Plan

MOTHER OF YEAR — Mrs. Bertha M. Holt of Creswell, Ore., was named 1966 American Mother of the Year in Washington Wednesday night by the American Mothers Committee. Mrs. Holt, who has six children of her own, once adopted eight Korean war orphans at one time. (AP Wirephoto)

CRESWELL, Ore. (AP) — She has met the president of South Korea and attended a state reception in honor of President Johnson, but America's 1966 Mother of the Year doesn't own a pair of white gloves.

Mrs. Harry Holt, 61, describes herself as a farm woman who doesn't need a lot of fancy clothes, yet her activities have taken her to Latin America, Asia and across the United States.

"I get around quite a bit for an old lady with 14 children," she says.

MRS. HOLT was named America's Mother of the Year Wednesday night in Washington. She already is Oregon's Mother of the Year.

She is a widow who has helped 3,500 Korean orphans find homes in the United States. In 1955, Mrs. Holt and her husband, who died in 1964, started an adoption program by bringing eight Asian children into their farm home.

From then until his death, Holt spent more than half his time in Korea while Mrs. Holt found herself in Creswell, near Eugene in the Willamette Valley, raising a second family, running a mushrooming adoption service, and working as a one-woman public relations agency for the program.

"Things were never the same after Harry arrived with our eight little ones," she said. "At first we had five in diapers at once. Our 'first family' was a great deal of help."

The Holts spent most of their private assets supporting the babylift operation and the orphanage which today has 36 buildings and houses 557 children.

HOLT ONCE was called a "slave trader" by the North Korean government and fought a continuing battle with social workers, U. S. immigration laws and adoption procedures.

Yet, awards include the Medal of Culture — the highest honor the Republic of Korea can bestow upon a foreigner — awarded posthumously to Holt in 1964, the Public Welfare Service Medal from the Korean government and an accompanying citation from the late Korean President Syngman Rhee.

Mrs. Holt's role in the project has been a quieter but equally vital one.

She received her nursing degree from the University of Iowa in 1926, but nursing is only one of her many skills.

IN 1956 SHE wrote a book, "The Seed from the East," in which she told the story of the first two years of the adoption service and the Korean orphanage run by Holt.

She even has directed and edited a movie illustrating the operation of the Korean orphanage.

Her 23-year-old daughter, Suzanne, and five other fulltime employes handle the bulk of office work for the agency. Daughter Millie, 31, is a missionary nurse in Korea working with orphans.

MARIN FILM FARE

'Harper' Recalls Bogart Thriller

By LES DARD

Here's what's to see this fine weekend at Marin area movie houses:

RAFAEL THEATER

Now on screen is the flashy new drama "Harper," with Paul Newman in the title role of a private eye. This is no Bondian imitation—it's in a class by itself and harps back only to the films of the late Humphrey Bogart.

Newman is a brash, intelligent, glib investigator who is called in to locate Lauren Bacall's roving husband. She doesn't want him back. In his search, Newman gets involved with the frantic, sinister world of the very rich and the slick underground alternately that provides for them and preys on them.

Aside from Newman, there is Miss Bacall's stepdaughter, Pamela Tiffin, who is engaged to Robert Wagner, a carefree ingratiating young man who meets a very surprising end. Arthur Hill plays the missing man's attorney and Shelley Winters is a fat, boozy one-time film star.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Elizabeth Hartman, Shelley Winters and Sidney Poitier star in "A Patch of Blue," a simple, unpretentious drama that makes a statement from the heart—something rare in films these days.

Basically the story is that of a blind girl, Miss Hartman, who has never been to school and is horribly mistreated by her slutish mother, Miss Winters, who won an Oscar for this performance. One day in a park she meets Poitier—an educated, sophisticated young man who offers her inspiration, hope and warmth.

Definitely the theme here is one of racial understanding, yet it is touched gingerly, and never overplayed.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Now playing is "A Thousand Clowns," featuring Jason Robards.

Robards plays a TV gag writer who resigns from gainful employment in order to be an individual again and to do the things he always dreamed of. But there are problems. For one, he is taking care of a twelve-year-old boy—his sister's illegitimate son—who loves and honors him for his unconventionality.

Yet when a pair of social workers drop in to check on the child, Robards is warned that he must either conform or the boy will be taken to a more "normal" home.

101 DRIVE-IN

Certain to appeal to those afflicted with the current epidemic of super-spy fever is "The Second Best Secret Agent In The Whole Wide World" (TSBAITWWW for short) — a real spoof's spoof.

Tom Adams plays the supposed good guy. He is staunchly true to form in his continuous pursuit of luscious females, and in his enthusiasm for doing away with the opposition (no less than 15 fall before his menacing silencer-equipped revolver.

Basically, this is the story of a dog and his devotion to a frontier family. The hearty animal's will to serve his young masters and his faithful efforts to protect them makes a tale to rend the hearts of young and old. The tragic climax is eloquent in its simple beauty.

Co-featured is another Disney from a few years back—the delightfully lovable "Bambi," one of the first feature length cartoons.

MOTOR MOVIES

The United States has its westerns, and Italy has their ancient Romans. The latest—and one of the best—exploitations of this theme is "Revenge of the Gladiators."

The setting is about 73 B.C. and centers around the fabled Spartacus, leader of the Roman slave rebellion. Roger Browne stars.

Co-featured is "Seven Slaves Against the World," another action bill in the same vein.

LARK THEATER

The new British influence is definitely here to stay—take for instance the glittering, irreverent drama "Darling," for which Julie Christie won the Best Actress Oscar.

Miss Christie takes the title role—of a girl who deserts her husband for the high-flying life. She becomes a jet-set jade, one of those young things who pop up in big city society simply because of their very special beauty. She first takes up with bookish TV commentator Dirk Bogarde, but then sees greater opportunities in a relationship with advertising executive Laurence Harvey. Nevertheless, she seems caught up in an alien world that moves too fast for her.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Also held over is the masterful "The Spy Who Came In From The Cold," a critical look at the grey, murky world inhabited by sordid little people licensed to maim society under the auspices of freedom and democracy.

Richard Burton takes the title role of a seasoned, cynical British espionage agent whose immediate assignment is to destroy the head of East German Intelligence. Burton is ably assisted by Oskar Werner, Claire Bloom and Cyril Cusak.

Co-featured is an equally engrossing film, "The Pawnbroker," starring Rod Steiger.

FAIRFAX THEATER

Held over here is the gold plated, eight cylinder comedy extravaganza: "The Great Race."

Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis star as the two major contestants in a crazy New York-to-Paris auto race in 1910. Curtis is the good guy, dressed in white, and Lemmon is the villain, dressed suitably in sinister black.

Pepperdine Says 'No' To Bequest

LOS ANGELES (AP) —A $1 million bequest granted on the condition that an honorary degree be awarded to an ultra-conservative radio commentator has been rejected by Pepperdine College.

The bequest was made by the late Dallas Bedford Lewis, a millionaire dog food manufacturer. Lewis died April 25. He was 62.

Under the terms of his will, the college was to have been given the money provided that former FBI agent Dan Smoot received a degree within six months of Lewis' death.

Children Will Write Script

A new type of children's play will be presented at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Novato Community House by the Castle Court Players, sponsored by the Novato Parks and Recreation Department.

In "The Magic Storybook," children in the audience will participate in creating the play.

This is achieved by the ruse of the actors arriving at the theater, setting up the stage, and then accidentally destroying their script. The director, Douglas M. Briggs, then asks the audience to help him. They will suggest characters and situations for the play, generally helping create the play. Then the actors will take the ideas and present the play. No two performances will be the same.

It will be presented again at the same hour on May 21 at the Novato Community House.

Coast Guard Training In San Pablo Bay

The Army Corps of Engineers will close part of San Pablo Bay for four hours May 22 so it can be used for Coast Guard training exercises.

Area involved is between the mouths of the Petaluma River and Sonoma Creek. It will be declared a "danger zone" between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. that day, and will be patrolled.

Tam Musicians' Performances

Tamalpais High School's Music Club will present the 1966 Spring Concert at 8 p.m., May 20, in Ruby Scott Auditorium.

The event is to be directed by Mrs. Mabel Pittinger and Laurence Nelson. On the same evening the Shakespeare Music Contest will take place with Anne Roth, Gwen Brown, Brian Mann and a vocal quartet participating.

Other musical events in which the club will participate are the opera, "The Mother of Us All," Sunday at Angelico Hall of Dominican College, San Rafael, and a backstage concert Monday at Ruby Scott Auditorium, Tamalpais High. These events are also at 8 p.m.

Marin Painters' Art At Torrance Gallery

Recent artworks by two members of the Marin Society of Artists will be exhibited from May 22 to June 17 at the Torrance Gallery, 128 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo.

The show will consist of oils by Maxine Fiaccadori of Kentfield and oils, water colors and collages by Bettyjo Norton of Larkspur. Gallery hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 5:45 p.m. except Sundays.

Horses On Block In Club Auction

A wide selection of horses for pleasure riding, breeding or show will be put on the block at the 1966 Atherton Club horse auction May 14 in Novato.

The auction on the club grounds at Atherton Avenue and Olive Street will include an informal horse show in which the animals are put through their paces and certified by their owners before sale.

Classes of horses being offered in order of presentation will be: English and Western pleasure horses, registered quarter horses, thoroughbred and standardbred horses.

Nixon Will Arrive On Los Angeles Visit

LOS ANGELES (AP) —Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is scheduled to arrive here tomorrow for a series of campaign speeches and a visit with his mother and other relatives.

Nixon will address San Diego and Monterey campaign meetings Monday on behalf of Robert H. Finch, his former administrative assistant. Finch is a candidate for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor. Nixon will speak again Tuesday at Newport Beach.

No Contest Entered In Mac Theft Case

A no-contest plea to grand theft was entered in Marin Superior Court yesterday by Robert Gordon Wade Sr., 47, charged with stealing a $500 check March 16, 1965, from Mac Appliance Sales Co., San Rafael. He will be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. May 24.

Wade, of 120 San Carlos Way, Novato, was arrested by Novato police Jan. 12.

Once practically all butter was made on farms, but today only about three per cent is home-produced in the United States and Canada.

Preliminary Bypassed By Westmore

Hardy Westmore, charged with the shooting death of College of Marin student Mike Lazar and the attempted killing of Janine Lieberman, waived preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court yesterday and was certified to Marin Superior Court.

Westmore, who was a janitor at the college at the time of the shootings last Nov. 5, is to be arraigned in the higher court at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

His attorney, Richard Werthimer of San Francisco, said he probably will plead innocent by reason of insanity.

Werthimer said psychiatric reports by three doctors indicate Westmore was insane at time of the shootings in his Kentfield apartment.

Westmore allegedly shot the students in an unexplained rifle attack. He was sent to Atascadero State Hospital Nov. 23, then returned March 25 after being pronounced mentally able to stand trial.

Both Werthimer and Westmore told Judge Peter Allen Smith of the municipal court yesterday they felt he was able to cooperate with his counsel and understands the legal proceedings.

Lazar, 22, lived at 1155 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield. Miss Lieberman resides at 4 Hillside Avenue, Kentfield.

Thomson Rehearsal Open To Students

Dress rehearsal of the Virgil Thomson-Gertrude Stein opera "The Mother of Us All" will be tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. in Angelico Hali, at Dominican College, San Rafael.

Students may attend the rehearsal on presentation of their student body cards. The Northern California premiere performance of the opera by the Symphony Guild of Marin is scheduled for 8 p.m. Sunday, in Angelico Hall. Tickets will be available at the door.

News Men Tour In Muir Woods

Thirty-two news correspondents from Europe and the Middle East will tour Muir Woods and Sausalito tomorrow as part of a three-day visit to the Bay Area which will begin this evening.

They are being given a two-week, coast-to-coast tour of the United States by Trans World Airlines, and are staying in San Francisco for this phase of their trip. The airline hopes to encourage foreign travel and spending in this country as a solution to the balance of payments problem.

On the tour are writers from Belgium, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom.

Judge Allows Firing Of Social Worker

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Judge Joseph Karesh ruled yesterday the Civil Service Commission can fire Harold Supriano, social worker who has visited North Viet Nam and taken part in civil rights drives.

Both times he asked leaves, Supriano said there was illness in his family. But Welfare Director Robert Burns said that during a 1963 leave he went to Mississippi for civil rights work and that in 1965 he visited Communist North Viet Nam.

Boat Assault Man Arraigned

Dean Morrison, 58, Piedmont builder, was arraigned in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on a felony charge of assaulting a fellow yachtsman with a boat hook last Sunday near Angel Island.

Judge Peter Allen Smith scheduled plea entry for May 19, then released Morrison on his own recognizance.

Morrison allegedly struck Dr. Herbert C. Enos, 48, Lafayette pschiatrist, on the head during an argument over a near-collision of their boats.

Cameras Banned For Dodd Query

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee has adopted a set of ground rules which would ban television, motion picture and other cameras when it holds public hearings in its investigation of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

Committee sources said the rules, adopted Feb. 2 to cover all investigations by the panel, will govern the Dodd probe unless changed.

The committee announced last week it would conduct public hearings in its investigation of "the alleged relationship" between Dodd and Juliss Klein, owner of a Chicago public relations firm. A date has not been set.

The festival will start at 11 p.m. at the Marinwood Community Center. Lori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Lynch Jr., also will preside at a May Day festival in San Francisco tomorrow.

TELEVISION PREVIEW

Emmy Nominees Up His Blood Pressure

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —The show to miss again this year is the Emmy Awards program, to be broadcast May 22 on CBS-TV. Each season the nominations are unfailingly trivial and generally meaningless. This year they are so absurd that they defy satire.

The idea of these television prizes, you may remember, is to award exceptional achievement. Yet there are so many nominations in the latest competition that they took up nearly two pages of a Hollywood show business trade paper. Would you believe that there has been so much outstanding quality on video this past season? And not just outstanding—but exceptional.

The Andy Williams show, for instance, is nominated in the variety series field. You may or may not like the program, but is there anyone in his right mind who could term it exceptional achievement? In the same category, Danny Kaye's show was nominated and even his most devoted fans must surely know the program had a bad year.

Carol Channing's one - hour outing, one of the disappointing shows of the season, was nominated as a top variety special. So was another program that hardly made the world stand still, "Jimmy Durante meets the Lively Arts."

Among the dramatic series nominated — and why there must be nominations to fill each category is beyond me—is, so help me, "Bonanza."

And how, by the way, could "Secret Agent"—the best weekly entertainment series on the air—not even get a nomination in this category, considering the competition anyway?

The nominations for the news and documentary field are lumped in such disorganized fashion that it seems impossible to make head or tail of them, and needless to say they generally follow the establishment line. What is equally noticeable is that, unless my lists are incomplete, several major accomplishments in these areas are not even mentioned. These include:

The "Town Meeting of the World" broadcasts, international debates via the Early Bird satellite which turned into the most distinguished series of specials of the year. And the brilliant and powerful NBC-TV documtary "Who Shall Live?," which delved into the unglamorous subject of artificial kidney machines, and showed how the lack of them—despite their proven effectiveness—is making it impossible for some patients to be treated, and tremendously expensive for others. This is may personal choice for the season's best documentary.

In fact, there is no doubt in my mind that "Who Shall Live?," in its field, and Barbra Streisand's recent special, in the entertainment area, are network television's two foremost programming accomplishments of the 1965-66 season.

Branson Sets Two Concerts In Afternoon

Two musical afternoons are scheduled this month at the Katharine Branson School in Ross. On May 22 at 4:30 p.m. students will present a concert featuring pianists and the school Glee Club.

Playing in the recital will be Cathy McBain, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Earle H. McBain, San Rafael, and Mary Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clarke of Kentfield.

The second musical afternoon will be on Monday, May 30, at 3:15 p.m., when French mezzo-soprano Claudine Carlson will sing. Miss Carlson was recently on tour in Europe and the Middle East with the Roger Wagner Chorale, and lately performed in Bach's Saint John Passion at the San Francisco Legion of Honor.

Her program will include works by Lully and Handel, cabaret favorites and Spanish folk songs, with specially composed arrangements by Miss Elinor Armer, who is in charge of school piano instruction. Eugene Ramey directs singing instruction.

Rockefeller Defends Women

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has gone to the defense of women.

"The greatest talent to be found in the United States is in our women and it is not being fully utilized," he said in a speech last night.

"Only one country, I'm sorry to say, fully utilizes their women and that is Soviet Russia," he added.

Cost Of Sewers Said Too High

Resident of Forrest Avenue in Fairfax were told by directors of the Ross Valley Sanitary District Wednesday that prohibitive costs of sewers will force them to continue with septic tanks, at least in the foreseeable future.

District Mgr. Ralph C. Noah said in a letter, signed by 16 home and building site owners on the street, asked the district to study the cost of extending a sewer line to serve them.

The board said an assessment district for this purpose would cost each of the approximately 40 home and building site owners there $3,500. "That's too expensive," said Noah, blaming the hilly terrain for the cost.

During his lifetime, George Eastman, developer of photography gave more than $75 million to schools.

Burglary Charge Filed On Davis

A burglary complaint was filed Wednesday by the district attorney's office against Robert James Davis, 21, of Larkspur, accused of burglary of his mother's store in Tamalpais Valley.

Davis, son of Mrs. Margurite L. Davis, a partner of Dan's Groceries and Liquor at 254 Shoreline Highway, was arrested Monday night as the person seen in the store early Sunday, but was released from county jail when no complaint was immediately issued.

An arrest warrant has now been issued on the complant, however.

SURVEYING NEW CAMPUS

First step toward development of College of Marin's north campus is this survey, being taken by a crew from the Novato engineering firm of Murray and McCormick. Purpose of the work is to determine topography of the 333-acre site so engineers can decide where the buildings must go. Shown are (left to right) Paul Todd, Harold Patterson and John Gibbons.

Mother Washington Fund Starts

Mrs. Booth Puts In $2 For Grave

Mrs. Carmel Booth, long-time firebrand of the San Anselmo City Council and now treasurer-tax collector of Lake County, has sent $2 to the Independent-Journal to start a fund for a marker for the grave of "Mother" Catherine Washington in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Writing from her home in Nice, Mrs. Booth said: "For shame with the money Marin throws to the winds that the markers could not be purchased. It makes me utterly sick at heart."

Mrs. Catherine Washington of Marin City was 104 when she died last year. She was given a pauper's burial, and lies in an unmarked grave.

"Grandma Washington buried in an unmarked grave after all the fanfare given her at each and everyone of her passing years is, to say the least, a crime against Christianity," wrote Mrs. Booth.

"I was responsible for the removal of bodies from Lucas Valley Hospital and Farm burial grounds after a battle before the board a few years ago. To say cattle are driven across the burial grounds is nothing new. At Lucas Valley they were always grazed over the graves."

Mrs. Booth, who left Marin in 1960, continued.

"There are many graves of ancient Chinese coolies, many of whom worked for the McNear family (both at the brick yard and in the shrimp and sturgeon fields) lost forever near the base of the hill behind the old TB sanatorium. No Catholic known to the local parishes was ever allowed to be interned at the Lucas Valley."

"For thirty-odd years I was a volunteer at your hospital and farm at least once a week some times three times a week. Believe me when things went wrong out there(and don't think they didn't) some one caught what for. As for county burials, I have seen them - enough said."

NEW GYM ROCKS AS COLLEGE CELEBRATES

The College of Marin's new gymnasium rocked to the new music yesterday as the Hollywood All-stars gyrated and sang to the rhythms of the Fireballs. Tonight, on the eve of the college's 40th anniversary, another new building will be dedicated on the campus, the College Center. The Associated Students will host a dinner for 350 persons in the new center. There will be songs by the College of Marin Madrigal Singers and brief talks by College President Stephen E. Epler, Associated Students President Allen Kelley, and others. (Independent-Journal photo)

YOUR ACHING BACK

Other Muscles Contribute To Soreness In The Back

By HANS KRAUS, M.D.

(Fifth in series)

When you go to your doctor for a thorough check-up, you may get an electrocardiogram. You will have your blood pressure and pulse taken. Your nervous system, your ears, eyes, blood, urine, heart and lungs will be examined.

All of these are good and necessary tests. But seldom are muscles checked for strength and flexibility. Few doctors test you to see whether your muscles can manage the weight of your body.

Yet muscles have a tremendous influence on over-all health. They even affect your metabolism and your emotional life. They help keep your entire heart and blood vessel system in good shape.

Your muscles are only as good as you make them. When you don't use them properly, they suffer and so do you.

Neglect or abuse the muscles that keep your body erect, and you are bound to get back pain. When muscles are weak through lack of exercise and tense because of irritation, they cannot do their share of keeping the body erect, and too much strain falls on the bones and ligaments of your spine.

Look at it this way:

Your spine runs from your head to your buttocks. It consists, in order, of seven cervical or neck vertebrae, then 12 dorsal vertebrae in the middle back, then five lumbar vertebrae in the so-called small of the back and, finally, the sacrum, a roughly triangular bone that connects the spinal column with the pelvis.

Vertebrae are the bony parts of the spine—but they are not directly linked to one another. Between each is a sort of ring of ligament with a soft inner section. These rings are called discs — and how many people have told you they have a slipped disc, or disc trouble?

Fortunately, slipped discs are not quite as common as you might think. Many persons who think they are suffering from disc trouble are actually victims of muscle strain in the back, and this condition can be corrected through exercise instead of surgery.

Besides the discs, there are other strong ligaments joining the vertebral bodies with one another and with the sacrum. On the back part of each vertebra is a bony ring. This holds the spinal cord. The center of the spinal cord consists of nerve cells. And around the center are great cables of nerve fibers that ultimately join the lower and upper part of the brain.

They are a two-way communication system — taking the brain's orders to the muscles and other parts of the body, and returning to the brain the sensations the body encounters.

The spinal column is the shape of a gentle figure "S". It is an elastic structure of muscle and bone. But, if it is to function correctly, and absorb sudden blows or continuous strain, it needs help.

That help comes from the trunk muscles. All of them, not only the back muscles, but the stomach muscles, the hip flexors and extensors, support the spinal column. They combine to keep it erect, and allow it to move. They protect by acting as an outer guard, and if they're in good condition, they can offset damage to the spinal column itself.

Working with the back muscles, strong stomach and hip muscles are also important to avoid back trouble. Some people always blame their back muscles, but the trouble may lie in these other muscle groups. They are often the first to weaken in our inactive life.

Suppose you spend most of your day sitting down. Your back muscles are active to keep you from toppling over. But at the same time, you let your stomach muscles go slack, and your hip-flexors are inactive as well.

If you got some exercise for them, the sitting inactivity wouldn't hurt. But, inevitably, you don't, and the muscles get weak, and they can't cooperate in keep your back erect. That puts a greater strain on the back muscles—and that leads to trouble.

Finally, adding tension, then stiffness, a simple act may produce the strain that will send those back muscles into spasm of rebellion. The result: pain.

As a matter of fact, muscle weakness may not have to contribute to back trouble at all. Tension—the tension of working in one position too long—can cause it all by itself.

Organic disease causes only a small percentage of back pain.

If you do suffer a sudden attack of back pain, lie down on a hard surface. A hard mattress over a board is best. The painful muscles should be covered with a hot pack—towels dipped in boiling water and then covered by a dry towel. To avoid scalding, the wet towels should be well wrung out.

And contrary to popular opinion, it is not how long the towel remains hot on the back, but how hot it is in the first place.

The sudden heat shocks the muscles and thus relieves the pain, until a doctor can examine the back and determine whether there is organic damage or not.

If there is, he must treat it. If there isn't, getting your back into shape again will probably be a job only you can do.

No Marinwood Bond Backing

Members of the Marinwood Parks and Recreation Commission last night were "noncomittal" on the proposed $4.3 million dollar county parks bond issue.

The Marinwood Community Services District Board earlier said that it was not interested in the bond proposal as all available land within the district had already been developed at the expense of district taxpayers. The parks commission is an advisory body for the district board.

Hypodermic Needles Found In Playhouse

A plastice bag containing 110 hypodermis needles, two lengths of clear plastic hose, some tubing and a pipe stem was found in an old, unused children's playhouse yesterday in Mill Valley.

The "kit" was found by Scott Bowman, 13, of 199 Tamalpais Avenue on the property of Blanche M. Hurley of 191 Tamalpais Avenue. Mrs. Hurley told police that the shed was built by neighborhood children years ago but has showed no signs of recent usage.

Frozen Meat Taken

Joseph J. Ancic told Mill Valley police last night that between Tuesday and yetserday someone entered his home at 77 Shelley Drive and stole an undetermined amount of frozen meat from his food freezer. There was no sign of forced entry, police said.

Wood Denies Asking Fulltime Pathologist

Richard F. Wood, candidate for county corner-public administrator, did not, as reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal, advocate hiring a fulltime pathologist for use by the county coroner during Radio KTIM's "Political Sounding Boards."

"If we had a fulltime pathologist, the amount of work he had would be so small in comparison, he would probably run out of practice. He might lose his ability," said Wood.

High School Youth Charged With Molest

A 16-year-old Novato High School boy was booked into Marin County Juvenile Hall last night on a charge of child molesting, according to Novato police.

The boy took a 5-year-old girl into wooded hills above Shevlin Road about 5:50 p.m. yesterday and molested her, police said.

Hunting is very popular in the rice fields of Arkansas because each year thousands of ducks come to feed on the rice.

Church Meeting Set In Marin Over Alinsky

Marin County Presbyterians will be filled in next Thursday on details of the proposal to bring controversial "slum-buster" Saul Alinsky to San Francisco and Oakland.

The meeting, which was first planned in San Rafael, will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday in Duncan Hall of the First Presbyterian Church, San Anselmo.

A report in Tuesday's Independent-Journal that the meeting was to be held last night was in error.

Rev. Wesley C. Baker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of San Rafael, said the meeting has been called primarily for Marin County Presbyterian leaders, but will be open to anyone.

It will, he said, deal with two questions:

1. Should Bay Area Presbyterians help residents of deprived areas in San Francisco and Oakland to organize their own community leadership?

2. If so, should this job be given to the Industrial Areas Foundation, headed by Alinsky?

Baker said the foundation is the only one of its kind and has been active in helping residents of metropolitan slum areas for nearly 30 years.

The San Francisco Presbytery, which includes Oakland, has already voted in favor of the project, and has pledged $200,000. Members of the Redwoods Presbytery, including Marin, will vote June 4 on whether to pay part of this sum.

Corte Madera Group Seeks Trees From U.C.

Directors of the Marin Estates Homeowners Assn. last night agreed to place an order for seedling pine trees with the University of California at Davis, reported President Albert Jones.

The trees will be planted on hillsides to prevent erosion and at the entrance to the Estates in connection with the town's beautification drive this month, Jones said.

Mental Health Center May Escape Federal Budget Ax

A federal stop order on assistance for community hospitals, issued yesterday will not delay design work now in progress on Marin's Community Mental Health Center, but it could delay start of construction, Dr. Clyde G. Miller said today.

Dr. Miller, director of the county's community mental health services, said the bid date on the two-story building next to Marin General Hospital was to be in July.

Yesterday's stop order on federally assisted projects under the state Short-Doyle Act, was issued by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Washington, D.C.

Secretary John W. Gardner of the department said he wanted assurance that projects would not be in areas of "concentrated construction" where costs would be inflated by the work.

Dr. Miller did not think Marin would be classified as such an area.

He said that Ellis Kaplan, architect for Marin's $1.35 million center, was told by a representative of the bureau of hospitals in California's Department of Public Health to go ahead with the work as funds were still encumbered in both state and federal budgets.

The federal government would contribute $450,000, the state another $450,000, the county would put up $150,000, the Marin Hospital District $150,000, and another $150,000 is to be raised in private contributions for the project.

Raid Leads To Arrests For Making Narcotics

A Lagunitas man and women, who allegedly operated a private narcotics-mixing plant in a small frame home, were arrested last night by state narcotics agents and sheriff's officers.

Booked for possession of narcotics and for manufacturing and use of narcotics and dangerous drugs were Eric Hoberg and Harriette Hutman Papio, both 30.

Sheriff's Inspector Kenneth Irving said he accompanied two state agents and Deputy Weldon Travis to Holberg's home on Arroyo Road about 8:50 p.m.

He said Hoberg and Mrs. Papio were there, and a search of the house turned up several pharmaceutical bottles filled with powders, two large sets of pharmacy scales, a microscope, and alleged narcotics paraphernalia.

He said the two allegedly have been making their own narcotics, but it was not known if they also have been selling the products, believed to be amphetamine.

Both remained in county jail at noon today in lieu of $5,500 bail each.

Tiburon Woman Hurt In Mishap On Highway

Mary Frances Wood, 27, of 2175A Centro East, Tiburon, was treated at Kaiser Hospital, San Francisco, yesterday after her car was hit from behind on a Highway 101 on-ramp south of Alto.

The California Highway Patrol said her car was hit by one driven by Ralph B. Rovat, 24, of 15 Marion Court, Apt. 3, San Rafael, at 7:50 a.m. She complained of hearache and a stiff neck afterward.

BETTER GET PERMITS FOR FIRES, BARBECUES

Ban on burning through Marin, including cities and unincorporated territory, will take effect May 15, according to Chief Carl Heynen of the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Protection District.

He is secretary of the Marin County Assn. of Fire Chiefs, who agreed on the date at a recent meeting. It is the same date designated by the State Division of Forestry as the start of fire season.

Burning of any type will require a permit from the local fire department. Incinerators may be used on a permit basis from 7 to 11 a.m. Outdoor barbecues will also require permits.

FLASH!

No "tight Money" problem at PETALUMA GARDENS
Unlimited mortgage funds to qualified buyers!

DEAR HOME BUYER:
If history repeats itself and all the experts say that it will . . .

YOU CAN LIVE RENT FREE for the next 30 years in a brand new home in . . .

• Petaluma • Gardens

A $20,000, 30 year mortgage at 6% calls for monthly payments of $119.92. Over 30 years you pay out $43,170.19, of which $23,181.19 is tax deductible interest.

But, you end up with a home fully paid for, whereas if you rent you have NOTHING. Best of all, in 30 years your home will be worth more than it cost, if the creeping inflation prevails that we have had since 1776.

3 & 4 Bedroom Homes
2 Car Garage
Starting at $18,425

42 custom features in every home, plus membership in a swim club, adjacent to a new city park, plus 100% underground utilities plus 1 master T.V. antenna, all AT NO EXTRA COST!

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

When Carpal Tunnel, Contents Swell, Misery Is The Result

VAN DELLEN

The carpal tunnel is a passageway in the wrist through which the median nerve passes on its way to the thumb and index finger. The narrow canal is bounded by bones and fibrous tissue and also contains the tendons of the flexor muscles of the hand. A bottleneck is created when any part of the tunnel or its contents swell; the nerve is the softest structure and usually suffers first.

WHEN THIS occurs the victim develops numbness, tingling, or an aching or burning sensation in the hand and fingers. This is most noticeable over the palm side of the thumb, index, and ring fingers. The distress is sporadic and usually is encountered at night when in bed.

The pain may awaken the victim from a sound sleep. Rubbing the hand, holding the arm up, or dangling it from the side of the bed usually brings temporary relief.

Others develop tingling when gripping an object. This is true of the housewife when she sews, irons, knits, or holds the steering wheel of the car.

Middle-aged women are favored. The syndrome often follows an injury or a rheumatic disorder of the wrist. Now and then the condition is traced to an infection in the ligament within the tunnel.

PSYCHIATRIC factors also play a role. Prolonged pressure on the nerve ultimately leads to weakness of the hand muscles.

Not all pain, tingling, numbness, or weakness of the hand is due to this condition. Nerve conduction tests on the nerve help to determine if the impulses are passing through normally.

Some obtain relief when the wrist is immobilized with a band or splint. Hydrocortisone, injected into the canal to reduce the swelling, helps others. Diuretics occasionally lessen the edema.

BUT SURGERY is the best remedy when there is proof that the nerve is being pressed upon and relief follows when the fibrous part of the tunnel is cut. This simple operation is performed under a local anesthetic.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

FILTERED AIR

D. writes: Some of our friends say we should not run an air conditioner when the weather is cool. They feel raising the windows for fresh air is better. My husband and I are more comfortable with filtered air. We don't like the night air or the dust from open windows. Will this harm our health?

REPLY

No. Filtered fresh air is a luxury, especially for those living in an urban area.

COLD IRRITATES

R. writes: Why do iced drinks induce coughing?

REPLY

Because cold irritates the back of the throat and stimulates the cough reflex. But this is an uncommon reaction, for most of us are able to drink ice cold liquids without being bothered in this way.

DIMINISHING HEIGHT

M. O. writes: Can an operation be performed on a young girl to decrease her height one or two inches?

REPLY

Possibly but it is easier to do with hormones provided she has not reached the age of adolescence.

INFLAMED LUNGS

K. E. R. writes: Please relate the symptoms of pneumonitis.

REPLY

These very from manifestations of simple bronchitis to those of pneumonia. Fever, cough, weakness, and loss of appetite are common.

Spaceman Bone Loss Of Calcium Controlled

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Center

WASHINGTON—One of space travel's greatest potential health hazards—loss of calcium from astronauts' bones—appears to be a smaller problem than previously feared.

The encouraging news for spacmen comes from a recent interpretation of medical data gathered during the 14-day Gemini 7 flight last December.

Gemini 7 astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. lost "considerably less" calcium and other nutrients in X-ray measurements of their heel bones and fingertips than any other astronauts, reports Dr. Pauline Mack, a space agency experimenter. All previous astronauts had flown shorter missions.

The calcium loss from the two areas measured has ranged up to 12 per cent in some astronauts. Doctors don't agree whether such data can be extrapolated to the whole skeleton. They say that a 12 per cent loss in bone density in the heel doesn't necessarily mean that all bones lose that amount.

In fact, experiments on monkeys confined to beds for long periods show that different amounts of nutrients are lost from different parts of the skeleton.

For some time, medics believed that men spending months of relative inactivity in space could suffer broken, twisted, or soft "jelly" bones on return to Earth. Now, says Dr. Mack, "we think proper diet and exercise will take care of that."

The fact that Borman and Lovell ate and drank better and exercised more in space than other astronauts seems to account for the smaller calcium loss from their bones, Dr. Mack said.

It's still uncertain whether relative immobility of men in space or weightlessness is the major culprit in softening the bones, but it's definitely known that the greatest calcium loss was experienced by astronauts L. Gordon Cooper and Charles Conrad Jr., who ate only about one-third of their space food during their eight days in orbit last August.

For the first time in the U.S. space program astronauts flew in their underwear part of the mission on Gemini 7. This enabled them to move their limbs freely, exercising muscles and bones.

Prior to Gemini 7, calcium loss averaged two to three times the amount lost by healthy young volunteers confined to hospital beds for the same length of time.

The Gemini 7 finding is considered encouraging but space medics would like to see more data from additional long space flights. The exact percentage of the loss hasn't been calculated yet.

No data is yet available from a related experiment which sought to evaluate the rate and amount of calcium change in the spacemen's bodies by comparing amounts of calcium eaten in food with that excreted.

Calcium is responsible for giving bones their strength and hardness and the body contains about three pounds of it. Along with calcium, astronauts have been losing such bone nutrients as proteins and phosphorus.

Despite the encouraging Gemini 7 findings, it's still unknown whether men can safely survive months-long space trips and even extended stays on the moon where the gravity is only one-sixth that of earth's.

Baptist Prof Leaves On Trip

Elmer L. Gray, chairman of religious education at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Strawberry, left Wednesday by jet airliner for a 46-day Sunday School teaching mission in Asia.

He is one of about 50 Americans taking part in the Asia Sunday School Crusade, sponsored by the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Gray will spend 34 days in Indonesia. For three weeks of his time, he will teach Sunday School in Semarang on the island of Java. He also expects to visit Tokyo, Manila, and Hong Kong before returning June 18.

McNamara Not Worried About Flying Saucers

By MICHAEL MOSETTIG
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara isn't losing sleep over reports of unidentified flying objects.

McNamara's views of UFOs were elicited by the House Foreign Affairs Committee in March when he testified in closed session on the administration's foreign aid bill.

The testimony, recently declassified by the Pentagon, was made available recently.

McNamara said each report a UFO is thoroughly investigated by Air Force scientists. "If anything, I am inclined to think the investigations are more extensive than actually required," he said.

Despite magazine articles and pictures, McNamara said the Air Force does not place "any real credence in the reports we have received to date."

"That doesn't mean that a report tomorrow may not be sound and warrant the full investigation that we give it," the defense secretary said.

McNamara said there is no indication that magazine photographs of UFO's "are anything other than illusions."

"The condition of the viewer and the physical circumstances in the environment at the time generally create optical illusions," McNamara said explaining the reports of UFO's.

McNamara also said there have been no discussions between the United States and the Soviet Union on UFO's. He said the Soviets have not reported any sightings to the U.S. government.

Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., a committee member, said his constituents were writing many letters on the subject. Gallagher said members of Congress wanted an official denial that the UFO's were the real thing.

Flint, Mich., made so many carriages in the late 19th century it became known as the "Vehicle City."

SANITARY GROUP COMBINE SOUGHT

But Local Agency Commission Hears Plan Needs Help From Reluctant Mill Valley

Steps toward formation of new districts in the Mill Valley area —one of them not too hopeful a step—were taken last night by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Commission Executive Officer John F. Barrows told the commission he saw little hope for creation of a Southern Marin Sanitary District that would consolidate four district systems and Mill Valley's system, unless the City of Mill Valley agreed to back it.

Mill Valley City Mgr. Bert Balmer said the city council was opposed, Barrows reported.

Nevertheless, the commission scheduled a hearing on the proposal for its June 2 meeting.

The plan, proposed by directors of Homestead Valley, Almonte and Alto sanitary districts, would take in these three districts, the city system, and the Kay Park Sewer Maintenance District operated by the county.

The little Kay Park district figured in another formation proposal for which commissioners were a little more hopeful last night.

That was the plan to create the Tamalpais Community Services District, which would encompass 6.25 square miles, go all the way to the Pacific Coast and include all of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and portions of the Almonte and Sausalito-Marin City sanitary districts, part of the Tamalpais Valley Fire Protection District, and the Tennessee Valley portion of Marincello.

Barrows recommended that the Marincello portion, where a county service area is planned, be taken from the proposal at once. This the commission agreed to do.

The commission also adopted a resolution creating a reorganization committee to study the plan, to include one representative each from Almonte and Sausalito-Marin City sanitary districts and Kay Park Sewer Maintenance District.

Proponents of the new district, members of the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club who collected a petition with 209 signatures for the new district, said the main idea was to provide recreation.

The district would also provide sewer service and garbage collection. It would not replace the fire district, because it would not offer fire protection.

Gale Bishel, a director of the Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District and one of the signers of the petition, said he could foresee the time when the area would be served by a larger sewer plant on the Pacific Coast.

The Tamalpais Valley Sanitary District now contracts with Sausalito-Marin City for disposal of sewage. This means, Barrows told commissioners, that Kay Park Sewer Maintinance District's lines "practically cross" those of Tamalpais Valley. Kay Park sewage goes into Mill Valley's plant.

Commissioners had hopes that creation of a large CSD district might correct this situation.

County Supervisor Peter H. Behr, a member of the commission, said the proposed Community Services district presented an "opportunity of tremendous value," but he said the politics would be extremely difficult.

The committee is to report on the merits of the proposal by August.

U.C. Senior Found Dead Near Bolinas

A 25-year-old senior at University of California in Berkeley was found dead in her car on Arroyo Canyon Road near Bolinas yesterday.

A garden hose had been taped to the exhaust pipe and led into the car through the left front window.

Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton said the woman, Penelope Dell Carr, had died of carbon monoxide poisoning.

No suicide note was found, but authorities said Miss Carr had been under psychiatric care.

The body was discovered at 7:30 a.m. by Edward Genazzi, an employee of the Bolinas Water District, who spotted her car on the road three miles north of Bolinas at the edge of Point Reyes National Seashore.

The coroner's office made no report on the discovery when checked yesterday morning by the Independent-Journal. Coroner Keaton, who reported it in the afternoon, said his office staff did not know about it.

Big Induction Jump Slated For July Call

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has called for the induction of 26,500 men in July. This is 11,500 above the June quota, but about 8,000 below the number being inducted in May.

All the July draftees will serve in the Army. The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force did not draw on the draft for July manpower requirements.

Former Premier Asks U.S. Move

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Tran Van Huu, a premier of South Viet Nam in the days of Emperor Bao Dai, suggests that the first move toward peace there must come from the United States.

Huu, 70, has lived in Paris the last 11 years. Winding up a month's visit to the United States, he told an interviewer this week:

"I am sure that if the Americans stopped the war, the others would too. The call to a truce can come only from the mightiest, the smallest cannot call for a truce. But if the mightiest called for a truce, the others would follow."

Motel Liquor Theft Value Totals $1,800

Thirty cases of choice liquors, with a wholesale value of $1,800, were stolen yesterday from the Bermuda Palms Motel at 737 Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael.

Motel owner Irving Litchfield, who discovered the theft at 11 a.m., said it must have occurred between the bar's 2 a.m. closing and dawn.

The burglars, Litchfield said, pried open the rear door to his office, then forced the door to the liquor storage room. The office safe—which was blown open a year ago when $5,000 was taken—was untouched. A crowbar was found in the office.

"There had to be a truck and more than one man to move all that liquor," Litchfield said. "But," he added, "I've been robbed so often, I've gotten immune. I've had 25 TV sets and I don't know how much linen stolen. I'd like to catch someone once, though."

Among the liquor stolen were cases of Jim Beam, Jack Daniels and V.O. bourbons; Inverness House, King George and Cutty Sark scotches; 10 cases of vodka and gin and a case each of Canadian Club and mixed cognacs.

Youth Arraigned On Lewd Charge

William Duncan Lindley, 20, of 101 H Street, San Rafael, arrested Wednesday by San Anselmo police, was arraigned yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on a felony charge of lewd and lascivious behavior with a 13-year-old boy.

Judge Peter Allen Smith set bail at $1,100 and scheduled plea entry this afternoon.

Lindley, who said he was "on leave" from College of Marin, allegedly committed the offense in San Anselmo March 11.

LONDON (UPI) —Coastal authorities warned shippers they may run into telephone poles in the English Channel. A shipment of about 2,000 poles was washed overboard from a Finnish freighter.

Tiboron Fire Budget Sets 12-Cent Increase In Tax

The Tiburon Fire District board last night adopted a preliminary budget for fiscal 1967 that may call for a 12-cent increase in the tax rate.

The board will vote on the final budget at its next meeting, June 2 at 8 p.m. at the Tiburon fire station.

The preliminary budget, totalling $179,056.98, shows an expected increase in the tax rate from 58 cents to 70 cents per $100 assessed valuation, based on a 5 per cent increase in assessed valuation.

The budget shows $78,165 for salaries, a figure that includes a 5 per cent raise for employees. Other major budget items are $17,850 for maitnenance, $40,000 in reserve, and $43,041.98 for capital outlay. The capital outlay figure includes the final payment of $22,000 on Station 2.

The board also elected new officers. James P. Jenkins was elected president; Fred Mantegani, vice president, and George Drejes, secretary.

Galvanizing Fluid Blast Burns Worker

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—One workman was critically burned and another severely injured last night when a fluid exploded at San Francisco Galvanizing Co.

San Francisco General Hospital said Manuel Reygosa, 25, was critically burned by the fluid. His working companion, Conrad Stephens, 36, was in serious condition.

Committee On Peace Formed By Council

NEW YORK (UPI) —The National Council of Churches has expanded its international affairs program with creation of a permanent Advisory Committee on Peace to coordinate, explore, promote and participate in global peace moves.

The committee, which will begin operations July 1, will be headed by the Rev. Dr. Robert S. Bilheimer, senior minister at Central Presbyterian Church, Rochester, N.Y., and former World Council of Churches' program secretary for North America.

Department Store Worker Jumps From Gate Bridge

A 26-year-old San Francisco department store employee jumped to his death from the Golden Gate Bridge shortly after 2 p.m. yesterday.

The California Highway Patrol said he was Ferdinand Paul Pechin Jr. of San Francisco, who lived alone in an apartment and had no known survivor.

A bridge painter, Ralph Disharown, said he saw the man climb over a railing 50 feet south of the one he was painting on the east walkway. Pechin jumped before Disarown was able to run to the spot.

The Coast Guard found the body five minutes later.

San Francisco authorities said Pechin left a note in his apartment asking that his body go to a medical school. It requested that the proceeds of an insurance policy go to the San Francisco Boys Club and his other possessions to the Society of Friends.

Highway patrol figures show Pechin as the 302nd known suicide from the bridge.

Prisoners Not Helpful In Stabbing

Fourteen closed mouths at San Quentin Prison today were frustrating attempts by prison authorities to discover the killer or killers of convict Manuel Anthony Zamora, 25, stabbed to death Tuesday.

Officials continued questioning 14 men who were among the group of 25 who shielded the stabbing from guards as it took place near the linen room.

If the men under suspicion knew anything, they weren't saying. "It appears they are not giving anything away at the moment," said Associate Warden James W. L. Park.

Motive for the murder of Zamora, a convicted robber from Los Angeles County, remained a mystery. A knife-like instrument, which could have been the murder weapon, has been found but not yet traced to an inmate.

More Tax Delays On Withholding

WASHINGTON (UPI) —More people than usual fell behind on their taxes last year as an indirect result of underwithholding in 1964.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said yesterday more than 1 million taxpayers ended 1965 owing the government a total of $1.3 billion. The number of delinquent taxpayers was up 17 per cent and the amount of unpaid money increased by 7 per cent over the previous year.

The IRS attributed most of the increases to the five-month extension many taxpayers were given beyond the April 15 filing deadline to pay taxes for 1964. Many taxpayers were underwithheld in 1964 because the big tax cut bill of that year cut the withholding rate faster than the tax rate.

Stinson Beach Wildflower Show Opens Tomorrow

Stinson Beach will be the site of the Ninth Annual Wildflower Show tomorrow and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., in the Community Center.

Flower show founders, Mrs. Arthur Menzies, Mrs. Kenneth Shockey and Mrs. Edward E. Leary, were to return today from collection trips over much of the state.

A feature display of this year's show will be shrubs from Mount Tamalpais. The display is being prepared by Arthur L. Menzies, superintendent of plant accessions at Strybing Arburetum in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

Admission will be charged visitors. Tea will be served.

District Attorney Seeks Old LSD Bill

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 31 Los Angeles County assemblymen are being urged by Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger to take floor action to restore to original form a bill outlawing possession of LSD, a drug embodying hallucinatory qualities.

Younger criticized Thursday the assembly's criminal procedures committee action that deleted from SB 6 the clause outlawing possession. He said that as the bill now stands it merely gives stiff penalties for its sale, and its possession for sale.

Governor Will Sign Molotov Cocktail Law

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rioting in the Watts district of South Los Angeles last August has inspired a new law.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown said he will sign today a bill providing stiff penalties for possession of fire bombs or Molotov cocktails, and making it illegal to assault or interfere with a fireman in the performance of his duties.

Exhibitionist Is Doubtful For The Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Exhibitionist, owned by Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs, became a doubtful starter today for tomorrow's Kentucky Derby and Sean E. Indian was all but counted out of the line-up.

Exhibitionist injured his nose, probably in his stall, sometime during the night. There was no sign of serious infection and trainer Hirsch Jacobs said the injury may well clear up before the 2:30 p.m., PDT post time tomorrow.

Meantime, owner-trainer Mrs. Mary Keim and Dr. Alex Harthill, veterinarian, said it was very doubtful if Sean E Indian would start. The son of Seanee injured his right leg sometime yesterday before 16 horses were entered in the 1¼-mile race.

In fact, Sean E Indian was so doubtful that trainer Jim Padgett took steps to secure Earlie Fires, down to ride Sean E Indian, as the jockey for Blue Skyer, a last-minute entry.

Bill Shoemaker, trying to become the first jockey in 64 years to ride two Kentucky derby winners in a row, will climb aboard the pre-race favorite, Abe's Hope tomorrow.

A field of 16, including two questionable starters, were entered yesterday, each adding $500 to the Derby pot. If all start, the 1¼-mile classic will gross $164,000. If any drop out, its starting fee of $1,000 will be subtracted from the total.

Second choice at 7-2 before the betting starts was shared by Mrs. H. C. Phipps' Stupendous, carrying the colors of the Wheatley Stable, and Kauai King, owned by Michael J. Ford of Omaha.

Reginald Webster's Amberoid, the winner of the Wood Memorial, was next at 6-1.

Shoemaker, beginning to grey a little at 34, will be starting in his 15th Derby, more than any other active rider. The retired Eddie Arcaro holds the all-time record with 21 appearances and six winners.

Shoemaker has won three times, including last year with Lucky Debonair. Just being in the race, he says, still is the biggest thrill in his life.

"It's like a golfer being in the Masters Tournament," Shoemaker said. "Sure, you get excited."

The last jockey to ride consecutive Derby winners was Jimmy Wingfield in 1901-02.

Still in doubt as Derby starters are Sean E Indian, with a bothersome leg scratch, and Blue Skyer.

"They just talked to me into entering," trainer Jim Padgett said after he pulled a surprise and made Blue Skyer the last entry in the box.

Padgett, sounding very doubtful, said Ray Broussard will be his jockey "if we really start."

Sean E Indian may not go because of a slight leg injury.

3 New Records In Marin Track Trials

Three Class A league records were shattered in yesterday's field portion of the Marin Athletic League track and field trials at Drake High School, San Anselmo. Track events were scheduled today, 4 p.m. at Drake.

Drake's Doug Manuel tossed the discus 53 feet, 5½ inches, breaking his own record of 53-2½, established last year; Redwood vaulter Jeff Hicks soared 12-10, erasing the old league mark of 12-9¼; and big Gary Wittenmeier of Marin Catholic made another by busting his own mark in the discus, eclipsing last year's toss of 142-5½ with a 143-0.

All events had eight qualifiers with the exception of the shotput which had nine because of errors made by meet officials in listing the order in which each boy finished. The errors were discovered when Novato shotputter Ron Sparling insisted he hadn't qualified because he had been beaten out for eight place. His honesty, combined with the officials' errors, made him a qualifier.

Qualifiers and best heights and distances:

Shot Put—Manuel (D), Beerbower (S.R.), Rowe (R), Wittenmeier (M.C.), Hickerson (D), Borges (T.L.), Gagen (S.R.), Sparling (N), Dukes (T.L.), 53-5½ (new league record; old record 53-2½ set by Doug Manuel last year).

Long Jump — Jackson (T), Turner (T), Blasingame (T), Swanson (S.R.), Banks (T.L.), Howell (R), Johnson (N), Heisler (S.R.), 22-½.

Pole Vault — Hicks (R), Loback (T.L.), Dondero (R), Stewart (N), Fontana (R), Sauber (N), Widmer (S.R.), Salum 12-10 (new league record; old record, 12-9¼).

Discus — Wittenmeier (M.C.), Bortfield (S.R.), Otis (N), Scott (R), Gagen (S.R.), Dukes (T.L.), Tobiason (R), Sthymmill (T.L.), 143-0 (new league record; old record, 142-5½, set by Gary Wittenmeier last year).

High Jump—Stark (T), Palmer (N), Balzan (S.R.), Lennahan (M.C.), Adams (T), Cole (R), Bowman (T), Arnsberg (T.L.), 5-8.

Whoosh! Giants Grab League Lead In A Breeze

UCLA Snares Dean Lazzarini; How The Westwood Was Won...

HOW THE WESTWOOD WAS WON:

Them as has, gits.

It's like giving Rockefeller a dime. Or Doda a shot of silly cone.

What I mean is, Marin's finest athlete is going Hollywood. Well, not really; I mean Dean Lazzarini is going to UCLA, which is in Westwood, just a short Rolls-Royce drive from Hollywood.

The sensational gridder-sprinter announced last night "I'm 95 per cent sure of going to UCLA. I'll sign my letter of intent either tonight or tomorrow."

DINO THE LAZZ reached his decision after carefully studying oodles of scholarship offers. He visited four campuses, turning down four more invitations from the Big 10 because "It's too far from home," and settled on UCLA because of its "tremendous athletic program."

Like I said five paragraphs ago, UCLA is loaded with talent. Lew Alcindor was the Bruins' prize basketball catch and, according to Lazzarini, "they've got a great freshman football team coming in, I understand." All UCLA sports are riding high.

A PORTION of that frosh grid squad will be the Drake High senior who has wowed Marin grid and track fans for three years, gaining more publicity for San Anselmo since Carmel Booth.

Dean seriously considered Washington and Cal. "I really like Washington; their coach, Jim Owens, is great," he said, "but all that rain up there discouraged me. Cal's coaching staff impressed me, but Berkeley is too close to home. When you go to college you want some independence.

"UCLA IS just right—not too near, not too far. I won't be able to run home anytime I feel like it, yet it's close enough so I can come home on holidays. And my folks will be able to see me play. One of the reasons I turned down the Big 10 was it's just too far from home."

Dean said he would concentrate on football at UCLA, although his 9.6 clocking in the 100-yard dash would suggest a track future. "I'm just not too hot for track," he smiled. "Football is my sport," which is saying a mouth full.

DEAN MADE these comments at last night's Radio KTIM Sportsman's Club's banquet honoring the two top athletes from each of the seven schools in the Marin Athletic League. (See photo, page 40.)

In spite of a stirring patriotic speech by Maj. Gen. Andrew Lolli, commander of the Western Air Defense Command, not one of the 14 top athletes expressed a desire to enter the military. Tam's Ken Blasingame, however, said he planned to major in Military Science. At Cal, which is 3,000 miles from West Point.

If you'll be kind enough to tune in tomorrow I'll cue you in on the future plans of the cream of Marin's athletic crop. Pretty please.

OOPS!—This was the play that gave the Giants a 9-8 victory over the Dodgers at Candlestick Park yesterday. Los Angeles outfielder Tommy Davis chased a fly ball off the bat of Jimmy Hart and—BINGO—he dropped the wind-blown missile, allowing Ollie Brown to score the winning run in the 10th inning. Wind A Big Help In Win Over L.A.

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Candlestick Park's capricious winds deserve some of the credit for the virtual first place tie held in the National League today by the San Francisco Giants as they headed away from home.

The Giants completed a three-game sweep over the Los Angeles Dodgers yesterday while the Pittsburgh Pirates lost to Cincinnati.

So San Francisco stands 15-7 for the young season and Pittsburgh 13-6. In percentages, the Pirates lead by .002, but on the basis of games won and lost, the Giants hold a half game edge.

Los Angeles left for Cincinnati and San Francisco for St. Louis and games tonight. Neither will soon forget the vagaries of the breezes in their latest meeting, an untidy session including six errors. One was by the Giants' Willie Mays, his first of the season.

The Giant won 9-8 in the 10th inning when Dodger center fielder Willie Davis dropped a line drive by Jim Hart which scored Ollie Brown from second base.

"That ball just stopped in the wind," declared Davis who was charged with an error on the play.

Just the inning before, Len Gabrielson slammed a hit that sailed past Davis for a double and the harassed defender explained, "The wind carried that ball."

Mays, who plays the same position, didn't blame the weather for his error but commented:

"Whatever he said about the wind, believe him. It was doing all kinds of things out there. I couldn't even explain to you what it was doing."

Brown, San Francisco's rookie right fielder, said, "Every minute the wind was changing. Every pitch you had to look to see which way it was blowing."

Still, winning pitcher Bob Priddy said there was virtually no breeze on the inner diamond when he hurled the final frame.

The Giants jumped on Dodger ace southpaw Sandy Koufax and held a 7-0 lead by the end of the second inning when Koufax already had departed for the locker room.

The Giants can't blame the wind for blowing the lead but by the bottom of the fifth the score was tied. San Francisco starter Bob Bolin allowed just three hits prior to his departure, but each was a homer — a two-run poke by Wes Parker and solos by Ron Fairly and Lou Johnson.

Davis robbed Hart in the sixth when he leaped above the fence in left center to haul down a drive. Then the Dodgers drew ahead in the eighth aided by a pair of errors on one play.

The Giants tied it again in the bottom of the inning on singles by Jack Hiatt, Davenport and Brown as the wind whipped debris around the park.

Heading away from the Candlestick breezes, the Giants send Gaylord Perry to the mound tonight opposing Bob Gibson while rookie Don Sutton goes for the Dodgers against the Reds' Milt Pappas.

Canadiens Win Playoffs

DETROIT (AP)—For the first time in his life, Henri Richard knows exactly how his big brother felt when he scored six overtime goals in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

His brother, Maurice (The Rocket), remains five up on him but the goal Henri scored last night has to be the biggest of his life. It gave the Montreal Canadiens an overtime 3-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings and a second straight Cup.

The Canadiens became only the second team in the 40-year modern history of the Cup to win it after dropping the first two games in the best-of-7 series. Montreal won four games in a row in gaining its 12th Cup championship.

Richard, bothered by a leg injury during the semifinals, did not score a goal in the playoffs until he put on the red light at the 2:20 mark of the overtime session.

"Dave Balon shot the puck across to me and someone grabbed my stick and the puck hit me and went in," Richard said.

He added that someone else should be basking in the glory of getting the winning marker.

"It should have been someone like J.C. Tremblay of Jean Beliveau, who played well all through the series that should have got the goal, not me," he said. "But don't get me wrong. I'm glad I did".

Detroit goalie Roger Crozier, who was named the Most Valuable Player in the playoffs, had a different version of the game-winner.

"Richard was flat on the ice and he knocked the puck in with his glove," Crozier said. "I protested to referee Frank Udvari but he said the puck was in and that was that."

Red Wings' Manager-Coach Sid Abel said his only regret was that the series had to be decided on a flukey goal rather than a good, clean hard shot.

Montreal Coach Toe Blake, who has now won seven Stanley Cups, explained he was confident of victory after the Canadiens won the third game to cut Detroits' lead to 2-1.

"Beliveau was the big guy for us that night and he has been one of our joys ever since," Blake said.

"They outplayed us but we still won," Blake continued, pointing out the 30-22 shooting edge held by the Red Wings. "It's the goals that count."

Neither Blake nor Detroit defenseman Bill Gadsby announced plans for retirement. Both had been rumored as ready to call it quits after the series.

"I'm not sure...I want to talk with Abel and Bruce Norris (club owner) in the next couple of weeks," Gadsby said.

Beliveau opened the scoring at the 9:08 mark of the first period and Leon Rochefort scored the Canadiens' second goal midway throught the second period.

Norm Ullman of Detroit tipped in Alex Delvecchio's shot from the point soon after Rochefort's goal and Floyd Smith of the Red Wings scored with 9:30 to go in the third period to send it into the overtime.

Ullman topped all scorers in the playoffs with 15 points on six goals and nine assists.

Champs Golf Again Is Washed Out

HOUSTON (AP) — Rain washed out the $117,000 Champions International Golf tournament for the second straight day today.

The first round of the 72 hole tournament now is scheduled to start tomorrow.

Bob Rule, executive secretary of the sponsoring Houston Golf Assn., said plans now call for 18 hole rounds tomorrow through Tuesday.

"Tuesday is absolutely the last day we can play here," Rule said. "The players have committments to play next week in the New Orleans Open.

"We hope we can get in 36 holes Saturday and Sunday. Then we can cut the field for the final 36 holes and play the final two rounds on the same day if the weather demands."

After three days and two nights of almost continuous rain, water was standing in the fairways and on the greens.

Clearing skies were forecast for Saturday.

Perris Favored Tomorrow In Golden Gate Handicap

ALBANY (AP) — Highweighted Perris heads a field of nine expected at the starting gate tomorrow for the 20th running of the $30,000 added Golden Gate Handicap.

Perris, carrying 122 pounds with Alvaro Pineda in the irons, probably will go postward a slight favorite. he won the $15,000 added Sacramento Handicap at one mile and a sixteenth in his latest outing.

Lanky Bobby Jennings has been named to ride the Sunrise Stable's Switchback, the second high weight at 119. Sunrise also has Ask Father in the race with 112 pounds.

Switchback and Ask Father finished one-two in an allowance race last week.

Others in the starting field are expected to be High Perch, 118, Whit's Pride and Sheldrake, 117, Black Pool, 112, Zula Lad and Maretazo 2nd, each 111.

The leading rider at the conclusion of tomorrow's racing will be presented the first annual Johnny Longden Award on Monday when the Jockey's Guild celebrates its 26th anniversary.

THE MAJOR LEAGUES

Boccabella Stars But Cubbies Lose

John Boccabella, former San Anselmo Little Leager who grew up into a big leager, was a one-man gang for the Chicago Cubs last night, but his batting heroics went for naught as the hapless Cubs bowed to the Houston Astros, 4-3 in a 13-inning thriller at Houston.

Playing first base, just one of three positions in his utility repertoir (he's also a catcher and outfielder), Boccabella drove across all the Cub runs on a homer with one on in the fifth inning and a double in the seventh that knocked in Ron Santo with the tying run.

Boccabella's homer was his first of the year. He was two for five in the game that the Astros finally won in the 13th inning when Joe Morgan and Jim Wynn singled around an infield out.

Elsewhere on the major league scene yesterday, San Francisco beat Los Angeles 9-8 in 10 innings (story on page 39), Atlanta edged Philadelphia 4-3 and Cincinnati walloped Pittsburgh 10-6.

In the American League the Cleveland Indians shut out New York 4-0 and California blanked Kansas City 1-0.

The Braves pulled ahead of the Phillies with a two-run seventh inning produced on a double by Denis Menke, Felipe Alou's single and a double by Hank Aaron. Joe Torre hit his seventh homer for the Braves and Lee Thomas hit his sixth, while Tony Taylor connected for the Phillies.

The Reds outslugged the Pirates with Don Pavletich and Pete Rose hammering homers and Leo Cardenas driving in three runs with a pair of singles. Joey Jay, tagged for homers by Roberto Clemente, Jim Pagliaroni and Jesse Gonder, got credit for the victory and became Cincinnati's first two-game winner.

Laguna Seca Race Set This Weekend

MONTEREY (AP) — Qualifying starts today for the big Laguna Seca sports car race, a wide open event this year.

No clear cut favorite has emerged for Sunday's 150-mile feature, the third in the current series of United States Road Racing Championships.

A full series of regional amateur races will go tomorrow over the 1.9-mile course with its nine turns on the tip of Ft. Ord. In addition to the big race Sunday, there will be the regional finals and a special event for sedans.

John Cannon, winner in the first USRRC race this year at Las Vegas, Nev., and Buck Fulp, the Riverside winner last weekend, are on hand. Cannon drives television star Dan Blocker's Nickey Chervolet. Fulp pilots a Lola-Chevy.

The two USRRC point leaders also will appear. They are Chuck Parsons of nearby Carmel in a Genie Mark 10 and Skip Hudson of Riverside in a Lola-Chevy.

A total of 24 cars will advance from the qualifying today to the Sunday feature. Nine more entries will emerge from a short qualifying race Sunday.

Included in the late qualifying is Bill Amick of Portland, Ore., the 1965 late model stock car champion. He'll drive the untriedMcLaren-Comet in his first attempt at big time sports car racing.

Perhaps the oldest driver on the circuit, 59-year-old Briggs Cunningham, will try to qualify a Porsche 904. If successful, the Los Angeles senior citizen will let alternate Scooter Patrick drive the car in the race.

Drivers will fight for an overall purse of $15,500 with $2,500 to the winner and $1,700 for the runner-up.

Fulp beat Hudson at Riverside by less than a second. A McLaren-Chevy driven by Maryland's Charlie Hayes couldn't finish because of a faulty rear end.

JFK Soccer Trophy Up For Grabs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two California teams, one from San Salvador and one from Canada, will compete this weekend for the John F. Kennedy Cup, emblematic of the Pacific Coast soccer championship.

The Vancouver Firefighters will meet San Francisco Select in a 1 p.m. game tomorrow at Balboa Stadium. The Deportio Universidad Club of San Salvador meets Los Angeles Select in a 4 p.m. contest.

The winners play Sunday at 3 p.m. for the cup, given by the late President five years ago when the tournament began. The Saturday losers play in the preliminary contest on Sunday.

The Firefighters have a 20-1 record. Deportivo defeated Santos Club of Brazil for the Latin American championship. Pele, the Willie Mays of soccer, plays for Santos. The California squads are all-star teams.

REC SOFTBALL

Gary Swarm aided his own cause by slamming two home runs and driving across four runs as he pitched Sohner Tree Service to a 12-0 victory over Indian Valley Lumber Co. last night in the San Rafael Recreation Department's Class A Softball League at Albert Field.

In the other scheduled game, Cain Tires won by forfeit over the Larkfield Merchants of Santa Rosa.

Blankenburg Is Drake Golf Star

Two neuro-surgeons were called in yesterday but no surgery was performed.

Maury Wills Was Extravagant In His Prediction For L.A. Dodgers

HANLEY

Most pre-season predictions about the 1966 National League baseball race were on the conservative side. One, however, was a bit extravagant. Maury Wills said at the outset of the race that the Dodgers "could run away and hide."

No National League team has been able to do that in the past decade and the way the current race is going, no club has displayed an ability to do it this year.

ON THE SAME day Wills was predicting a potential Dodger runaway, Herman Franks was declaring: "You can throw a blanket over half a dozen teams. I wouldn't think of trying to predict the outcome."

As the first month of the campaign nears an end, it is possible to throw a blanket over half a dozen teams but one of them is not Cincinnati. The Reds, without Frank Robinson, are off to their shakiest start in years and Bill DeWitt who traded the big belter to the Orioles for Milt Pappas, is hearing about that trade from Crosley Field fans.

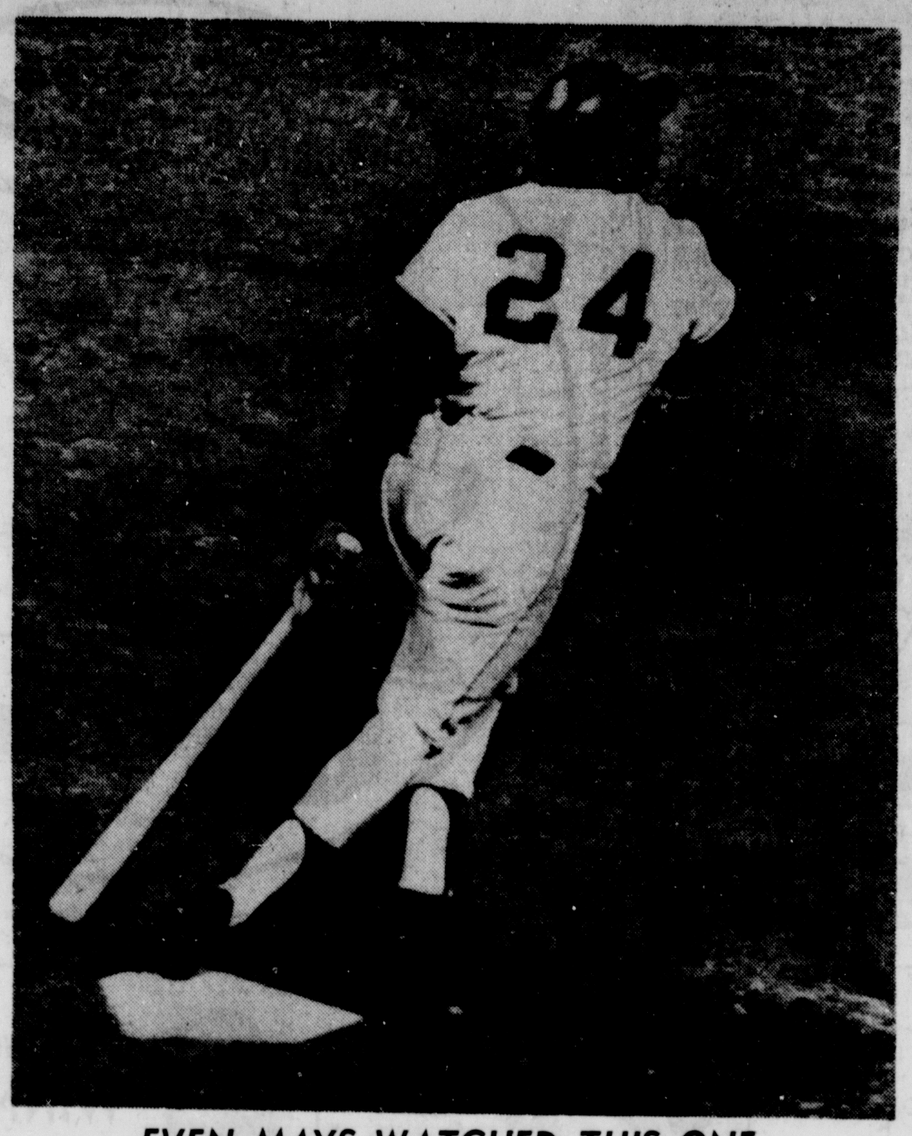
THE QUICK getaway of the Pirates this year is in marked contrast to the way they started the 1965 campaign. A year ago the Pirates could win only nine of their first 33 games and by May 20 were 13½ games off the pace, even four behind the Mets, in the National League cellar.

Then Pittsburgh won 19 of their next 20 games and the Pirates were back in the race but ultimately finished No. 3 behind the Dodgers and Giants. The admirable 1965 comeback of the Pirates was the primary reason they got top ratings this year.

ALTHOUGH THE Pirates had their early season problems last year, the Giants were not one of them. Of the nine Pirate wins in the first 33 games last season, three were against the Giants who just couldn't handle the Pirates in 1965. The Pirates couldn't win a pennant for themselves but kept the Giants from winning one by beating them 11-7 over the season's 18 games.

THE BRAVES and the Phillies, among the top rated six, thus far have justified the preseason crystal ball gazing. The Braves looked like pennant winners on their first visit to Candlestick Park when they twice belted the Giants into submission, hitting six homers in two games.

Then the Braves were helpless in bowing to the Astros in their new Atlanta home. It's very puzzling how such things can happen but that's baseball in the National League where it is extremely precarious to make extravagant predictions.



EVEN MAYS WATCHED THIS ONE

Willie Mays watches the flight of the ball after tying into Claude Osteen's change up Wednesday night at Candlestick Park. Being the homer that established a new record (512) in the National League, even Mays wanted to see the ball clear the rightfield fence.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Unlucky Players Can Win More By Forgetting About Guessing

Some people are so unlucky that they could not guess what day of the week it is even if you gave them seven chances.

Don't despair if you belong in this unfortunate group. You'll do better in some hands if you don't guess at all.

West took his top diamond and led a third diamond. Declarer discarded a club, cashed the ace of hearts and let the jack of hearts ride for a finesse.

LOSS TO QUEEN

This lost to the queen, much to South's annoyance. He could have saved the heart trick if he had guessed the hearts the other way.

West returned a trump, and South had to guess who held the queen of clubs.

Using what he called his brain, South decided that both of the missing queens were not likely to be dealt to the same opponent. For this "reason," he finessed through East for the queen of clubs.

This finesse lost also, and South was down one. South is still screaming about his bad luck, but it would be a mistake to listen to him.

GOOD ODDS

The odds were better than two to one that the five missing trumps would be divided three-to-two. If so, there was no need for South to guess about either queen.

South should take the second round of trumps with the king instead of letting the jack ride as a finesse.

This leaves only the queen out against him.

THREE SPADES

Declarer runs the three spades and then leads a trump to give up a trick to the queen.

Any return will then give him his contract.

A club return gives declarer a free finesse. Any other return allows dummy to ruff while South discards another club.

Either way, the game is safe.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

♠ 8 6 4
♥ Q 5 3
♦ A K 4 2
♣ Q 7 4

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.

With 11 points in high cards, you are too strong for a raise to two hearts but not strong enough for a jump to three hearts.

Bid a side suit first and raise the hearts later to suggest the intermediate strength of your hand.

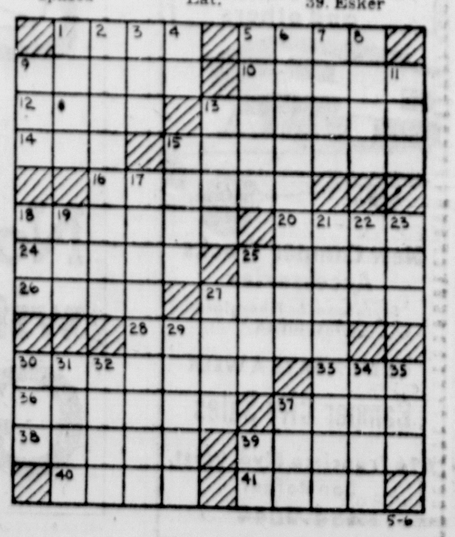
Yesterday's Answer



Experts Arguing Why Wall Street Shudders

NEW YORK (UPI) —The stock market took its biggest one day plunge yesterday singe the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963 with across-the-board losses of nearly two per cent and deficits up to 20 points on the glamor issues.

Brokers hesitated to give any sweeping explanations for the sharp decline, but two theories semed to prevail:

The market's nervous behavior was a reflection of apparent uncertainty among government officials over how to meet the mounting threat of inflation in the face of the "guns or butter" controversy triggered by the war in Viet Nam.

An announcement by General Motors Corp., the nation's largest industrial firm, that it was cutting automobile production by about 100,000 units at some of its plants because of an inventory surplus.

Whatever the cause, the name of the game was selling on Wall Street yesterday. The trading was so brisk high-speed tickers fell 10 minutes behind transactions on the floor at one point, and were still seven minutes behind when the final gong brought an end to the day's activity.

The United Press International stock market indicator showed a loss of 1.93 per cent for the 1,442 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Losers overwhelmed gainers, 1,083 to 18.

Dow-Jones industrial average dropped 15.09 to 899.77.

Those who felt that confusion among government officials on the inflation issue was chiefly to blame for Thursday's tailspin pointed to conflicting statements made this week by Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler and Federal Reserve Board Chairman William McChesney Martin.

Fowler said yesterday that economic trends still do not warrant an anti-inflationary tax increase.

Martin, chairman of the quasi-independent reserve board, said Wednesday night across-the-board increase in corporate and personal income taxes was the logical way" to deal with current inflationary problems.

Stock Market Closes Mixed; Trading Heavy

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed mixed today, wiping out all or most of the decline on average which — at its worst—matched or exceeded yesterday's plunge.

Trading was heavy. A huge buying wave swept the market.

The recovery drive was sparked by a published report that General Motors said all its plants would resume normal operations Monday.

GM common snapped back from a 2-point drop and was showing a fractional gain in the final minutes.

Gains of 3 or 4 points were shown by United and Eastern Airlines, Boeing and Chicago and North Western.

Here was the picture near the close:

Volume for the day was estimated at 12.3 million shares compared with 10.09 million yesterday.

Stocks declined from the start but losses were cut by mid-day and an increasing number of issues were showing gains. Losers still outnumbered gainers by about 3 to 1 when the recovery stalled—then selling increased as stocks sank to their lows of the day.

Another stiff loss was in the making as IBM sank nearly 17 points, Zenith and Eastern Air Lines 3, Xerox 11, Polaroid 4½, Texas Instruments 6 or more.

General Motrs was down between 1 or 2 points, touching new lows.

Chicago and North Western converted a 3-point recovery into a loss exceeding a point. Other recoveries by high-flying issues melted away.

Brokers said the fresh wave of selling arose from disappointment over failure of a rally to develop.

Sperry Rand, very actively traded, was ahead for the position of most active stock, showing a loss of a bout a point.

Losses of a point or more by key stocks such as Union Carbide, Eastman Kodak, Air Reduction, New York Central, Goodyear and United Aircraft pulled the averages down to big losses. General Electric dropped more than 2.
